Drama of Creation.
New York City, Chicago, London nor Paris has no edge on the Gem City of the famous Platte Valley when it comes to the moving picture business. When this fact soaks into the minds of our appreciative readers they are prepared for another great happy surprise, which is the fact that we are to have five days of the grandest scenery that the money and genius of mankind can produce, absolutely FREE.

Sunday, October 11th, at 8 to 10 p. m., we can all go to the Keith theatre and without money or reserved seat ticket feast our eyes and hearts on one of the best treats God has ever given us. This great drama is to be given in four series. Part one, Sunday, October 11th; part two, Monday, October 12th; part three, Tuesday, October 13th; part 4, Wednesday, October 14. The finale, Friday evening only at 8 p. m. Our citizens are now offered the opportunity of witnessing the most instructive and entertaining picture of the bible. Part one deals with a clear and concise description of the creation both from a scientific and theological standpoint. The history of mankind and the earth is carefully shown to the mind, through the eye, God's administration of our affairs come out upon the canvas in their logical order for a period of over 1600 years. Rich music and clear lectures are given in language that all can easily understand and no one need take any offense. Part two, Monday, October 12th, shows the manner in which their ideas are on religious matters. All are welcome, no collections in any manner.

Many Events Planned for Catholic Girls' Fair.

A number of interesting events are being planned for the big fair which is to be held by the Catholic Girls' Club in "The Lloyd opera mouse October 19th and 20th. This will undoubtedly be the most gorgeous of all the interesting fairs that have ever been held here. On both nights a big dance will be given in the hall to which everyone is invited.

There will be about twenty booths which will be presided over by many mysterious persons. There will be everything from a candy booth to a gypsy fortune teller and there will be many novelty booths. The young ladies are working diligently to get everything in readiness for the big event.

One of the leading features of the fair will be the raffling off of a hand-made bed spread which was brought over from Ireland by Rev. Father McDaid. The spread is an unusually beautiful one and is of great value. Father McDaid was offered three hundred dollars for it while returning from that country.

Growing as a Distributing Point.
North Platte is rapidly growing as a distributing point for wholesale houses, and from the amount of business done in this manner it would seem that conditions justify the locating of wholesale houses in this city. The Tribune has referred at intervals to the shipments of fruit in carload lots into North Platte, the total of which during the past season would make a good sized train. But carload shipments are not confined to fruit, for within the past two weeks two cars of tomatoes have been shipped in, and Saturday a carload of rolled oats were received. Soap is also received in car lots, and many cars of potatoes, apples and cabbage are received during the fall and winter.

Miss Irene O'Donnell, who has accepted a responsible position in the telephone department of the Union Pacific at North Platte, left for that point this morning to assume the work. She is an expert telephone operator in railroad work, having held a similar position here for several months. —Laramie Republican.

Miss O'Donnell will take the position that has been held by Mrs. Theodore Lowe, who has resigned. She relieved Mrs. Lowe on her vacation when she left to get married, and at that time she was told that when Mrs. Lowe resigned she would be given the place.

Entertained by Miss Plumer.
Twenty-four ladies of this city spent Saturday afternoon very delightfully as the guests of Miss Alice Plumer at Maxwell. The ladies went down on the noon train and returned on the local. The entertaining feature was card games. A very enjoyable two course lunch was served.

E. T. Ingle Dies.
Mrs. Fred Gunn received a letter Saturday from Mrs. E. T. Ingle stating that her husband, former superintendent of the Ft. McPherson national cemetery, but of late living at Pineville, Ga., had passed away September 27th. His death came just as he had wished it might—suddenly and peacefully.

A Valuable Car of Seed.
Weingand & Orton last week shipped out a car of sweet clover seed from Maxwell that had a commercial value of seven thousand dollars. This is probably the most valuable car of farm produce ever sent out of Lincoln county.

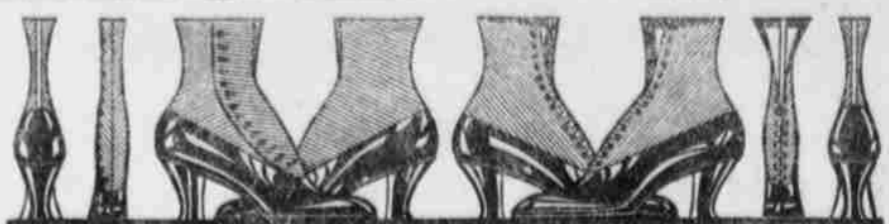

The second fire within a week broke out Saturday shortly before noon in the beer vault of John Den's in the east yards. The origin is unknown but it is suspected that it started either from sparks from a passing engine or that it had continued to smoulder from the preceding fire. The department made a hurried run and put out the flames with the chemicals and then flooded the top part of the refrigerator with water. The building had not yet been repaired from the fire before.

The barn dance which was held Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Weinberg was well attended and a pleasant time was reported. About twelve couples from here attended and they report an attendance of about two hundred. The guests were served with a fine feed of chicken sandwiches, cake and coffee.

Contractor G. W. Harlan is completing a residence for J. W. Shepard on south Dewey street, and is also assisting Contractor Cowgill complete a house he is building on south Chestnut street. Mr. Harlan has been located in North Platte as a contractor and builder for three years, and has always plenty of work to keep him busy.
