Some fellow was mean enough to enter W. S. Dolson's chicken house Sunday night and steal four imported English fowls. They were blue-ribbed, aristocratic birds and were secured by Mr. Dolson at no small outlay of cash. He offers $25 reward for the conviction of the guilty party.

H. B. Sanderson, living south of Sutherland, transacted business in town Wednesday. He is one of the many men in Lincoln county who have done exceedingly well during the past eight or ten years in raising cattle. Mr. Sanderson came to Lincoln county eight years ago "strapped" he now has a herd of 150.

For Sale—A new barn suitable for an automobile. L. E. Hastings.

There are several cases of a very mild form of small-pox in town. Among the homes quarantined are Brennan on west Sixth, Scott west Second, Cross west Tenth, Newman west Twelfth and Brown in the south part of town. The patients are largely young people and the affection is not more than a rash.

L. L. Walker, manager of the local office of the Gaston music company, left yesterday morning for Sutherland to look after business. Mr. Walker was laid up for several days this week with lagrippe and a sore throat and was able to be out on the streets for the first time yesterday since his illness.

There was a large attendance at the convention, the sessions were very interesting and the delegates had a splendid time socially. The convention will be held in Grand Island next year.

Contracts are being signed by the best growers for 1915. The North Platte district is limited to 1600 acres and indications are that this acreage will be snapped up hurriedly by the old growers. Last year this district furnished nearly half the beets for the Grand Island factory and not nearly all the available land for growing beets was utilized, which only goes to show that a factory is badly needed and could easily be supplied in this neck-o-woods—Hershey Times.

Mrs. Leta Brooks of this city, is visiting her mother Mrs. George Loan in Gothenburg.

Two Divorce Petitions Filed.

Two petitions for divorce were filed late Wednesday in the office of District Clerk Prosser. They were filed by Ralph J. Starkey vs. Clara Starkey and Edgar M. Peck vs. Robertie G. Peck.

Mr. Starkey alleges in his petition that they were married June 11, 1909, in Denver and that he has always been a dutiful husband. He alleges that on March 9, 1912, his wife left him and that since that time she has continued to live away and that she refuses to return. He asks divorce on the grounds of desertion.

Mr. Peck in his petition asks divorce on the grounds of extreme cruelty and infidelity, making some sensational charges and associating the name of one Glen Moore, a fireman, with that of his wife. He complains that this has caused a scandal in the families which has caused him great mental anguish and much humiliation. Mr. and Mrs. Peck were married February 16, 1898 in Blue Rapids, Kan. They lived in North Platte for the past several years. Two sons, Alfred D. 15, and Virgil E. 13, were born to them and Mr. Peck asks for the custody and responsibility of them.

Leona Remington and Her Cabaret Girls.

If you are the sort of person who enjoys good singing, good music and clear cut comedy, with sixty laughs per minute, you will be more than repaid for any effort you may make to see this excellent show carrying a cast of 12 people.

The company is featuring a comedy quartet, Messrs. Clifford, Ryan, Vivian and Britt, whose humorous and classical renditions have been drawing such hearty applause and repeated encores that they are unable to meet them all despite their exhaustive repertoire.

The quartet is but one of the many features of the show and the singing dancing and humorous situations of the entire production bears out this excellent vein throughout.

The management of the Keith theatre feels proud to announce that they will offer you an opportunity to see this company for the entire week commencing February 23.

The evening's entertainment will open at 7:30 with three reels of pictures. The company's act will begin at 8:30 and the show will be closed with three reels pictures.

Prices 10 and 20 cents.

Baked Bean and Brown Bread Supper.

The Epworth league will serve Boston baked beans, brown bread, pumpkin and apple pie, doughnuts, coffee and other good things at the K. P. hall Saturday evening from five to eight o'clock. And will also hold an exchange at the North Platte Hardware window Saturday afternoon.

RAILROAD NOTES

C. L. Patterson, chief of the U. P. secret service, was in town the early part of the week, looking after matters connected with his office.

Machinist J. M. Rannie, who fell a couple of weeks ago and injured his side rather severely, is able to be out on the streets.

Several trainloads of horses have passed east recently, all being consigned to eastern seaports from which they will be shipped to Europe and used in the movement of artillery.

Joe Larson left Tuesday for St. Paul, Neb., to visit his parents until March 1st, when he will return and resume his duties as chief clerk in the office of District Foreman McGraw.

Engineer E. E. Moody has purchased a farm in Missouri, which he will probably make his home when he becomes tired of railroad life. Mr. and Mrs. Seniff, parents of Mrs. Moody will go on the farm next month.

Joe McGraw, of Grand Junction, Colo., a conductor on the Rio Grande Western railroad, arrived in town yesterday and will visit relatives and friends. Joe says railroad business is very slack. Where formerly there were thirty crews out of Grand Junction there are now but five. Part of this is due, however, to the purchase of heavier motive power.

A special train, second 16, passed through the city yesterday morning carrying silk from San Francisco to Chicago, New York City and other eastern markets. There were twelve cars of silk on the train of an estimated value of several million dollars. The silk was all shipped from the oriental countries, China, Japan and India, to San Francisco where it was loaded on a special train for the eastern markets.

Former Deputy Sheriff Tom Watts, now U. P. policeman at Grand Island, detected two men stealing coal from a car who upon being discovered took to their heels. Tom followed one, overtook him but as he grabbed him the fellow poked Tom a hard joint over the eye. Tom finally overpowered and took him to jail, and when arraigned in court the following day was released upon neighbors testifying that he was a man of good character. The man then hunted up a lawyer and instituted a suit for $25,000 damages against Tom and the Union Pacific for false arrest and imprisonment.

Wanted.

Man for general farm work; will furnish separate house. No one but a farmer need apply. Good wages to the right man.
