- For Congressman, Moses P. Kinkaid For State Senator, D. M. Douthett. For Representatives, Scott Reynolds, W. H. Woodhurst. For County Clerk, C. W. Yost For County Treasurer, A. N. Durbin. For Sheriff, A. J. Salisbury. For County Superintendent, Aileen Gantt For County Attorney, P. R. Halligan For County Surveyor, Paul G. Meyer. For County Commissioner, E. H. Springer. For Police Magistrate, I. L. Miltonberger. For County Judge (Non-Partisan), Geo. E. French.

At the primary election last Tuesday only three voters in the county registered themselves as progressives—progressive republicans, we infer. Evidently the republicans of Lincoln county do not favor a third party and in this conclusion they are correct. Progressive legislation can be accomplished by a majority party, but not by a minority party. The republican party has always been a party of progress; the evidence can be found in its past record.

R. B. Howell, of Omaha, who has apparently secured the republican nomination for governor, may be, as some claim of the "silk stocking" stripe and somewhat of an autocrat, but all will admit that he has business and executive ability. The expenditures of the state have increased threefold in the last decade, and it would seem that a check to further increase is needed. With Mr. Howell in the executive chair he will be in position to call a halt on extravagant expenditures.

In his home county, Ross Hammond received five votes out of six for governor. In Nancy county, his home, Senator Kemp received 617 votes out of a total 659—a remarkable tribute. In his home county of Douglas, Howell received about twice as many votes as his combined opponents, notwithstanding a fierce local fight against him. The same results will be found in the home of nearly all candidates for whatever office. We still think most of the men nearest home and best known. That speaks pretty well for human nature.—State Journal.

In speaking of the university football team for the coming season, the State Journal makes the following allusion to a North Platte boy: "Norris comes from North Platte, Neb., where he was rated as the most powerful line player in high school circles in that section of the Cornhusker commonwealth. He was considerable of a 'beast' in bucking against the varsity in last year's scrimmage bouts and is an likely a fish-ating candidate as has appeared on Nebraska field in years.

Probably 100 foreign built vessels will apply for American registry under the bill just enacted if President Wilson decides to suspend certain provisions of the navigation laws, as he is authorized to do. The laws involved require watch officers to be American citizens and that survey-inspection and measurement of vessels admitted to American registry must be made by United States officials.

Go to C. A. R. Rounlen Judge Grimes, Judge Hoagland, J. E. Evans, J. F. Schmitt and Alonzo McMichael left on the branch train this morning for Bayard where they will attend the district reunion of the Grand Army of the Republic. This reunion is largely attended by the veterans of the civil war who reside in the western counties of the state, and the old comrades have a very enjoyable time. The reunion lasts three days.

GET TO THE CAUSE

North Platte People Are Learning the Way

There is but little peace or comfort for the man or woman with a bad back. The distress begins in early morning—keeps up throughout the day. It's hard to get out of bed, it's torture to stoop or straighten. Plasters and liniments may relieve, but can not cure if the cause is inside—the kidneys. When suffering so, use Doan's Kidney Pills, the tested and proven kidney remedy, used in kidney troubles for over 50 years. Doan's Kidney Pills are recommended by thousands for just such cases. Proof of their effectiveness in the testimony of this North Platte resident:

Charles F. Burroughs, 222 S. Pine St., North Platte, Neb., says: "Several years ago I had occasion to use Doan's Kidney Pills, procured from McDonnell & Graves' Drug Store, (now Schiller & Co.'s Drug Store), and found them to be a good kidney remedy. I suffered from burning pains in the small of my back and my kidneys were very weak. Doan's Kidney Pills soon cured me completely. I have not been bothered by kidney trouble since. I take pleasure in endorsing this remedy for the benefit of other kidney sufferers."

