They Are Going Fast

AS ONE CUSTOMER REMARKED, we are selling pianos and players like they were so many papers of plus. Hardly as fast as that, but we are selling them faster than we ever did before, and faster, perhaps, than they were ever sold by any dealer anywhere. The success of this Co-Operative Family Piano Sale has far exceeded our expectations. We knew that on account of the extremely low prices and terms we are enabled to make economical folks would grasp this opportunity to save, we knew that the prices having been revolutionized it would create a sensation and we were prepared to take care of a great many customers. But we were completely astounded at the way they responded. Frankly, we did not know there were so many homes in this city without pianos or player-pianos.

We are actually selling pianos and players down here in less than fifteen minutes, quite a contrast to the old way, then it took never less than an hour and sometimes a year to sell a piano to some people.

To say that we are pleased doesn't express it by half, we are particularly gratified in that we have proven beyond a doubt what we have always contended—but didn't have the nerve to try out before—that by giving the customers unquestionably low prices and terms, thus selling them quickly, it is just as easy to sell pianos as it is any staple article.

We have adopted the only means by which we could honestly and fairly offer instruments at wonderfully low prices and now that it has ceased to be an experiment and has become an actual fact, we feel that we are entitled to the thanks of the entire piano trade for showing them a new, economical way.

The old way made the selling cost per piano enormous, this way, the Co-Operative way, big sales, small profits, etc., the selling cost is only one-fifth the former amount. The other fellow has found here the greatest bargains of his life, why don't you, who haven't as yet bought, take advantage of this Co-Operative Family Piano Sale! We have done our share, we have made these prices possible, we protect you in your purchase in a way that is better and safer than any other dealer ever protected. Can you ask for anything more fair?

Come today, look through this magnificent stock. If the prices are not lower than you have ever seen, quality considered, don't buy. COME AND INVESTIGATE AT ANY RATE.

$5.00 DOWN AND $5.00 PER MONTH
