SOCIETY GIRL WEDS ST. LOUIS MAN

MISS GENEVIEVE OTTENSTEIN, OF THIS CITY, BECOMES BRIDE TOWNSEND WILLIAM PECK

The Ceremony Occurs Wednesday Evening at the Ottenstein Residence and Was an Elaborate Affair.

An elaborate and prettily appointed wedding occurred at 8:30 Wednesday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John Ottenstein on west Third street when their daughter Genevieve became the bride of Townsend William Peck, of St. Louis, but for two years holding a responsible position with the Stuart Construction Co., with headquarters at Omaha. For this happy and momentous occasion, the rooms were profusely and artistically decorated, the color scheme being green and white, in which palms, ferns, asparagus and garden flowers mingled in pleasing display. The ceremony was performed in the projecting window which had been transformed into a bower of green and white, the truth being pledged before Rev. Fr. McDaid of St. Patrick's church as the officiating priest.

The entrance into the music room was led by little Eloise Crook as flower girl who carried a basket of Aaron Ward roses, followed by the maid, Miss Louise Ottenstein, the bride on the arm of her father, and the groom and his best man, Harry S. Peck of St. Louis. Mendelssohn's wedding march was rendered by Miss Ida Ottenstein, and fifty guests witnessed the ceremony.

The bride wore a gown of ivory satin trimmed with Princess lace, the train flowing in cascade, and the tulle veil caught in cap effect with orange blossoms. She wore a lavilere of sapphire and diamonds set in platinum, the groom's gift to the bride. The shower bouquet carried was of valley lilies. The maid's gown was of green crepe de chine, trimmed with shadow lace and pearl ornaments. She wore an algrette in her hair and carried an arched bouquet of Aaron Ward roses. Mrs. Ottenstein wore lavender brocade silk with corsage bouquet of orchids, and Miss Ida Ottenstein was gowned in yellow crepe de chine trimmed in oriental lace.

Following the ceremony congratulations and felicitations were extended and later a two course wedding lunch was served at tables. At the bride's table covers were laid for sixteen. The table decorations were in the wedding colors, green and white.

Out-of-town guests were: Miss Sue Peck, of St. Louis, Miss Annie Raiston, Rock Island, Ill., Miss Margaret Ware, of Blair, and John W. Ottenstein of Salt Lake City. Miss Peck's gown was of green messaline trimmed with oriental lace and crystal. Miss Raiston wore a gown of Spanish lace, and Miss Ware was gowned in white meiseir with crystal overdraps.

The gifts were handsome and varied. Mr. and Mrs. Peck left on the midnight train on a western trip and upon their return will be at home in Omaha.

The bride is a bright, vivacious young woman, born in North Platte, a graduate of the local schools, and that education supplemented by a college degree in pharmacy. With a constant smile that makes friends and a repartee that is enjoyed, Genevieve Ottenstein was one of North Platte's most popular girls, and this writer, who exchanged so many quips and jests with her, sincerely wishes that only the pleasures of life may come to her.

Mr. Peck is a young man of pleasing address and exemplary habits, who came here two years ago with the Stewart Construction Co. and remained during the building of the new round house. It was during this period that the acquaintance was made which resulted so happily Wednesday evening.

Queer Old Book Titles.

These are some of the odd titles of old English books published in the time of Cromwell:

"A Most Delectable Sweet Perfumed Nougat For God's Saints to Smell At."
"Biscuit Baked In the Oven of Charity, carefully conserved for the Chickens of the Church, the Sparrows of the Spirit and the Sweet Swallows of Salvation."

"A Sigh of Sorrow For the Sinners of Zion breathed out of a Hole In the Wall of an Earthly Vessel known Among Men by the name of Samuel Fish."

"Eggs of Charity Layed For the Chickens of the Covenant and Billed with the Water of Divine Love. Take ye out and Eat."

"The Spiritual Mustard Pot to make the Soul Sneeze with Devotion."

Taking a Mean Advantage.

Once a thrifty Scotch-physician was called to a case where a woman had dislocated her jaw. He very soon put her right. The woman asked how much was to pay. The doctor named his fee. The patient thought it too much. He, however, would not take less, and as the woman refused to give him the fee he began to yawn. Yawning, as every one knows, is infectious. The young woman in turn yawned. Her jaw again went out of joint, and the doctor triumphantly said, "Now, until you hand me over my fee your jaw can remain as it is." Needless to say, the money was promptly paid.

Inadvisable.

During a snowstorm on the Highland railway a train was held up for an hour or so. The guard, a cheery Scot, passed along the carriages trying to keep up the spirits of the passengers. An old gentleman angrily complained that if the train didn't go on he would "die of cold."

"Tak' my advice an' no' die that," replied the guard. "Min' y', we charge a shillin' a mile for corpses."—Dundee Advertiser.

Wireless Messages.

Wireless messages are sent much more easily at night than in the day time and in winter than in summer, and the range under favorable conditions at midnight during midwinter is said to be several hundred per cent better than at noon in midsummer.

The Barrier.

First Tramp—You won't get nothing decent there; them people is vegetarians. Second Tramp—Is that right? First Tramp—Yes, and they've got a dog wot ain't.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

The Servant Question.

More women would keep two servants if it wasn't that they are not strong enough to do the work for more than one at a time.—Florida Times-Tribune.

The richest virgin soil is waiting for you in Manitoba—and the Alberta-Saskatchewan district. You can buy it for practically the same price per acre that the mere mauling per acre of soil in many parts of the U. S. cost! We actually are in a position to enable you to own 10 acres for every acre that you now own or farm—and every acre here will produce double what a worn-out acre produces anywhere. On top of that, we give you

20 Years to Pay for It You gain the land for from $11 to $30 per acre. In irrigation districts the price is from $3 to $55. You pay merely one twentieth down. The balance is split up into 19 equal payments. The farm will more than meet the payments and your family's living expenses.
