However, she is doing the best she can by getting out into the more populous precincts on Saturdays and meeting as many of the voters as possible.

Candor compels us to admit that Governor Morehead will be a hard man to defeat. Not that he has proven a brilliant or successful governor, but rather that he has proven a good politician and has built around him a "machine" greater than any other governor ever possessed.

Entertains Catholic Choir The members of the choir of the Catholic church were delightfully entertained Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Trovillo, eight miles out in the country.

The party of thirty persons left in the afternoon in automobiles for the Trovillo farm and arrived shortly after five o'clock. A three-course dinner was served and it was followed by toasts. Father Patrick McDaid acted as toastmaster.

After the toasts dancing was enjoyed until a late hour when the company returned home with pleasant memories of an enjoyable evening.

Browner and the others of the carpenter gang were repairing the porch and Browner was engaged in raising the front of the porch with a screw jack. In some way the jack slipped when he had raised the porch some distance and let it fall.

Browner is a young man of about nineteen years of age and is a finely built man. He regained consciousness during the night and was able to talk yesterday morning. His injuries are of such nature that the exact extent of them cannot be ascertained. He will be confined to the hospital for some time.

Elks are Served with Fine Supper. The sixty-four Elks who participated in the billiard tournament were served with an exceptionally fine supper Tuesday evening under the direction of Steward Smith.

Clyde Friso, captain of the defeated team, made a speech in which he did not concede superior skill to the winners, as they had only won by a paltry six billiards, and was confident that in another contest the losers of the last tournament would be winners in the next.

Rev. Fr. McDaid in well chosen words, and in behalf of the assembled Elks, extended thanks to Steward Smith for the excellent meal, for the interest he takes in providing entertainment for the members, and for his all-around worthiness.
