CITY AND COUNTY NEWS

Mrs. Chas. T. Whelan was hostess Saturday afternoon at a card party, the second function given by her last week. A score or more ladies passed a very pleasant afternoon.

S. P. Delatour—all the old-timers in North Platte know Sam—has bought the Bank of Lewellen and has merged it with the Garden County Bank which he owned at Lewellen. The consolidated bank has a capital of $25,000, and the deposits on October 31st were $167,678.41.

The county commissioners were in session yesterday transacting business of a routine nature.

Mrs. John Frederick is visiting friends in Greeley, Colo., having left for that place the latter part of last week.

The Thiliks will be entertained by Misses Sybil Ganit and Katherine Hall at the home of the former this evening.

A score or more teachers of the county will take an examination Friday and Saturday submitted by County Supt. Cox.

Healey Team Wins.

In the Elks' billiard tournament, which had been in progress for a couple of weeks and that ended Sunday, the team captained by Tom Healey defeated the Ed Dickey team of thirty-five billiards. The contest was exciting from start to finish, first one team then the other, leading. About sixty players took part in the tournament.

The Dickey team will pay for the supper which Steward Smith will serve at 6:45 Thursday evening.

"Big Swede Show Coming"

At the Keith theatre the James T. McAlpin's Company will present "Hans Hanson" a Swedish comedy drama that is one long laugh from the time the curtain rises on the first act until the finale. This company has played "Hans Hanson" over two years. Mr. McAlpin has had this play on the road. Theatre managers everywhere report the attraction one of the best they have ever booked.

A superb band and orchestra is also carried by this company. Listen for the band on the day of the show.

At the Keith tonight.

The Celebrated Lightning Combined

Power Self-feed Hay Press at Hersey's opposite post office, Phone 15.

Miss Elsie Ackerman received a telegram Saturday evening informing her of the illness of her mother. She immediately started for Lincoln but upon reaching Omaha was informed that her mother was convalescent and she returned Sunday.

Found—On the streets Saturday a muff. Owner can have same by proving property and paying for this notice.

Two men were arrested Friday by Chief Frazier as suspects of being implicated in the holdup on west Sixth street Thursday evening. They were held in the county jail and Mr. Anderson was called, but he stated that he could not in any way identify them. The men were held in the county jail over night and were released the next morning with instructions to make themselves scarce around this vicinity.

A very unusual sale November 14th to 28, including women's and children's trimmed and untrimmed hats, baby hoods, feathers, plain and fancy ribbons, gold and silver net and fancy chiffons, at an average reduction of one-third off the regular price. In the millinery department at the Wilcox Department Store. 50c

Arrange for Hospital Opening

The board of control of the Good Samaritan Hospital held a meeting Sunday evening at the home of C. W. Edwards and transacted considerable business pertaining to that institution. Dean J. J. Bowker was unanimously elected manager of the hospital, and Miss Larson was formally employed as head nurse. She will be assisted by eight nurses, some of whom are as yet students and were employed at the P. & S. hospital.

The work of rearranging the Rittner building for hospital purposes is about completed and will be in readiness for the reception of patients in a few days—not later than Monday and perhaps the latter part of this week. Patients receiving treatment at the P. & S. hospital will be removed to the new institution.

The board of control in which the general management of the hospital is vested and which will control the policy of the institution is composed of Dean Bowker, C. W. Edwards, L. B. Dick, P. E. Bullard, A. F. Streitz, J. J. Halligan and Ira L. Bare.
