The ladies of the domestic science department of the Twentieth Century club wish to thank the business men and all others who so kindly assisted in making the short course the great success, as we believe every one feels it has been.

You can't blame the milliners and the dealers in ladies' suits and finery if they feel a little peeved over the outlook for pleasant weather Easter Sunday. This sort of weather a few days before the glad some day is certainly discouraging.

Joe Richards, fifteen year old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Richards, is confined to his home in the 1000 block on west Sixth street, suffering from a bullet wound in his knee sustained Friday while out hunting with a companion. The bullet passed through the rear part of the knee, and made a wound that may possibly cause a stiffness of the leg.

LADIES

We are prepared to furnish any and all who come, the most stylish hats to be found in the city.

Royally Entertained at Gothenburg

The North Platte teachers, about thirty, who attended the West-Central Nebraska Teachers' Association at Gothenburg returned Saturday evening and have many good words to say of the hospitality shown them by the Gothenburg people. The 180 teachers present were entertained for two days in the homes of the good people of the town, and every possible courtesy was shown the visitors, in fact, the town belonged to the teachers for two days, and all the entertainment was without cost.

The meeting was considered a very profitable one for the teachers, two very instructive lectures having been given.

North Platte was selected as the place for holding the meeting in 1916. The officers elected for the ensuing year were: President, Wilson Tout, North Platte; vice-president, E. A. True, Cozad; secretary, Miss Aileen Gantt, North Platte; Treasurer, Supt. Smith, Sutherland.

Surprise Party

F. O. Johnson and his entire Sunday school class pleasantly surprised Miss Lura Hoover at her home near Nichols Friday evening. The invaders took splendid refreshments to which all did ample justice. Before leaving for their homes Mr. Johnson presented Miss Lura with a handsome pearl ring as a token of the esteem from teacher and class. The event will long be remembered by all present.

Smart Originality of Design
Expresses Parisian Influence in these
Wooltex Tailored Coats and Suits

THE handsome suit shown in the picture is a Wooltex adaptation of a recently imported Doucet model and it is representative of many of the charming garments that we are now showing.

Wooltex designs always get their first inspiration in Paris. Even under the handicap of the great war in Europe, Madame Savarie, director of the Wooltex fashion bureau in Paris, paid her accustomed visit to the great Parisian designers with whom she has been familiar for so many years.

The suit illustrated has a 27-inch jacket with the new flare below a partial belt on each side of the jacket, where there is a slash, the open edges of which are trimmed with buttons and buttonholes.

The belt confining the jacket gives the new outline, suggesting a slightly smaller waist-line. There are clever coin pockets in the belt on each side; officer's military collar, overlaid with detachable white pique collar that gives a charming spring-like effect.

The skirt has a fashionable yoke with narrow front panel, finished with nine buttons and worked buttonholes at the top in front where the skirt closes. There is a slight fullness over the hips below a smooth-fitting yoke. Price of this suit, $25.00.

Many other styles in Wooltex suits at $25.00, $30.00 and $35.00.

Wooltex coats, $16.50, $20.00 and $25.00.

In Memory

In loving memory of our beloved daughter and sister Edith May Woods, who passed away March 28th, 1914. One year has gone, oh, how we miss her.

Never will her memory fade,
Loving hearts will always linger,
Round the spot where she is laid
Ever remembered by father, mother,
Brothers and sisters
