ROADS OUT OF NORTH PLATTE ARE VERY DEEPLY DRIFTED

All roads leading out of this city are very deeply drifted and were yesterday adjudged impassible by all the mail carriers with the exception of Henry Clarke, who drives Route No. 1, between the rivers.

Mr. Clarke yesterday morning made his route complete although it was not without some difficulty. He encountered several bad drifts and in many places the road was drifted for some distance.

Earl Pyzer, carrier for the Tryon route, drove out about fifteen miles and then gave up the trip and came back to town. His trip took him north against the blinding snow and he had much difficulty, not only in following the road, but in keeping the direction.

Fred Spurrier, carrier for route No. 2, drove out also about fifteen miles and then turned back on account of the drifts and blinding snow. He stated that north of the city the snow is drifted in the roads an average of two feet deep on the level and wherever there is a bank it is drifted to the top.

James Graham, who drives route No. 3, drove out only a short distance but was gone longer than the others. As soon as he got into the hills he found the track absolutely hidden and the hills all looked alike. He was lost for some time and when he finally got his bearings he returned to town and gave up the trip for the day.

From all over the county and much over the state reports have come in that the roads have been made impassible by the drifting snow. A heavy storm struck yesterday morning more or less all over the state.

Enjoyed Fresh Air Yesterday.

While the remainder of the citizens were hurrying about the streets yesterday and all who could were remaining indoors, a stranger who was too far gone to give his name, was calmly walking about the streets without hat or coat and seemingly enjoying the fresh ozone. He was arrested by one of the police officers and he and John Barleycorn were escorted together to the county bastille where he was incarcerated to await the disposition of the police magistrate after they have parted company.

W. J. Tiley returned Wednesday evening from a trip of several days' duration over different parts of the state in company with Grand Master Stallcup, of Des Moines. They spoke before several Yeomen lodges about the state and opened up some new lodges. They also participated in several initiation services and were working on the state wide membership campaign.

Dr. Marie A. Ames left yesterday morning for Omaha to spend a few days on business.

The Rev. E. T. Mathison of Chicago will arrive in the city today and visit over night with Dean J. J. Bowker. He leaves tomorrow for Bridgeport to attend the Episcopal deanery meeting, where he will speak. He was recently a visitor in this city and preached at the Church of Our Saviour at both morning and evening services.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. Stone, who live on a ranch near Sheridan, Wyo., are visiting Thos. Burney in town and will remain until the early part of next week. Mrs. Stone is a sister to the late Mrs. Burney, and she and her husband came here to attend the funeral and accompany the remains to Wood River.

WILL PETITION GOVERNOR TO COMMUTE ROBERTS' SENTENCE

At the meeting of the Twentieth Century club Wednesday evening definite action was taken toward launching a movement to get a petition in the hands of the governor asking that Roy Roberts' death sentence be commuted to life imprisonment.

The club met for regular meeting and on account of the number of ladies present who were not members the meeting was turned into a mass meeting. The question of Mr. Roberts' sentence was presented by Mrs. B. A. Cram. She spoke at some length regarding the sentence and voiced the sentiment of all present and many of the citizens of this city. She said, in substance, that in as much as Roy Roberts had been permitted to grow up in crime on account of the negligence of the christian people it was no more than right and proper that the people now attempt to redeem themselves for their former negligence in making every effort possible to get his sentence commuted.

She said that she for one and that the body as a whole had no criticism for the jury, the court or the prosecution for they had performed their duty according to the law and had done it well, and that Roberts had received only the penalty of the law which he had known of before the crime was committed. The people were responsible for the negligence to the boy in letting him grow up in crime and it was for them to now intercede for him and give him a chance.

The remarks were put in the form of a motion asking that a committee be appointed to take necessary steps in getting a petition in the hands of the governor and upon a second the motion was unanimously passed, not however, until others present had voiced practically the same sentiments.

Grade Schools Closed Yesterday

No school was held in the grades of the city schools yesterday afternoon on account of the bad weather. At the morning session the attendance was below fifty per cent and in many of the rooms there were only a few pupils. They were down as low as five pupils in one room. In the afternoon the faculty deemed it advisable to dismiss the grade schools. An all day session was held, however, in the high school.

Despite the storm that came on so suddenly there was very little complaint of lack of heat. All the buildings were adequately heated and it was chiefly because of the snow drifts that the children were kept at home.

In many of the country schools that were heard from yesterday there was no school and where it was held there were only a few pupils in attendance. People coming in from the Maxwell vicinity stated that they were not holding school in some of the country districts of that vicinity.

A Misunderstanding

Regarding a statement published in Tuesday's Tribune relative to Roberts being seen at Sutherland, Jess Smith states that there is some misunderstanding. He states that he did see a covered wagon and two men on the evening of August second, which date is fixed by record kept and not from memory, but that he did not recognize them and could not swear to their identity. The Tribune got the information from reliable sources but it was a case of misunderstanding which we wish to rectify.

They announced Wednesday that the body of Vernon Connett would be left here until they are sure that there is no further possibility of a new trial, when it will be taken to Bird City, Kansas, where burial will be made.
