Julius Pizer returned Wednesday from a three weeks' business trip in the east, the greater part of the time having been spent in New York City. He found among the jobbers and manufacturers unanimous complaint over business conditions, and reports the army of unemployed in New York as something enormous. These aid solicitors are not bums, says Mr. Pizer, they are men who have held all classes of positions and through unemployment have been reduced to actual destitution. SEVEN HERSHEY MEN ARE ARRESTED FOR GAMBLING

Seven men, residents of Hershey and vicinity, were yesterday served with warrants charging them to appear before the county court to answer to the charge of gambling. Complaint was filed by O. E. Gordon, a shoemaker of that city, who alleges that they gambled over a "crap" game to the extent of fifty dollars. The men charged are Geo. L. Mudd, Clarence Trent, Jeff McIntyre, John Murray, Lige Montgomery, James Montgomery and a man by name of Flynn.

In the complaint it is alleged that the men were gambling on or about February 20th. Golden tells the story that he sat in the game with them and won from them something over fifty dollars. He states that they tried to get him to give some of the money back and that he refused to do so. He then left the place where they were alleged to have been gambling and started home. On the way home he tells that some of them waylaid him and tried to take the money away from him and beat him up pretty badly. His face showed the signs of a hard drubbing when he appeared before the county attorney to file the complaint and his eyes were both blacked. His face was literally covered with bruises.

Golden filed the complaint and swore to it and he will appear against them and turn state's evidence. The warrants were served yesterday by Sheriff Salisbury and the men will probably be arraigned today or tomorrow.

Complaint was also filed in the county court and sworn to by Dorsey Leyboldt charging Jake and Walter Rouche with permitting gambling in private premises. The two men were asked to be witnesses in the other case and refused to do so and the complaint was sworn out against them. The gambling, it is alleged, was permitted in their cook shack which is used as a private dwelling. They will also be arraigned soon to answer to the charge.

Pleads Not Guilty to Forgery
Charged with obtaining money under false pretenses H. G. Westfall, who gave his address as Westfall, was arrested Wednesday morning and was yesterday morning arraigned before Judge French and entered a plea of not guilty. His hearing was set for March 4th.

Westfall had been visiting in the city several times and was known to a few of the residents. Monday evening he went into the Vienna Cafe and after ordering a big supper suddenly discovered that he had no money to pay for it. He wrote a check and it was refused. He stepped outside where he met one of the men he knew and he asked this "friend" to identify him. The friend stated that he could identify him but would not vouch for the check. He also volunteered to pay for the supper and did so. Later on he wrote a check for nineteen dollars which was honored and it was sent to Paxton where word was sent back that the man was not known. A warrant for his arrest was sworn out and he was caught Wednesday morning at Maxwell, having left on No. 16 for eastern points. Sheriff Salisbury went there after him and returned him here. He was unable to furnish bail and is being held at the county jail to await hearing.

An Attractive Store.

The alteration and changes in the Block Ladies' Outfitting Store were completed this week, and this popular business house now presents a very attractive appearance. The balcony erected in the rear of the room considerably increases the area, and provides space for the millinery department which will be in charge of Mrs. Sallor, the alteration room presided over by Mrs. Keltner formerly of the Wilcox Department Store, and a private office for Mr. Block. The removal of these departments from the main floor creates much more space for the display of the stock, and this space has been absorbed by additional handsome glass front cases and small counters with drawers. These enclosed cases are dust proof, thus practically eliminating the possibility of soiled goods. All the furnishings have been refurnished, the ceiling re-painted and the walls repapered, giving everything a tone of newness and freshness that is pleasing to the eye. In the rear of the store is a well-lighted rest room, furnished with rugs, rocking chairs, telephone and writing desk, where lady patrons from the country and others can take advantage of the conveniences offered. The Block store is now receiving and placing on display all the newest things in ladies' ready-to-wear garments, and the lines are so extensive as to meet the requirements of all. Certainly
