A fine Christmas gift for her, California Rose Beads. DIXON, The Jeweler.

In the language of John C. Den, the snow yesterday was "just what the doctor ordered." It will be a great boon to fall wheat and rye, it temporarily, at least, banishes the dust which for weeks made travel a discomfort and it purifies the atmosphere and makes us feel better. Let it snow, snow.

Marion Dentler Welcomed

Marion Dentler, who spent her early childhood days in North Platte, and is now playing "Peg" in "Peg O My Heart," was accorded a hearty homecoming at the Keith last evening by an audience that more than filled the seating capacity of the house. Those of us who remember Miss Dentler as a happy, sunny, golden haired little girl, and have watched her ascendancy in her chosen profession with pleasure, were not disappointed in her latest evening's performance. We expected much, and our expectations were more than realized. Though Miss Dentler does not fancy the role of "Peg" as much as other characters she has assumed, she casts aside whatever dislike she may have and enters into her work with enthusiasm. In fact it would seem to the average auditor that the character of "Peg" was created especially for Miss Dentler, and not that Miss Dentler adapted herself to the character of "Peg." In the humorous situations she easily creates laughter; her pathos brings tears, while her general appearance and actions endears her to the audience. That the work of Miss Dentler was fully appreciated by the audience was attested by the many curtain calls. Excellent support is given Miss Dentler.

Several drivers of automobiles have complained of the valley roads along where the beet wagons have driven. They state that the heavy wagons have worn out deep ruts that will cause bad roads all winter in that part of the county unless they are attended to at once. A very little work with a road drag would fill the ruts, which go in some places as deep as ten inches, and after they froze up they would be in good shape. If they are left as they are they will be almost impassable all winter after they are allowed to freeze.

Furs! Furs!

Nothing will please her any better than a nice set of furs. You can buy now at reduced prices at BLOCK'S. Sets $2.98 to $75.00.

District Court Notes.

The district court convened yesterday and the docket was read in the morning and several small cases were disposed of and in the afternoon cases of some importance were taken up.

The case of LeRoy and Ray Morley vs. George W. Snyder was decided in favor of the defendant. This case involved the title to land in the Maxwell vicinity worth about $10,000 and was one of interest to the bar of this part of the state. The quarter section of land under dispute was sold for $1600 while the plaintiffs were minors. After they had attained their majority, it is claimed, they confirmed the sale of the land unknowingly and later filed suit to regain title to it on the grounds that the sale had been illegal until it was confirmed by them after they had reached their majority. The money from the sale of the land was used to pay some debts of the estate to which it belonged. The court held that by the plaintiffs confirming the sale it was valid.

Mrs. Anna Hitchcock was granted a decree of divorce from Martin Hitchcock and was given custody of the two minor children. The defendant is at present in the Colorado state penitentiary.

Free Picture Show.

"From Molten Steel to Automobile" is the subject that will be shown at the Keith tomorrow evening. There will be depicted in moving pictures every operation in the wonderful process of the manufacture of an automobile in the great Maxwell factories. This show cannot help but prove interesting and instructive; it shows in detail just how automobiles are made; from the crude material to the finished product. There will be no charge for admission to this great $40,000 five reel film sensation.

Walker; junior vice, A. M. Mason; chaplain, J. S. Hoagland; officer of the day, Ashley Peters; quartermaster, A. McMichael; officer of the guard, J. A. Foster; patriotic instructor; delegate to the department encampment, T. C. Patterson; delegate to the department encampment, Major L. Walker.

The Woman's Relief Corps held their election Saturday and elected the following: President, Mrs. Anna Church; vice-president, Mrs. Sanford Hartman; junior vice-president, Mrs. Martha Graham; treasurer, Mrs. Etta Bonner; conductor Mrs. Sota McMichael; guard, Mrs. Rose. The other officers are appointive and will be announced on Monday, January 2d, at which time the W. R. C. and G. A. R. will hold their joint installation. A big dinner will be served at noon on that day and the installation of officers will be in the afternoon.

Son to Testify Against Father

Assistant State Deputy Warden D. J. Cavanaugh passed through the city this morning with a prisoner by the name of John Achzaiger, whom he was taking to Gering as a witness in a murder trial. Achzaiger was convicted of second degree murder in September and has served two months in the state penitentiary. He is now being taken back to testify in the trial of his father who is being tried for complicity in the murder.

Mr. Cavanaugh and his prisoner stopped here for breakfast this morning and left on the branch. The deputy kept the prisoner handcuffed to him all the way.

Bradford Division No. 200 will give a reception for the inspector, Mrs. Cara Davis, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sebastian Schwaiger, on Wednesday evening, December 9th. All members of the Division, and husbands, invited. Ida Tarkington, Pres.

Start Boosting Evangelistic Meetings.

A campaign was started Sunday in the four churches, the Baptist, the Christian, the Presbyterian and the Methodist, for the Union evangelistic services which will be held here in the spring beginning about May 1st. Evangelists Oscar Lowry and George Moody will conduct the services.

The work that is to be done now is to raise a guarantee fund for the construction of the tabernacle. The tabernacle will be built at a cost of about $1500, and this amount must be raised by the several churches to guarantee the payment of that obligation.

A committee meeting was held yesterday morning for the purpose of hearing the reports from the churches which are behind this movement and some of the churches gave very favorable reports. One church has subscribed nearly $500 of the amount and the others are doing equally well. However, the full report could not be had.

Mr and Mrs. Will Breternitz and daughter May, of Sidney, visited North Platte friends for a day or two last week.

Sterling Silver for a gift is sure to become a permanent fixture in the home. Nothing more appreciated. DIXON, The Jeweler.

Mrs. C. M. Reynolds entertained the Auction Bridge Club Saturday afternoon together with several invited guests. Following the games refreshments were served at the dining table, the center piece of which was a large bunch of carnations.

The Lutheran aid society will be entertained by Mrs. F. C. Waltemath 500 south Locust street, Thursday afternoon.

Richi Ugal was a passenger up the branch this morning to look after some business matters.

Yeomen May Build Castle.

Negotiations are on foot for the building of a $30,000 building by the local homestead of American Yeomen. Plans for the building are being circulated among the members and the matter will probably come up for discussion this evening.

The I. O. O. F. have served notice to all the lodges that now occupy their building that they must vacate by January 1st, 1915, and this necessitates something being done. The matter of building and renting has been brought before the members separately and nearly all of them favor putting up a building of their own if they can get a suitable tenant for the first floor. The two matters will be presented at the meeting this evening.

The building that is planned will be a two story brick structure of Gothic design. The matter has been in the hands of a committee for some time and they have been seeking a suitable lot available for such a building as they are planning. While the lodge is young and growing, seems to many of the members to be the best time to attempt the matter of putting up a building and it is almost a foregone conclusion that at the meeting this evening they will vote to build.

Dr. Stevenson, of Gothenburg, was a professional visitor in the city yesterday. He brought a surgical case to the Good Samaritan hospital and performed the operation yesterday morning.

Lem Kidwell, of the Wallace vicinity, was visiting in the city yesterday with friends and transacting business.

Warm the Cold Corners

"I DECLARE," said Mrs. Comfort, "I thought no one ever would use that upstairs room. And you couldn't blame them—it certainly was chilly, and there didn't seem to be any way of heating it. Finally I got this Perfection Heater and now it is as good as an extra room. With a Perfection to keep it warm it is perfectly comfortable."

The Perfection can be carried anywhere, where there is need of extra heat. In five minutes it will warm any ordinary room.
