R. N. Lamb, of the Fourth ward, in Tuesday's issue of last week advertised onions at 90 cents per bushel. In Friday's issue, through an error, the 9 in 90 was inverted making the selling price appear as 60. This caused Mr. Lamb some "grief," for it appeared that on Saturday the whole town wanted to buy onions at 60 cents, which of course was much lower than the price at which onions could be sold.

Lutheran Brotherhood Banquet

One hundred sturdy followers and admirers of Martin Luther, the reformer, sat at a banquet last evening at the Masonic hall, were served with a splendid meal by the ladies of the Lutheran church, listened to several well rendered selections by a male quartette and heard a splendid lecture by Rev. Dr. Baltzly, pastor of the Kountz Memorial Lutheran church of Omaha. The occasion was the fourth annual banquet of the Lutheran Brotherhood and viewed from any or all angles it was a most successful gathering of men who working as a unit and with energy have rendered such valuable aid to their pastor, the Rev. Harman, and contributed their share toward placing the Lutheran church of North Platte in such a prominent position among the churches of that denomination in the state.

Following the nicely prepared and promptly served meal, the male quartette of the Lutheran church, rendered a selection which so pleased that they were recalled. Dr. H. O. Cressler, president of the brotherhood called on E. T. Tramp, the first president of the organization, and to whom Dr. Cressler said, much credit was due for its existence and its present activity in church work. Mr. Tramp spoke briefly of the organization, its work, and the proceedings of its monthly meetings.

Dr. Cressler then introduced Dr. Baltzly, stating that the subject would be "Impressions of My Trip Abroad." Dr. Baltzly is an am of commanding physique, a smiling face that denotes kindness and sympathy; in fact a man who at once attracts your attention and interest. He is a very ready speaker, never hesitates, is a past master at word pictures, and withal one of the most eloquent and interesting speakers ever heard in North Platte. His trip abroad was taken this summer, and he was in Italy when war was first declared by the European powers. In his lecture he took his hearers through the Holy Land, Greece, Italy and Germany. By his wonderful descriptive power, they visited with him the mosques of Constantinople, the holy and historical places of Palestine where the Saviour performed his miracles and uttered his great messages to the people; stood with him on the shores of Gallilee, accompanied him into the mountains along the paths the Saviour and the disciples trod; they were with the speaker in his trip through Greece and Italy; and then to Worms, the home of Martin Luther. At intervals Dr. Baltzly drifted into word pictures that were wonderfully constructed—that were so eloquent as to thrill the most unemotional listener. It was truly an intensely interesting lecture, and at its close every man took the Doctor by the hand and expressed his individual enjoyment.

Van Cleave-Banks Nuptials

A pretty home wedding was solemnized Sunday evening at six o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Van Cleave, 102 south Elm street, when their daughter, Grace M., was united in marriage to William E. Banks, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Banks of this city. The wedding was a quiet affair and only the immediate relatives of the two parties were present. H. G. Knowles, pastor of the Christian church, performed the ceremony. Following the wedding ceremony a nice wedding supper was served the guests. The young people will remain in the city for a few days after which they will make their home on the Banks ranch nine miles southeast of the city. The groom has been running the ranch for the past several years. He is a young man of sterling qualities and he has a host of friends in this city and in the country near where he lives. The bride has been attending school in this city. She is a young lady respected by all who know her and the good wishes of her many friends are extended to her in her new vocation.

The threshing outfit of Silas Russell of this city went through a bridge Saturday evening near the Kelly farm five miles west of the city. Luckily no one was hurt. The bridge was a light built affair and Russell planked it up before crossing and also uncoupled so that the engine and separator would cross separately. The bridge was so rotten that they broke through their planking and all. The machine was stuck in the ditch until Sunday evening when they succeeded in getting it out.

Best Cough Medicine for Children.

"Three years ago when I was living in Pittsburg one of my children had a hard cold and coughed dreadfully. Upon the advice of a druggist I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it benefited him at once. I find it the best cough medicine for children because it is pleasant to take. They do not object to taking it," writes Mrs. Lafayette Tuck, Homer City, Pa. This remedy contains no opium or other narcotic, and may be given to a child as confidently as to an adult. Sold by all dealers.

HENDY-OGIER CO. GIVEN AGENCY FOR DODGE CAR.

Official Announcement Made by the Dodge Brothers Confirms Former Report.

Official announcement is made by Dodge Brothers, Detroit, of the selection of The Hendy-Ogier Auto Company to handle the forthcoming Dodge Brothers motor in North Platte and vicinity.

The rivalry on the part of dealers to represent this new car has been intense, not only in North Platte, but throughout the country—as high as 31 applications having been received from dealers in some of the larger cities. It is therefore a distinct compliment to The Hendy-Ogier Company that they have been successful in securing this most coveted dealership.

Dodge Brothers are widely known in the automobile industry as the large manufacturers of parts in the world. It is stated on good authority that they have supplied the vital parts to over 500,000 of the 1,250,000 cars now in use in this country.

Because of their tremendous manufacturing facilities, their high financial standing, and their wide experience in the manufacture of parts, it is generally conceded that the car they will market this fall will set a new standard in automobile values. Their car has been called the "Car of Mystery" because of the fact that no word has been given out as to price, dimensions or equipment. In spite of this fact, the reputation of Dodge Brothers is such that the best dealers throughout the country are taking on the line, "because," as Mr. Hendy says, "it is inconceivable that a concern of the character of Dodge Brothers should manufacture a car that would not play a very large part in establishing automobile values for the future."

Dodge Brothers are fortunate in securing such representative dealers in North Platte.

The success of the new car in the hands of The Hendy-Ogier Co. is assured.

THE DAY'S WAR NEWS

Three points now stand out in the news of the great war—in Flanders Germans, undaunted by past failures to break through to the Straits of Dover, have launched their expected new attack, regarded by the allies as their supreme effort. In Russian Poland the immense armies of the Russian emperor are pushing forward the Germans on home soil. From Tokio comes the report that a Japanese army may be sent to the west to take its part with the British, French and Belgians in the struggle in the battlefields of Europe.

Military observers agree that the war has entered upon a crucial stage and that the next week may mark a definite turn in the course of events. In the French opinion, the Germans must either win their way to the English channel or fall back. For that reason particular interest attached to yesterday's official French statement, which indicated the beginning of the onslaught for which the Germans have been preparing during the lull of the last few days.

Slow progress for the allies along the greater part of the line from Dixmude to the Lys is claimed by the French. Over the remainder of the disputed territory across France, the situation has not changed materially, although the French report that new German attacks in Alsace have been checked.

Elmer Coates went to Ohiowa ten days ago to remove his family to this city but upon arrival there found his daughter Fern suffering from appendicitis, and it was necessary to take her to Lincoln for an operation. She is getting along nicely and it is expected that she and her mother will arrive next week.

The Postoffice and the Telephone

You expect to be able to send a letter anywhere. You can—nearly. But you can send a long distance telephone message to 12,000 more places in this country than you can send a letter.

According to the Postmaster General's figures, there are 58,000 places that have postoffices. There are 70,000 places reached by long distance lines of the Bell Telephone System.

There are 50 per cent more telephone messages than letters sent in this country. In Europe, where the governments own and operate nearly all of the telephones, there are only about one-third as many telephone messages sent as letters.

Private enterprise in America has made telephone service so efficient and given the service at so low rates that nearly everybody uses the telephone.

The United States, which has but 6 per cent of the world's population, has 64 per cent of all the world's telephones.

On January 1st last year there were 8,729,592 telephones in the United States and only 4,821,382 in all the rest of the world.
