Big Street Parade

The gold glittering street parade with the Barton & Bailey world celebrated shows will take place on the morning of Thursday, May 13 at North Platte, where this noted amusement enterprise is billed to exhibit afternoon and night. Several hundred men, women and horses will be in line and with the massive open cages of wild animals will be a sight worth coming many miles to see.

Five bands will participate, foremost of which, is the world famous Military Band, under the leadership of Professor E. C. Jones.

The parade is about one mile long and no expense has been spared to make it the greatest ever seen in America.

Notice for Bids.

Bids will be received up to Friday, May 14th, 5 o'clock, on the lumber and all building material in the big tabernacle. Invoices for same can be obtained from the undersigned now. Material to be taken down and removed at once upon the close of the Lowry-Moody revival. A rare chance for prospective builders. Apply at once for particulars.

The committee reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

YOU CAN SHAKE HANDS WITH YOURSELF

when you have a good Fire Insurance Policy in one hand. Shake off the lethargy you are in. Be a business man and look after your own interests. The wise would never think of allowing their personal property to be uninsured. If you have been so foolish hitherto, wake up now and get interested for your own interests. I can insure your house and contents for a small premium. You will hardly feel the paying of it yet it affords you a permanent protection against fire.
