

3,800 PERSONS

Visited the Green Trading Stamp Parlors at The Leader Saturday and received Coupon Books and Souvenirs.

These 3,800 persons who viewed the premiums which are given in exchange for green trading stamps were amazed at the variety of articles which can be secured in exchange for the stamps.

If you have not yet visited the Premium Parlor on the second floor of The Leader, you should do so at once and get a premium book. People from out of town are also invited to participate in this opportunity to secure valuable goods without cost.

Remember the Premium Parlor is on the second floor of The Leader, and everybody is welcome to call.

The Sperry & Hutchinson Co. have been in existence for thirty years and have established the green trading system in many of the largest stores in the country. There is no humbug in this stamp system, you buy goods, get stamps free and the exchange the stamps for the goods in the Premium Parlor on the second floor of The Leader.

SALESMEN AND VISITORS

Mrs. Geo. W. Finn left Saturday for Golden, Col., to visit her sister for a week or so.

Attorney J. J. Halligan was a professional visitor in Lexington Friday evening.

W. J. Tiley left last evening for Fremont and other points east to spend the week looking after Yeomen business.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Leininger returned Sunday from Loup City where they spent a few weeks visiting relatives and friends.

Mrs. Clarence Pritchard left Sunday evening for Omaha to spend several days visiting her parents and other relatives and friends.

The date for the Senior class play has been set for May 21st at the Keith theatre. The management was undecided as to whether it would be May 21st or 28th and last week decided upon the former date.

It is announced that the Union Pacific will employ 4,000 additional laborers between May 1st and June 1st. These men will be used in placing the road in the very best condition for the expected heavy tourist travel.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Letts left yesterday morning for Denver, where Mr. Letts will consult a specialist. His condition is not improving, and every day he is subject to attacks that cause him great suffering.

Old Trusty and Poultry Leader incubators and brooders at factory price. SIMON BROS.

Crowe's orchestra went to Sutherland Saturday evening where they played for a dance given for the benefit of the village base ball fund. The dance was well attended, several couples going up from this city.

Mrs. V. L. Johnson, of Shelton, is spending this week in town as the guest of her sister, Mrs. C. R. Morey.

Julius Pizer leaves today for Chicago where he goes to purchase goods for The Leader. Trade at his store has been very heavy this spring and it is necessary to replenish the stock.

Wayne, the eight year old son of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Hogg, is reported seriously ill. The little boy is suffering with leakage of the heart and the doctors hold out faint hopes for his recovery. A hemorrhage is feared at any time.

Clarence King of the south side is pretty well pleased with Peterita as a forage crop. From a small government sample sent out last year he harvested about fifteen bushels of seed and had a lot of fodder also. Peterita stands the dry weather as well as could be hoped for.—Sutherland Free Lance.

Dr. W. T. Pritchard, veterinarian in this city, received word yesterday morning from Lincoln advising him that he had been appointed one of the stallion inspectors for the state of Nebraska. He is to go to Lincoln tomorrow to meet with the state board and receive instructions as to his duties.

Sunday evening's fire pretty thoroughly demonstrated the fact that a garage is not the safest and best place to keep the auto fire truck. Had there been a wind from the north to drive the fire into the quarters occupied by it, making it impossible to get the truck out, what means would have there been to fight the fire? It is true such a fire may never again occur, but it is always best to play safe. What North Platte needs is a building for the fire apparatus and quarters for the firemen—call it a city hall or whatever you please.

Mr. and Mrs. George White and family, of Sutherland, were visiting in the city yesterday.

Work began yesterday on the residence which L. E. Hastings is erecting on west Second street.

The basement has been excavated and the foundation laid for the new residence C. S. Clinton is erecting on west Fourth street.

For Sale—Corner lot. Inquire of Mrs. Geo. G. McKay, 805 West Fifth.

