Playing with Fire

is what every property-owner does who neglects to have his home and his holdings insured against the devouring element. Fires cannot be prevented. They happen when expected least, and in the most curious ways. The best protection is a Fire Insurance Policy in a reliable company like mine. I make myself responsible for your loss.

Jenkins Boy Struck by Train

Yesterday morning train No. 6 struck the eighteen-year old son of W. H. Jenkins in the yards at Hershey. The young man was badly bruised and cut but suffered no serious injury.

The boy had come into town and started across the track ahead of the train and did not quite get across. He was picked up on the pilot and carried some little distance before the train was brought to a stop. Medical aid was summoned and several stitches were required to close up the boy's wounds. He was cut quite badly about the head and face. It was almost a miracle that he was not killed.

Ralph Welborn Asks Divorce

Suit was filed this week in the office of the clerk of the district court by Ralph M. Welborn asking divorce from his wife, Edna Welborn. The grounds are extreme cruelty and infidelity.

Plaintiff alleges that they were married in San Rafael, Cal., August 16, 1911. They later came to Lincoln county where they have made their home since December 2, 1912. He further alleges that on or about September 15, 1913, while they were visiting in Wyoming the defendant procured a gun and threatened to shoot him. She threatened several times to kill him which caused him great discomfort and mental anguish. He also alleges that while away she was guilty of adultery and that since that time he has been voluntarily living with her.

He prays for divorce and costs of the action.