CARL BRODBECK WEDS MISS ETHEL POSEY

A wedding that created some surprise to the friends of the contracting parties was that of Carl Brodbeck and Miss Ethel Posey, both of this city which occurred in Omaha on Thursday of last week. Miss Posey had gone to Kentucky to visit friends, but by agreement with Mr. Brodbeck returned to Omaha Thursday and met him in that city. Mr. Brodbeck is a North Platte product, a young man of sterling qualities and is associated with his father in the meat market. Mrs. Brodbeck is the daughter of J. H. Posey, manager of the Pacific Hotel, and is very popular with acquaintances.

Blalock Case Dismissed The case of the city vs. W. H. Blalock was tried Friday before Police Magistrate Walker and his case against him was dismissed. Blalock was charged with exceeding the speed limit and he was arrested without a warrant by Officer Freiberg and was turned over to the sheriff. He put up his ten dollar appearance bond and was released. Several witnesses testified that he was not speeding, one of them testified that he was especially watching the car as it had previously belonged to him and that the engine was not working well and had been shut off just before Blalock was arrested.

O'Connell is Bound Over The case of the state of Nebraska vs. Maurice J. O'Connell was finished up Friday in the county court and O'Connell was bound over to the district court under bonds of $800. The case lasted over two days and many witnesses were called by both sides. County Attorney Gibbs prosecuted the case and Judge J. S. Hoagland defended O'Connell.

O'Connell was tried for embezzlement of $90 of funds belonging to a corporation of which he was a stockholder. William Lyman, the complaining witness in this suit, was the other stockholder in the corporation. The corporation was formed in 1912 and has been in operation since that year. The complaining witness alleged that the defendant had collected a note due him from H. L. Pennington and that he had appropriated the money to his own private use and that he failed and refused to turn the money over to him. The court, after hearing the evidence ruled that O'Connell was, in his opinion, guilty as charged and he bound him over to the district court.

Town and County News.

Miss Edna Gilman, of Brady, arrived in the city Friday for a short visit with friends here.

Miss Margaret and Master Morton Fredrickson have been spending the past week with relatives at Keystone.

Dr. J. S. Twinem was called to Hershey Saturday to attend the little baby of Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Beauchamp, who is quite sick.

Miss Mason returned Friday to her home at Hershey after having been confined for several days at the Brown Memorial hospital for medical treatment.

Guy Dolson, a former North Platte boy who is living on homestead land in Garden county, recently threshed forty acres of wheat that averaged twenty-eight bushels to the acre.

Just when ready to start on their fishing trip to Ender's lake Sunday morning J. C. Den and party discovered a break in Mr. Den's car and the trip was postponed until tomorrow.

Marjorie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andy Lidell, is reported quite seriously ill at the North Platte general hospital. She was taken to the hospital Friday and her condition is considered quite serious.

Frank Johnson, the Wheelieft druggist, drove over in his car Saturday and spent the day transacting business. Mr. Johnson says the extreme dry weather has resulted in slack business in Wheelieft.

In the primary election in Dawson county Dan McKee, well known in North Platte, was defeated for the democratic nomination for treasurer by five votes. Mr. McKee has been filling the position of treasurer for three years.

Ben Sailor, postmaster at Elm Creek, has been succeeded by Ed. P. Fitzgerald. Mr. Sailor, who is known to many North Platte people, has gone to Columbus to assume management of the Tribune printing plant, which he recently purchased.

Believing that "the better the day the better the deed," a score of members of Riverside Golf club drove out to the club grounds Sunday morning and with shovel and hoe, cleared a twenty foot space around each hole.

The golf links are now ready for play, which will begin as soon as the outfits ordered arrive. The people of North Platte, or rather those who attend ball games, lift their hat to W. J. Tiley as an umpire. His work during the tournament was absolutely fair, with no tinge of favoritism, and he knows the game as well as the rules. The visiting teams were not slow in giving Mr. Tiley the credit he so well deserved.

