HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

The following students of the typewriting department were awarded a pennant last month by the Remington Typewriter Co. for passing a test of twenty-five words a minute for ten minutes with not more than fifteen errors: Austin Gregg, Jack Husband, Robert Loudon, Marie Schatz, Ida Carroll, Esther Schwaiger.

The following students were awarded certificates by the Underwood Typewriter Co. this month for attaining a speed of forty or more words a minute under the rules of the International Typewriting contests: Eshter Elder wrote forty-two words, Nina Elder wrote forty-three words and Olga Sandall wrote forty-four words.

This week is the regular semester examinations in the high school and the students are putting in extra time preparing. The last three days of the week are given over entirely to the examinations.

The editor of Spaulding's Foot Ball Guide for 1915 have sent a request to the local school people for a copy of the record of the football team for the past year and one of the photographs of the team. This has been sent and it will appear in the new rule book which will be issued during the coming summer.

The total enrollment in the schools has now reached 1476. This is about sixty more than the enrollment at this time last year.

RAILROAD NOTES

Nick Makris, a laborer at the ice house, is laid up for a few days with injuries sustained when he dropped a large cake of ice on his foot.

Engineer Gus Norton has been confined to the house for a week past with an attack of la grippe, which seems to have gripped him rather severely.

C. A. Nelson, one of the ice workers, was the last man to be hurt in the local houses. He dropped a cake of ice on his foot and was laid up for several days.

Francis Norris, call boy at the local railroad offices, returned Sunday evening from Grand Island where he spent the week end visiting relatives and friends.

Engineer Bert Chamberlain has been off duty for six weeks on account of a troublesome back. He went to Omaha last week to consult Dr. Jonas, whose prescribed treatment has not so far given him relief.

Dave Hill, a laborer at the ice house, is laid up for some time on account of injuries sustained when he slipped and fell in the ice house. He strained the muscles in his abdomen and will be laid up for two weeks or more with the injury.

The ice harvest in the local houses closed Saturday evening and the workers have returned to their several homes. This is the record time for the ice to be stored away. It generally last until the last part of February. This year the ice was so much better and the weather remained cold. In all over forty-five thousand tons were stored away.

Some of the local engineers will again make an effort to have a bill pass the legislature requiring automobile drivers to come to a full stop before passing over a grade crossing. Such a bill was introduced two years ago but failed to pass. We believe the bill is one that should become a law. Undoubtedly the observance of such a law would lessen the number of accidents.

A number of the local volunteer firemen left yesterday for Nebraska City where they will attend the state firemen's meeting which holds there for three days, beginning today. The following men attended: Chief F. S. Russell, C. F. Temple, W. J. Landgraf, J. R. Baskins, Theodore Lowe, Jr., Thos. Jeffers, Raymond Tighe, Adam Christ and Fred Dick.

Very Special Values are being offered all this week during our Loom End Sale.
