

Do your eyes trouble you now? If so, what will they be ten years from today unless you take care of them immediately? Stop and realize the danger of neglect, the danger of mistreatment.

There is no treatment more serious than wrong glasses. By wrong glasses we mean glasses that are not suited to your eyes, glasses fitted more or less after a perfunctory examination, glasses chosen from a tray, by trying on one pair after another, glasses bought at a bargain counter, glasses fitted by a merchant or dealer, not an optical specialist. If you want your glasses to be absolutely correct, bring your eye troubles to us.

C. F. TEMPLE.

"Peg O' My Heart," J. Hartley Manners' comedy of youth, with charming Marion Dentler in the leading role of Irish Lassie will be seen at the Keith theatre on Monday evening Dec. 7th. This will doubtless be one of the events of the present theatrical season, as "Peg O' My Heart" recently concluded its second year of continuous popularity at the Cort theatre, New York, where it has won plaudits from press and public alike. There is an appeal about Peg that makes theatre-goers love her at sight and succumb to her natural simplicity and winning charm. Then the fact that Miss Dentler is a native product of North Platte will make this play doubly interesting here. While other places are interested North Platte should be enthused. In the nature of a home-coming for her every seat in the house should be filled. Miss Dentler will arrive here on Sunday, Dec. 6th one day in advance of the company giving her time to meet some of her friends. Keep the date Dec. 7, in mind.
