Cash Austin a Benedict

When Cash Austin left town last Saturday night for the expressed purpose of visiting relatives in Denver, there were doubting Thomases, and therefore when he returned last evening from Sheridan, Wyoming, with a bride in the person of Miss Zeta Reynolds, the arrival caused no surprise among his closer friends. The ceremony occurred at the home of the bride's sister in Sheridan Wednesday, where Miss Reynolds had been visiting for several weeks.

This consummation of a courtship extending over a year was not unexpected; it was generally expected to occur this spring or summer, but neither of the contracting parties would consent to divulge the date.

The bride came here from Lincoln two years ago to accept a position as stenographer in the Wilcox & Halligan office, a position she held until two or three months ago when she resigned to prepare for the momentous event which occurred Wednesday. She is a bright, attractive girl who has made many friends during her residence in town.

Mr. Austin has lived in town, or nearly, since a lad, and for a long term of years has been in the employ of the Dixon store as an expert watch repairer. He is a genial fellow, a good mixer, popular with everybody and he and the lady of his choice have the best wishes of all. The Tribune extends its personal congratulations to Mr. Austin and best wishes to the bride.

Knights Templar Hold Banquet

Palestine Commandery No. 13, Knight Templar held installation services last evening, and later held a banquet. The officers installed were: Eminent Commander, Robert Armstrong; generalissimo, Claude Faulkner; captain general, Dr. O. H. Cressler; senior warden, Harry Dixon; junior warden, Chas. Reynolds; treasurer, Chas. McDonald; recorder, Chas. Hendy.

Following the installation the banquet was held, the menu, which was very nice, being served by the Episcopal guild. Covers were laid for thirty Knights and their ladies, and the tables were profusely decorated with cut flowers. An orchestra rendered selections during the banquet. The latter part of the evening was devoted to card playing.

State Shoot Next Week

The annual convention and trap shoot of the Nebraska Sportsmen's Association will be held in this city next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. The tournament will be held at the gun club grounds west of town, which have been put in ship shape for the shooters.

It is expected that no less than one hundred out-of-town men will be present, and it is possible the number may reach 200. Among those attending will be a dozen professionals who will come from all sections of the country.

The local committee has prepared a fine three-day program of events, and have also arranged several stunts for the entertainment of the visitors.

All Ladies' Suits and Coats are being sold at a discount of twenty per cent.

Squeezed by an Auto

Chas. Ranck, who conducts an auto repair shop in the rear of the Goozee building on east Sixth, is hobbling around on crutches as the result of an accident which befell him the early part of the week. He cranked a lively little Ford car when in gear and it sprang forward and jammed him between the radiator and a wagon behind which it was standing. Ranck's left leg between the ankle and knee was cut and bruised so severely that he will need to use crutches for some time.
