LECTURE COURSE FOR THIS SEASON

WILL CONSIST OF SEVEN NUMBERS AND OPENS OCT. 14TH WITH MILITARY GIRLS

Alton Packard, Cartoonist; Beryl Buckley, Monologist; Old Home Singers and Nelson S. Darling Among the Talent.

An excellent lecture course to be held in the Presbyterian church has been engaged for this winter by a number of the men of this city and the numbers that have been engaged give promise of the best course that has ever been held in this city. The course consists of seven numbers and opens October 14th with The Military Girls.

This lecture course was planned and arranged for by four men of this city and the Twentieth Century club is also behind it which will insure its success. Rev. J. L. Barton of the Baptist church is secretary of the course and he will give any information that is required of the course.

Following is the entire program for the course:

The Military Girls, October 14.
Alton Packard, Cartoonist, October 31.

The Princeton Players, November 11.
M. Beryl Buckley, Monologist, January 15.

Dr. E. A. Sturmer, Lecturer, February 8.

Old Home Singers, February 12.
Nelson S. Darling, some time in March.

The course is furnished by the Redpath Lyceum Bureau and comes at a great expense. The patronage of this course will decide whether or not North Platte wishes to support entertainments of this high class and everyone should take advantage to assist in making a course of this kind perpetual here.

The Ripplelton is a Wooltex coat that you should try on Copyright 1914 The H. Mack Co.

DO not decide on your Fall wrap until you have seen this luxurious, gracefully hanging wrap, which has been reproduced from one of the smartest new Bernard models.

It is made of rich furette, which ripples in sumptuous folds, giving this garment a style and character that has rarely been equalled.

The semi-flare collar has long tabs that cross in front, giving a very handsome effect, while furnishing protection, as the collar may be closed for rough weather wear.

The coat is lined with rich peau de cygne.

Price $30.00.

The Ripplelton is three-quarter length. If you should desire a full length coat, you should see the Windshield or the New Marchioness, or one of the many other superb Wooltex wraps shown in our stocks; all at very moderate prices.
