She alleges that the defendant made an assault on her without provocation and that he used very abusive language.

Next Friday afternoon the local high school foot ball team will meet the Sterling warriors on the local field and some game is expected. Last year the Sterling team defeated the North Platte boys by a score of twenty-eight to nothing, but the local team is considered somewhat superior to last year's team, and a hard fought contest may reasonably be expected. It is not known how the Sterling team of this year compares with the team of last year, but it is surmised that the Colorado town has a strong aggregation.

Senator W. V. Hoagland, candidate for lieutenant governor on the republican state ticket wrote from Grand Island announcing that he is making a tour of the counties from here to Omaha. North Platte Put On Major Chautauqua Circuit.

Negotiations were closed up Saturday whereby North Platte was placed on the major circuit of the Redpath-Horner Chautauqua Iyecum. The Chautauqua next year will last seven days and will bring much better talent into the city.

The seven day Chautauqua is far superior to the five-day course which was presented here last year. In addition to the extra two days there is much better talent furnished as there will be no weak or indifferent numbers on the program. The course will also be given at an opportune time which will assure more support. Last season it came so early that many people could not get out to it and especially the farmers who were busy in the fields could not come. It will be given this next season during the latter part of the season and in addition to it being a more opportune time the talent will be better prepared with their programs. The course will be given along the latter part of July or in August.

Some of the numbers that are assured for next year are: Senator Gore, the blind senator of Oklahoma, Governor Glynn, of New York, The Killarney Girls, Thevues' Band of twenty-eight pieces, and Sid Landon the character sketch artist. All of these numbers are tried and tested and have proven among the best. The management also hopes to have some speakers on the European war by that time.

J. R. Teagarden, state manager for the company, left Saturday evening after having secured the signatures of about sixty men of the city on the contract. The contract is here and the local committee expects to have at least seventy-five names on it.

Jessie to Nellie. "Where did you get that stunning suit?" Nellie—"Why at BLOCK'S of course. I bought it on east Fifth street."

Lexington Proves Too Many. The Lexington eleven defeated the locals Friday afternoon at Lexington by the score of 20 to 0. This is the first team that has scored on the local eleven and they are a much heavier team. The ground was wet and slippery and the heavy team had much the advantage. The Lexington men outweighed the locals by about ten pounds per man.

Lexington was defeated by Gothenburg and played a tie with Cozad. The locals rather expected to win. The wet grounds prevented them using open play, but once they made a thirty-yard gain on a forward pass. They could not make consistent gains, however, and also some of the men were hurt.

The Lexington lads scored two touchdowns in the second round and kicked both goals. In the third period they scored another but were unable to kick goal. They outplayed the locals in nearly every instance, keeping them from getting the ball closer than the ten-yard line. Temple of Lexington was referee and Baskins of this city umpire.

Mary to Mollie. "What a beautiful new coat you are wearing Mollie; where did you buy it?" Mollie—"Why you may know at Block's of course; they have the most beautiful line of coats in the city and you can save money enough to buy a good hat by buying your coat at BLOCK'S."

Farrington Estate Pays Second Inheritance Tax. An order was drawn in court Saturday by the attorney for the estate of the late Hattie E. Farrington for the payment of the inheritance tax on the estate. The estate is assessed at over twenty-five thousand dollars and because of its division among distant relatives the inheritance tax is heavy, amounting to $299.84.

This is the second time this estate has paid inheritance tax to the county. At the death of Louis Farrington, which occurred six years ago, the property was all bequeathed to the wife and an inheritance tax of nearly two hundred dollars was paid then. On account of the properties having been left together and bequeathed to the wife without incumbency it became another estate and for that reason subject to the inheritance tax.

The money derived from the inheritance tax is paid to the county treasurer and goes into the good roads fund.

Will of Henry F. Coates Read in County Court. The will of the late Henry F. Coates was opened last week in the county court, at the request of the heirs and was read. The will was filed with the county judge August 31, 1914 for safe keeping and it bears the date of August 31, 1914. It is witnessed by F. A. Cox and E. A. Crosby.

The will makes provision for the payment of the funeral expenses and for the erection of a $200 monument out of the personal property. The remainder of the personal property is bequeathed to the wife, Nancy A. Coates. All of the real property is bequeathed to the wife as long as she shall live and at her death one half of it is to be divided share and share alike between the two daughters, Clara J. Chase and Myrtle E. Coker, and the remaining half is to be divided share and share alike among the four sons, Velores D. Coates, Frank Coates, Adney S. Coates and Wm. Elmer Coates. Frank Coates is named in the will as executor of the will. No petition has been filed by the heirs.

For Rent. Four room house on east B street, between Dewey and Locust. J. C. HOLLMAN, Agent.

What Would You Do? There are many times when one man questions another's actions and motives. Men act differently under different circumstances. The question is, what would you do now if you had a severe cold? Could you do better than to take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy? It is highly recommended by people who have used it for years and know its value. Mrs. O. E. Sargent, Peru, Ind., says, "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is worth its weight in gold and I take pleasure in recommending it." For sale by all dealers.

Meeting a Great Success.

The evangelistic meetings which are in progress at the Christian church have been very much of a success thus far. The house was packed to the doors Sunday evening and there have been good crowds to all the services. There will be several special services this week. Last evening was a special service for mothers. Tomorrow evening the service will be especially to farmers and Thursday evening the service will be of especial interest. Mr. Ridenour, the singer, will give the Passion Play, illustrated with stereoscopic pictures. There have been thirty additions to the church thus far during the meetings.

The meeting will continue for the remainder of this week and probably longer. Mr. Ridenour, who has been conducting the singing will leave Friday evening after the services and after that Mr. Knowles will have charge of all the work, both singing and preaching.

To the Voters of Lincoln County. If you see fit to accord me the privilege of representing your interests in the coming state legislature as representative, I shall endeavor to be consistent and conscientious to the cause and loyal to the confidence placed in me.

I am a farmer. All my interests are located in Lincoln county. If chosen to this place of honor, I hope to be instrumental in helping to frame laws, the application of which should be of vital importance to the farmer as well as the business man—a square deal to all. I think you will agree with me that it will not be a bad thing to have a few farmers in the next legislature. Certain vital changes in our tax laws will come to issue in this coming legislature. Other issues of equal importance to the farmers and stockmen will require integrity of purpose and labor conscientiously performed in the interest of all voters.

Very truly yours, SCOTT REYNOLDS.

Halligan Star in Saturday's Game. The state university foot ball team defeated the strong Michigan Aggies on the Lincoln field Saturday by a score of twenty-seven to nothing.

Victor Halligan of this city, captain of the university team, was the bright star in the game, his playing receiving the following mention in the Omaha Bee.

Captain Halligan was the brightest star of the game. The North Platte man was a tower of strength on the line and it was largely due to him that the noted Julian was upset so readily. Whenever the Aggies tried the Halligan side of the line they were frustrated and their only gains were made through the other side. But it was Halligan's kicking that drew admiration. His place kick was a wonder. Until the ball was seen sailing through the posts the large crowd feared for his success. And on the attempts at kicking goals after touchdowns he proved to be a master. Each of the three attempts were successful. Halligan also made some terrific tackle-round plunges which netted Nebraska's good gains.