The Elks dance which was to have been held Thursday evening of this week has been called off on account of other social events. A dance will be held there next week. It is expected that the Hallowell Concert company will be here to give a concert and dance.

Two men were granted their final naturalization papers yesterday before the district court. They were Carl F. Carlson, of Hershey, and Martin N. Hannan, of the North Platte vicinity. Mr. Carlson came to this country from Sweden and Mr. Hannan from Norway.

Henry Bebout, one of the first settlers in Wallace precinct, locating there in 1885, was in town yesterday and made this office a pleasant call. He and his wife and four children expect to leave in June for a visit at Pacific coast points and will be absent about sixty days.

Did you see the new houses building in Taylor's Addition this year? Only a few lots left... We'll loan you money to help you build. Hollman & Sebastian, Exclusive Agents.

Allen Tift arrived from Minnesota Sunday and will remain a week looking after business affairs. He has a contract for grading twenty-six miles of the Black and Yellow Trail, an automobile road that the state and counties are building. This trail is sixteen feet wide at the top and is costing an average of $1,600 per mile. The section he is building extends from New Ulm to St. Peter. Mr. Tift has at present forty men on the job and does not expect to have the work completed until late in November.

Rakios Stathos, the Greek laborer who was taken in by the authorities on the charge of insanity, was given hearing yesterday before the insanity commission. The commission heard the testimony and then decided to adjourn without giving a decision, thinking that the boy would recover in the course of a few days. He was turned over to the sheriff in whose custody he will be held. The boy's main trouble seems to be that he borrowed sixty dollars from a fellow countryman and the owing of the money preys on his mind. He will scarcely talk at all and when he does he speaks only of the money he owes.

Mrs. Anna Forstedt is Dead

Mrs. Anna Forstedt, a resident of this city for the past eight years, passed away at her home at 621 west B street Sunday evening about ten-thirty o'clock. She was fifty-nine years, ten months and two days old at the time of her death, which was due to general debility, she having been in poor health for several months past.

Mrs. Forstedt was the widow of the late Peter Forstedt. She was born in Sweden, June 16, 1855, and came to America when but a young girl. She leaves to mourn her demise besides her many friends, three sons and three daughters, the husband having died at Gothenburg in 1906. The sons are Julius, Premus and Nels, all of this city. The daughters are Mrs. Anna Decker of Elm Creek, Mrs. Agnes Johnson, of Kearney, and Mrs. Huldah Johnson, of Coonto. All the children are at home for the funeral. Mrs. Forstedt moved to North Platte from Gothenburg about eight years ago, shortly after the death of her husband. She was a faithful member of the Baptist church and had a number of friends who will regret to learn of her demise. The funeral was held this morning at 10:30 from the home of her son, Premus, with whom she had been making her home, and the body was shipped at noon to Gothenburg where burial was made beside the remains of her late husband. Rev. J. L. Barton will accompany the remains to Gothenburg.

Following are the cases set for hearing: Wells vs. Bloom, Murphy vs. Enright, Banks vs. Troupe, Qually vs. Hoy, Harvey vs. Gilbert, Turpie vs. Snyder, Erskine vs. Erskine, Discoe vs. Discoe, Peter vs. Peter, Union Pacific tax case, McDonald tax case, Nattinger vs. Howard, Veach vs. Love, Miller vs. Kuhns, McDonald vs. Lucas, Harding vs. Polinsky, Perry vs. ePerry and Leon vs. Noble.

1916 Encampment to be Here!

The local camp of the United Spanish War Veterans wish to call the attention of the business men to the fact that they are working to get the 1916 state encampment here and that they will continue to do so if North Platte wants the convention. The state encampment will be held in Omaha beginning April 26th and if the local camp can get an expression from the merchants of this city they are planning to go down a few days early and make a campaign to get this city chosen as the next meeting place. Several camps over the state have signified their willingness to work for winning the encampment here and the local camp will do all in their power to help if the people of North Platte want it brought here.
