

SEVEN HUNDRED WELCOME

At least two hundred of our citizens were waiting at the Keith theatre Sunday evening to see part one of the famous bible picture show. In less than forty minutes every available seat was occupied, then the side and rear isles quickly filled up. For two hours the audience sat wrapped in tireless wonder and interest as one lesson in God's fathomless wisdom after another was so plainly portrayed on the canvas, and explained by the phonograph. At the conclusion one of the students asked the audience if they were pleased. It seemed everyone in the house instantly signified they were by standing up.

The Tribune can reach its readers in time to inform them that part four will be presented Wednesday at 3 and again at 8 p. m. The two keys which Christ gave to Peter will be presented to the eye and the real truth on this subject to the mind. The different stages of the churches both protestant and Catholic, will be depicted together with the powerful lesson applicable to us who are on earth now. Why God held back the hand of invention, science, art and literature from our generation; why God divided the world's history into four great kingdoms as Daniel in his interpretation of the king's dream said God would, and why God arranged human affairs so that only such part of the twenty billion of mankind created since Adam as now lives could clearly comprehend all these wonderful parts of a carefully and very wisely arranged plan of the ages. The stone cut out of the mountain which smote the great image on its feet and ground it to powder is clearly described and very forcefully shows how this stone is fulfilling God's decree issued through Daniel and is grinding thousands daily in the merciless maw of war.

A very able speaker will speak in conjunction with some very beautiful but striking pictures as a finale to these lectures Friday at 8 p. m. There will be no show Thursday.

Polzkill Held for Murder.
F. F. Polzkill, charged with the premeditated murder of W. W. Thomas on September 24th, had a preliminary hearing in Gandy Saturday and was bound over to the district court without bail. Thomas lived seven miles south of Stapleton, and it was on his farm that the murder was committed.

Judge and Mrs. H. M. Grimes left Sunday morning for Gothenburg to spend Sunday visiting friends. From there the judge went on to Lexington yesterday morning to hold district court.

North Platte Defeats Cozad.

The North Platte eleven defeated the Cozad bunch at Cozad Friday afternoon by the score of 12 to 0 in a fast, snappy game. The ground was wet and that was a hindrance to open plays, but the local boys played excellent ball, smashing through their opponents' line almost at will.

The first touchdown was made in the first four minutes of play. North Platte kicked to Cozad who fumbled and the locals recovered the ball and made the goal line on straight downs. The other was made in second quarter when Loudon made a forward pass to Cool who scored from the thirty-five yard line. They carried the ball across for two more touchdowns but Loudon fumbled losing one and on the other the ball had been called dead by the referee on an off side play by the Cozad men. Cozad did not get closer than the twenty-seven yard line where they lost on downs.

The local boys have improved much on their interference and they went into the game with lots of ginger. All played a star game. Bankins was referee and True of Cozad umpire.

LARGE NUMBER HEARD
DR. ANNA HOWARD SHAW

The Keith theatre was crowded to capacity Sunday afternoon to hear the lecture by Dr. Anna Howard Shaw who gave her first lecture on woman suffrage in Nebraska. The seats were all filled, there were about one hundred on the stage and the entrance was crowded.

The meeting was in charge of Bert M. Reynolds and Carol M. Ridenour, evangelist at the Christian church, had charge of the music, which was very good.

Dr. Shaw was introduced by Mrs. Axtell who gave an introductory address.

Dr. Shaw brought out many points in favor of woman suffrage for the sake of justice. All her arguments were conclusive and would withstand the criticism of the most skeptical. She spoke of this country as the "Land of the Free and the Home of the Brave" and then showed that it was not so. She pointed out the fact that giving the ballot to the women would be the last step in the evolution of personal rights that would make it so, and stated that that alone would make this the grand, free republic which it has been called in the past.

"It is not a thorough republic," said Dr. Shaw, "when one half of the people make laws that rule the other half. A republic is a government that is ruled by representatives of all the people, and until the women get the ballot this government is ruled by only a half of the people and that half makes the laws that govern the other half."

She closed her address with a talk on war which was very good. The question is often asked, she stated, if women would go to war were they given the ballot. She stated quite vociferously that they would not go out to fight against men. But, she stated, if the women came over to fight the American women would meet them in New York harbor and they would all go into the auditorium and hold a convention and arbitrate matters.

Dr. Shaw's address was especially interesting to all who heard her whether they were in sympathy with the movement or were "antis." Her experiences in traveling around have qualified her well to hold any audience and she held them all in rapt attention during her entire lecture. She stopped off here enroute from Nevada to Missouri and made only one stop in Nebraska. After her trip in Missouri she will return to Nebraska for a ten days' campaign.
