

I sell more Big Ben

alarms in a week than I sell dollar clocks in a month and I can sell them with positive knowledge that they'll live up to all claims that I make for them.

There's a feeling of bigness and strength about them, a peculiar glow of brightness and cheer, that is strangely novel about an alarm clock.

And their work doesn't end with the morning call; they're good, reliable timekeepers for all day use and they're good looking enough for any surroundings.

HEALTH, COMFORT AND ECONOMY ARE ALL COMBINED IN THE POPULAR PRICED, PERFECT FITTING MUNSING UNDERWEAR FOR MEN, WOMEN AND CHILDREN. We believe in Munsing underwear, that's why we sell it, and the reason we believe in it is because we know positively that it is honestly made, well finished, and reasonably priced. Those who wear it believe in it because they know it really fits the body, really wears long and well, really feels good to the wearer, because you can "forget you have got it on." None of the buncy, distressing feeling about Munsing. None of the annoyance due to imperfect making, and you get a real fit, even if you are longer, broader, or flatter than ordinary people. It was not chance or luck that caused us to tie up with the Munsing line. It was a decision reached after a careful test and investigation of different kinds of underwear, and the wish to offer our trade only the kind which proved its worth. Ask any Munsing wearer if he or she would wear any other kind, and then get into the great Munsing family of satisfied wearers of the best underwear at any price. Why experiment with the unknown when the proven best is ready to hand? We have laid in a full line, including your size, at the price you feel able to pay.