Quite a delegation of Sidney people were in town Saturday, coming here to conduct an injunction case before Judge Grimes sitting in chambers. The case is one in which the Sidney Electric Co. seeks to permanently enjoin the village of Sidney from letting the contract for the erection of a municipal lighting plant for an amount in excess of the 22,500 bonds recently issued by the village.

Not So Strange After All You may think it strange that so many people are cured of stomach trouble by Chamberlain's Tablets. You would not, however, if you should give them a trial. They strengthen and invigorate the stomach and enable it to perform the functions naturally. Mrs. Rosie Rish, Wabash, Ind., writes: "Nothing did me the least good until I began using Chamberlain's Tablets. It is decidedly the best medicine for stomach trouble I have ever used." A Chinese View of American Women. "The intellect of the American woman is equal, if not superior, to that of the men," says Dr. Wu Ting Fang, late Chinese minister to the United States. In "America Through the Spectacles of an Oriental Diplomat." "American women are good conversationalists, and many of them are eloquent and endowed with 'the gift of gab.' One of the cleverest and wittiest speeches I have ever heard was from a woman who spoke at a public meeting on a public question. They are also good writers, and their work shows profound insight and wide culture. Naturally such women cannot be expected to play second fiddle. They exercise great influence, and when married they 'rule the roost.' It should be mentioned that their husbands submit willingly to their tactful rule and gladly obey their commands without feeling that they are servants. I would advise any married woman who complains of her husband being unruly and unpleasant to take a lesson from the ladies of America."

His Labor Saving Device. The late Charles H. Britting, proprietor of the New York actors' restaurant known as the "Little Hall of Fame," took a keen interest in popular trends and movements of all kinds. Mr. Britting thought little of scientific management and efficiency engineering. He said one day of an efficiency engineer: "Blank is a fool, and I thought he'd go broke, but, by jingo, the fellow has deceived me. He has discovered a labor saving device, and his address will be Easy street from now on."

"Good boy, Blank!" said an actor. "And what labor saving device has he discovered?" "An elderly widow," Mr. Britting answered—"an elderly widow with a million who has consented to marry him." —New York Tribune.

Strange Race of Ancient Britons. Among the races of human kind which away back of history's records passed like clouds over various parts of the earth one of the most puzzling to ethnologists is that of the early bronze age men who dwell in Aberdeenshire, Scotland, and are supposed to have constructed the special forms of stone circles whose remains are now found there. These men differed significantly from all the prehistoric racial types previously determined in Britain. They were remarkably broadheaded, and their average stature was only five feet three inches, as shown by skeletons. The British neolithic race was markedly long headed, and the bronze age race, which built the round tumuli, was also long headed and tall.

It is Well. It is well to carefully cultivate tastes. Ruskin says, "Tell me what you like and I will tell you what you are." It is well to study human character. Bodenstedt says: "In the face of every human being his history stands plainly written; his innermost nature steps forth to the light. Yet they are the fewest who can read and understand."

It is well to "brush up against the world." Goethe says: "Talent forms itself in secret, character in the great current of the world." It is well to be never cast down. Elizabeth Barrett Browning says: "Let no one tell his death. Be called unhappy. Measure not the work until the day's out and the labor done."

Wingless Victory. Aunt Dinah was a colored saint in Charleston, who could shout above the entire congregation. It was the custom during the collection to sing "Fly abroad, thou mighty gospel," and Aunt Dinah always threw back her head, shut her eyes and sang away lustily till the plate was returned to the altar. Deacon Abrahamus Green, noting this, stopped when he reached her pew one Sunday and said: "Look a-heah, Dinah! What use you a-singing 'Fly abroad, thou mighty gospel,' if you ain't give nothin' to make her fly?"—New York Post.

The Twenty Year Test. "Some twenty years ago I used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," writes Geo. W. Brock, publisher of the Enterprise at Aberdeen, Md. "I discovered that it was a quick and safe cure for diarrhoea. Since then no one can sell me anything said to be 'just as good.' During all these years I have used it and recommended it many times, and it has never disappointed anyone." For sale by all dealers.
