The Lutheran brotherhood was delightfully entertained Tuesday evening at the Oscar Sandall home at 303 east Eight street. Following this the debate was had and the judges decided in favor of the affirmative. The question under debate was "Resolved: That a cash system would be more beneficial to both the merchant and the public than the credit basis." The judges were Dr. Cressler, A. W. Shilling and Charles Hendry.

Following the debate the business meeting of the organization was held and the regular Lenten meetings were arranged for. New Ambulance for North Platte.

By the courtesy of Derryberry & Forbes the Good Samaritan hospital is now equipped with a thoroughly modern ambulance which they put in use for the first time Wednesday morning.

Some weeks ago while Mr. Forbes was off on his vacation he purchased the ambulance of a St. Louis firm and ordered it shipped here and it arrived this week. It was purchased by the firm of Derryberry & Forbes and they decided to let the hospital have the use of it gratis. This will add greatly to the equipment of the hospital.

The ambulance is a French gray vehicle thoroughly equipped with every convenience. It is rubber tired and is fitted with springs that will make it comfortable for any patient to ride in. By the hospital getting the use of it free is as good as owning the vehicle.
