NEED OF A COMMUNITY CENTER

Such Would Be Found in a Well-Equipped Gymnasium.

Now-a-days it is very generally recognized that education is threefold—mental, moral and physical. The only points on which people differ is the prominence that should be given to any one of these three phases. Experience, however, seems to teach us that every child is entitled to have a sound, well-cultivated mind in a sound, well-controlled body. To secure this happy state of affairs for every child in the United States is the reason for the existence of the public schools, the one institution in America of which Dr. Steiner tells us we may be justly proud. The public school system is not perfect. It is still in the making. In some localities the mental and moral development of the child has been looked after carefully and well but the physical development has received but scant attention. Where it is possible to obtain it, physical well-being is as essential as mental well-being. North Platte is rather backward in her attention to the physical development and education of her children. She is justly proud of her public schools, but to make the education of her children better rounded and more nearly perfect she should give more attention to their physical education.

We need a well-equipped, well-directed gymnasium very badly. Sporadic attempts are made from time to time to do some work among the boys and girls along the lines of proper physical development. In the high school it has fallen to the lot of some one or two teachers to try to help in proper athletic work. With this work there has been a hearty co-operation on the part of a number of the younger men in the community. One group of young men has done some very excellent work with the very limited number of boys and girls who could be gathered into the basement of one of our churches and one or two other gymnastic classes among their young people. These efforts are all very commendable and a considerable meed of praise is due to the men and women who have given of their time and their money to make these small efforts possible. The results of their work show that there is a great demand for a properly equipped gymnasium under the control and guidance of a well-qualified physical director who can devote all of his time to the work. The time has come when North Platte ought to make a community effort to supply this very great need. A gymnasium should be erected to which every boy and girl in the city could have access and in which they could receive proper physical training and education. In looking over the situation it would seem that the best and most practicable way to bring this about would be through the medium of the public school system. It is the one thoroughly democratic institution, the one institution supported by every person in the community and a gymnasium developed by the public school would be the property of every one in the community.

The solution of some of North Platte's problems in connection with her young people lies in the development of a proper community center where they may gather, under proper restrictions, and work off some of their surplus energy (which is now occasionally mis-directed) in healthful exercise. The self control which it is possible to develop through a properly administered gymnasium is an almost invaluable asset to the boys and girls. To make this gymnasium possible every one in the community will have to work together and pull for it as one of the things that "Greater North Platte" must have. XX

WILL NORTH PLATTE BE IN THE STATE LEAGUE?

The question of state league baseball for North Platte has arisen again this spring and at a meeting which will be held Thursday evening at the Carson & Landgraf barber shop that question will be thoroughly threshed out.

Mr. Vastine, a state league player who travels on the road during the winter months for a cigar house, arrived in the city yesterday to feel the local pulse regarding the possibilities of a state league team. He was sent here by President C. J. Miles, president of the state league to look over the ground and ascertain the probabilities of getting North Platte into the league.

With Kearney and York both wishing to let go of their franchises it appears that North Platte would have little trouble in getting a berth in the league. Last year the local fans made a strong attempt towards landing said berth and were refused on account of their remoteness from the other towns having state league teams. This year, however, the proposition has taken another turn and it appears that the state league now wants North Platte.

The meeting Thursday evening will be to decide what will be done in the baseball line for next year. Many of the fans are of the opinion that North Platte can and will support a state league team and some think that it will be an impossibility. The board of directors of the local association are rather undecided in their opinions.

In the event of a state league team or an independent team North Platte is well provided with players. In case either of the state league franchises should come to this city they would undoubtedly bring with them a good string of material and that would be in addition to the material on hand.

Jimmy Danze has definitely decided to remain here for the season which assures a good back stop as well as a field manager if necessary. With J.

J. Gettman as a certain addition to hold down the first sack and Holiday and Grimm for second and third the infield is well fitted out. In addition to these players the local management now advise that they may get Pitcher Holland, who played last year with Omaha and Grand Island, as an extra addition. He is not only a pitcher of the first magnitude but is also an outfielder and a hitter of no small fame. Negotiations are also still going on with Pitcher and Outfielder Artley.

All fans and enthusiasts are asked to be out to the meeting Thursday evening at the Carson & Landgraf shop for the purpose of talking over the prospects for the 1915 season and a good meeting is anticipated.

M. KEITH NEVILLE AT HEAD OF TARPON CLUB

Word was received last week from M. Keith Neville who is sojourning in Florida for the winter announcing that he had been elected president of the St. Petersburg (Fla.) Tarpon club, one of the most popular and exclusive clubs of the south. The officers are elected by the size of the fish they catch and the one who catches the largest fish is elected president. The St. Petersburg Daily Times of a recent issue gave a full column account on the front page telling of the election of M. Keith Neville of "Pasadena" and of North Platte, Neb. He is mentioned always as being a resident of both towns.

At a meeting at which Mr. Neville was elected to head the club he was awarded the Tarpon club cup and the Consolation cup, having caught the largest tarpon, weighing one hundred and ten pounds and another one hundred and nine. At this meeting Mr. Neville was also appointed on the committee to arrange for the annual banquet of the club.

The tarpon club is a fisherman's club and the membership includes many of the leading sportsmen from all over the United States. The club gives a tarpon button to each of its members. This year they have also added a kingfish cup and they will include the gamey kingfish in the club honors as well as the tarpon. Last year Mr. Neville caught some large kingfish.

For Sale at a Bargain

I am offering my half section hill farm located one-half mile west and one mile south of Fort Phipson National cemetery, for $10.00 per acre. This place is inhabitable, having a sod house, stable, corn crib, granary, chicken house, cement cave, good well and windmill, and is all fenced and cross-fenced.

There is about forty acres under cultivation and much more can be farmed; 5 acres of alfalfa. An adjoining 80 acres not so good sold recently at $13.00 per acre. Another adjoining 160 touching the valley changed hands at $65.00 per acre. The above price is for immediate acceptance only, as I must raise some money, quick. I might arrange to furnish purchaser a bunch of cows to milk during the season if desired.

Address, S. S. REYNOLDS, Maxwell, Nebraska.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Jackson, of Mayflower, were visiting friends and transacting business in town Friday and Saturday.

Miss Elizabeth Hinman spent Sunday visiting in Lodgepole with Miss Jeanette Alden, a former North Platte girl who is now teaching in that vicinity.

That "girl" born to Mr. and Mrs. John Tucker last week happened to be a "boy." We knew John wanted a girl and presumed he had received what he desired.

The Panama-Pacific exposition at San Francisco opened Saturday with much enthusiasm and a crowd said to be greater than at the Chicago or St. Louis expositions.

The North Platte Light & Power company began last week moving their office from the Keith theatre building into the building south of the Block store which was recently occupied by the George G. McKay dry goods store. The rooms there have been suitably fitted up and are in fine shape for a store and display room.

Joe Wagner was Friday afternoon fined twenty dollars and costs in police court for being drunk and disorderly. He was arrested the first of the month and at that time took a continuance. He was charged with drunkenness, resisting an officer and abusing a horse, but the latter charges were withdrawn. His fine and costs amounted to $37.50 which he elected to lay out in the county jail rather than part with the cold clammy. Last summer he laid out a fine of ten dollars and costs on the same charge and at that time the officers warned him against again abusing his horse or being brought into court.

All candidates who are to be initiated into the Yeomen order this evening are asked to be at the I. O. O. F. hall early. On account of the large class there may be some confusion and all are asked to be present and to be on time.
