

YOUR EYES

Your eyes are your bread winners. Take care of them. If you would stop and think what it would mean to be deprived of your eye-sight, how utterly helpless you would be, you wouldn't abuse your eyes in the least but would take the greatest care of them always.

The moment you feel that anything is wrong, if your sight is blurred, if you feel dizzy, if your eyes tire easily, you should not lose a minute in having them examined. By being prompt in attending to your eyes at the first sign of trouble you will be able to have the defect speedily and permanently cured.

ASSOCIATED CHARITIES FORMALLY ORGANIZED

MISS KRAMPH ELECTED PRESIDENT AND OTHER OFFICERS ARE ELECTED.

Articles of Association are Adopted by Those Present. Meeting to Plan Work will be Held Soon.

Nearly a hundred people representing nearly all of the organizations of the city attended the meeting Wednesday evening at the library building for the purpose of forming an organization of Associated Charities. Much interest was shown and those present were enthusiastic over getting the organization consummated as soon as possible.

The meeting was called to order by E. F. Seiberger of the Chamber of Commerce and he was elected chairman of the meeting. He brought with him articles of association which were then read and taken up for adoption. They were taken up one article at a time and were adopted with a few amendments and were thoroughly discussed by those present.

The matter of electing the officers was then taken up and Miss Kramph was elected president. She responded with a short speech in which she gave some good ideas of what would be expected of the organization. Edgar Schiller was elected vice-president of the organization and the following were elected as the other five members of the executive board: E. H. Evans, Dr. N. McCabe, Leonard B. Dick, Mrs. J. G. Beeler and Rev. J. L. Barton. The secretary and treasurer are to be appointed by this executive board and will work under its advisement.

The meeting was then turned over to discussion and a number expressed ideas as to the workings of the organization. James Keefe spoke in behalf of the B. P. O. E. and stated that he was authorized to say from them that they stood ready to help in any way desired. If it was work they were willing to do it and if it was money they were willing to contribute their share. Several others spoke regarding the different problems that would present themselves and upon the possibilities of the organization being a big factor in promoting community work here.

Miss Kramph was then called upon for a talk on the different phases of the work and she gave some interesting facts. Among the things she emphasized for the work of the organization was "restoring people's self-respect." She stated that too many times people are pauperized by the giving of charity when instead, they should be brought to see that they are only laboring under difficulties and that they still have it in them to do something for themselves instead of being subjects for charity. She stated that the work this year would be only experimental and that many errors would be made and much criticism would be invited, but that it should get busy and really do things.

After some other discussion the meeting then adjourned to meet at the call of the president.

SOCIETY AND CLUBS.

Beautiful decorations, gorgeous bouquets of garden flowers and many nice gowns characterized the informal coffee which was given Wednesday afternoon at the I. O. O. F. hall by Mesdames H. S. White, V. A. Hinman and J. S. Twinem. Two hundred and twenty-eight guests were entertained and all pronounced the entertainment one of the most successful ever held in this city.

The shades were drawn in the beautiful hall and the subdued electric lighting showed off the decorations to the best advantage. The hall was literally strewn with flowers, as they were placed in every available nook and corner.

The guests were met at the door by Mesdames Beeler, Scott, Rincker and Grimes and were ushered into the reception hall where they were seated by Mesdames Wilcox and Prosser. Five tables were served and the two-course luncheon was very nice.

At the tables Mrs. Field and Mrs. Morey presided at the coffee urns and Misses Elizabeth Hinman and Virginia Bullard assisted. The guests were served by Misses Helen Gleason, Georgiana McKay, Dorothy Hinman, Esther Hogsett, Georgia Hoxie and Florence Wilcox. The tables were profusely decorated with garden flowers and on a beautiful linen and lace center piece in the center of the table stood a bouquet of Killarney roses.

A nice musical program was presented which was much enjoyed by the guests. The following took part: Instrumental, Misses Esther Hogsett, Dulcoe Frater and Mayme McMichael and Mrs. Cram; vocal, Mesdames Cramer, Leininger and Wirt. Little Thelma Starr pleased the guests very much with two songs, "Papa Has a Sweetheart," and a lullaby. She provoked much praise from the guests both for her sweet voice and her rendition of the two selections. Mrs. Carl Bonner played three accompaniment for Mrs. Cramer.

A number of out-of-town guests attended the party which was the much more of a success for its informality. The program was interspersed between the other events and lasted during the entire afternoon. All who attended were much pleased and were enthusiastic in their praises of the entertaining ladies.
