After four months of anxious waiting for news of his brother who was drafted into the Russian army, Julius Pizer received a letter Wednesday from his father stating that the brother had been captured by the Germans and was held a prisoner. This brother lives on the line between Germany and Russian Poland, and part of his land is in one country and part in the other. At the time he was pressed into Russian service he was transacting business at a place about 100 miles from his home. Mr. Pizer is much gratified to learn that his brother is safe so far, but fears in event of an exchange of prisoners the brother may be sent back on the firing line.

Gets Judgment for $130.00.

The case of David Norris vs. the Union Pacific company was decided Wednesday in the county court by County Judge Grant in favor of the plaintiff and he was given judgment to the amount of $130.00 together with costs of the suit which the railroad company will have to pay.

Norris brought suit some time ago for damages alleged to be due on account of flood waters from the Union Pacific right-of-way being turned over his land and destroying considerable hay. He alleged that the company had done this without his consent and that a number of acres of meadow land was ruined. He asked judgment of $199.99 and costs of action with interest on that amount from the date of filing. The case was argued Monday and the court withheld decision until Wednesday afternoon.

No Wedding Bells For Them.

Willie M. Metcalfe, 22, of Overton and Miss Emily Baggott of this city applied Wednesday at the office of the county court for a license to wed and were refused by the county judge. The two young people seemed so anxious to get the ordeal finished that Judge Grant made inquiries and found that the young lady was not sixteen years of age as had been sworn to. She had the consent of her mother but her father said he would consent to the marriage but would not swear that the girl was over sixteen. They were much disappointed by the judge's decision but were nevertheless sent on their way to await developments of time which is a sure cure for lack of years.

Asks Divorce and Alimony.

Mrs. Daisy D. Murray filed petition for divorce Wednesday in the office of the clerk of the district court against her husband, Melville J. Murray. She asks for divorce, custody of the five minor children and alimony and other relief that is just and equitable.

Mrs. Murray states that they were married in Stockville, Neb., Dec. 1, 1897, and that since then she has been a true and faithful wife. She says that her husband is guilty of extreme cruelty and that at times he has beaten and bruised her badly. They have lived here for a year and at one time he was taken to jail to keep him from abusing his family. That he cursed and swore at her many times and abused the children. That about June first he left her and is now, she thinks, in Sterling, Col. That he is capable of earning from seventy-five to eighty dollars per month and is well able to support her and the children.

The children are George V. aged 14, Hazel G., aged 9, Delbert A., aged 7, Sylvia E. aged 4, and William R. aged eighteen months.
