FIRST ANNUAL PLAY FESTIVAL

WILL BE HELD ON THE PLAY GROUNDS WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON AND EVENING.

Various Contests and Games Will be Held and the Band Will Furnish Several Selections.

The first annual play festival of North Platte will be held at the public playground Wednesday. The first event will be held in the afternoon and will be a sand house building contest which will be open to all children under eight years of age. Two and a half feet of space will be allotted to each child and judges will be provided to pass on the best structure which the children will build. Prize boxes of candy will be awarded to the builder of the best structure in each division. Children must bring their own shovels and other tools.

The rest of the festival will be held from seven to nine in the evening. The opening event will be an exciting game of playground ball between the East End and the West End. This will be interesting and entertaining as there are several future Walter Johnsons and Ty Cobbs on these two teams. It will be followed by various games and stunts in which the boys and girls will take part and the evening's program will close by a folk dance given by a number of the girls. The band has very generously offered to help make this first play festival a success and will render several selections during the evening. It is hoped that the people generally will take an interest in this affair and help to make it a real community holiday event.

Nathaniel Lapp Dies

Nathaniel Lapp, who for twenty years had lived north of Wallace, died yesterday at the home of a daughter at Moorefield. Death was due to cancer of the stomach which had afflicted him for a year or more, and for which he had taken treatment in North Platte. The deceased was past sixty years of age, and leaves several children. The funeral will be held at Moorefield.

Certain of the near approach of death, Mr. Lapp a couple of weeks ago ordered a sale of his personal property on the farm and set the date for August 25th, the day on which his funeral occurs. The sale could not be recalled following his death and it will be held today.

The Ball Tournament.

The base ball tournament held Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of last week together with the finals played Sunday formed the best and cleanest ballfest North Platte has ever had. Each of the eight games were good, the members of the teams conducted themselves in a most gentlemanly manner, the fans were as orderly as it is possible for enthusiastic fans to be, and the attendance was sufficiently large to meet the financial requirements. We question if one could follow the western league teams through eight consecutive games and see as uniformly good ball as was witnessed on the local grounds. To Manager Robinson, of the North Platte team, is due much of the credit for the success of the tournament. He is one of North Platte's "live wires," and we are glad he is one of us.

L. L. Walker left this morning for Paxton to spend a few days looking after some business matters.

They are preparing for the foreign missionary field and as soon as they complete their course in school they will go into the foreign missionary work.

Dr. Thomson, nee Dr. Bertha Mangon, has been here for nearly a year and she has a host of friends who regret that she will leave the city. However, they are glad to know that she is going into work of the nature for which she is preparing. She will go as a medical missionary. Mr. Thomson has been here only a short time, but he has made many friends here and the best wishes of all their friends go with them in their chosen work.

Hoagland is Nominated

State Senator Hoagland has received the republican nomination for lieutenant-governor, his lead at present being 2,500. Returns from other counties yet to report will largely increase this figure. Practically every county in the state outside of Douglas has given Mr. Hoagland a majority. Douglas county gave Shotwell a big majority, due to the fact that he is an Omaha man. Mr. Hoagland ran particularly strong in the west end of the state, where of course he is best known, but the fact that he led in nearly all counties is certainly a compliment to him. North Platte has reason to congratulate itself that it has a candidate on the state ticket.

A Sure Enough Coward

Some of the residents of the west part of the city and especially of west Sixth street are complaining that some one in that part of the city is placing tacks on the walk. It started with carpet tacks, but recently the walk was strewn with large flat-head tacks. The work is evidently done for the sake of a few who ride their bicycles on the walk, but the person scattering the tacks has evidently forgotten or overlooked the fact that a number of bare-footed children play on the walks and that where they would puncture one tire they would probably stick tacks in several children's feet.

An act of this nature is especially cowardly. A person having a grievance of that nature should have nerve enough to make himself known and if they do not wish to take the matter in their own hands, they should take it up with the police and file charges against those with whom they wish to get even. This same class of people is the one that would poison a neighbor's cattle or fine stock, or write an anonymous letter.
