Secretary Bryan Resigns.

The political sensation of this week is the resignation of secretary of state W. J. Bryan, which was tendered Tuesday and immediately accepted by President Wilson. The cause of the resignation was his disagreement with President Wilson over the government's policy toward Germany. Secretary Bryan, as author of thirty peace treaties evidently could not endorse the president's attitude toward Germany over the Lusitania affair, and rather than compromise himself tendered his resignation.

Some are inclined to believe that Mr. Bryan had been awaiting an opportune time to resign. In many times past the president has usurped the prerogative of Mr. Bryan and issued state papers that probably should have come from the secretary of state. This, naturally, must have been humiliating to Mr. Bryan, for it placed him in the position of a mere clerk instead of that of the premier of the president's cabinet.

It is not considered that President Wilson will take Mr. Bryan's resignation as a rebuke to his foreign policy; in fact if the president is inclined to be stubborn he may become all the more aggressive toward Germany.

which would be contrary to public sentiment in this country.

Mr. Bryan now returns to the position of a private citizen free to pursue that political course best to his liking. That he will continue as a prominent factor in national politics is not questioned. If he returns to Nebraska, and he undoubtedly will, he may wrest from Hitchcock the senatorial toga, or he may acquiesce to the demands of his friends and enter the field against President Wilson for the presidential nomination of 1916.

Marriage Licenses.

June 5—David D. Staples and Le-wellen MacKeen, both of North Platte.
June 7—F. B. Fanger, of Des Moines, and Minnie Barnhart, of Curtis. Married by Judge French.

June 7—Charles M. Mills of Lew-ellen and Laura St. John of Lexington, married by Judge French.

June 8—David G. Tibbles and Liddle Ann Bedford, both of North Platte.

June 8—Edward Peters of Roscoe and Effie Lake of Paxton. Married by Judge French.

Continue Revival Meetings.

Tuesday evening a "converts" rally was held at the tabernacle, and so great was the enthusiasm displayed that the ministers and others in charge concluded to conduct meetings each evening this week. Tuesday evening a number of the converts related their experiences. In response to invitations by the ministers thirty-three went forward and signified their intention to lead a different life. These were mainly people who could not fully decide to take their stand during the services which closed Sunday night.

LINCOLN HIGHWAY WOMEN WILL STOP HERE.

Word has been received here that a number of ladies who are accompanying the Lincoln Highway movie outfit, will stop over in North Platte for part of a day and probably a night, and they ask about accommodations. This Lincoln Highway movie expedition, is taking photographs along the highway to be incorporated in moving picture films. In each state certain towns will be "featured," that is, pictures of the prominent features of the towns will be taken and shown in the pictures. The Chamber of Commerce made an appropriation to cover the expense of these pictures, believing it would be a good way to advertise North Platte. The women who accompany the outfit are members of the Lincoln Highway Ladies' Auxiliary.

The Lincoln Highway movie outfit have been "stalled" in Pennsylvania for the past few days and little progress has been made. Constant rains have made picture taking almost an impossibility, especially to any advantage. As a result the expedition will be delayed for some time. This party will travel over the entire length of the highway and secure 7,000 feet of film along the road.

The greatest wheat crop the country has ever known is in prospect for the coming harvest. In its forecast Tuesday based on the condition of winter and spring wheat on June 1, the federal crop reporting board placed the prospective wheat crop at 950,000,000 bushels, which would exceed last year's record crop by 59,000,000 bushels. With continued good growing conditions, the crop might reach a billion bushels.

Giants Fall to Score.

In the ball game Wednesday afternoon on the local grounds between the Hershey Giants and the Boosters the latter won by a score of nine to nothing.

With Luby in the box for the Boosters, the Giants secured but three hits, two of these being made in the first inning before Luby had warmed up. The Boosters took nine hits off Beahan, and the latter through wildness gave eight bases on balls. Each pitcher struck out eight men. The Boosters scored three in the first inning, one in the third, one in the fifth, two in the sixth and two in the eighth. Gettman was credited with two two-baggers. Two double plays were made by the Boosters. The work of the Boosters was snappy throughout. A fair sized crowd witnessed the game.

The Kearney city council at its meeting Monday evening designated three additional paving districts; York will vote bonds for additional paving; Grand Island has created several new paving districts; Hastings is adding a mile to its paved district; Fremont is now putting in block after block of paving; Seward is doing similar work; Norfolk has authorized six miles of paving, and so on in every progressive town in Nebraska. Isn't it time for North Platte to wake up on the paving proposition? Are we forever to remain in the old rut?

The Gandy Pioneer reports that a farmer in the west part of Logan county (name not given) had two horses killed by lightning while driving them to a cultivator one day last week. The farmer was knocked from the cultivator and stunned but not injured.

Tells of Tornado.

P. H. Siebold, of Bayard, returned home this morning after spending a couple of days in town. Mr. Siebold, who is a son of Wm. Siebold, living north of the river, was an inmate of the Clarence Groves home six miles northeast of Bayard which was wrecked by a tornado a week or so ago. The family was about to sit down at the supper table when the tornado struck the house, turning it completely over, and sliding it along the ground for a distance of fully one hundred yards. All members of the household were more or less bruised, but Mrs. Groves, who is a sister of Mrs. Harry Lamplugh, of this city, was the only one seriously injured. She sustained a small fracture of the skull, a dislocated hip, and many severe bruises. She is, however, convalescing.

Under a bulletin issued June 1st relating to terminals, North Platte was designated as the home terminal for enginemen on the Second district. This would seem to effectually smother the report that an effort was being made to have Grand Island designated as the home terminal for Second district enginemen.

Vic Halligan, of this city, captain of last year's university foot ball team, has accepted the position as head foot ball coach of the Cotner university at Lincoln at a flattering salary. Vic was a candidate for assistant coach of the university team, and was the unanimous pick of the student body and the alumni for that position but the athletic board was so slow in arriving at a decision that Vic concluded to accept the offer made by Cotner.

W. H. C. Woodhurst spent Tuesday in the country near Overton adjusting a fire loss which a farmer had sustained. Mr. Woodhurst is kept on the road a good part of the time adjusting losses in western Nebraska for the various companies.

Jimmie Martin, of Scotts Bluff, formerly with the Meston laundry in this city, spent several days in town this week visiting friends. Jimmie says the bluff is the only real town in the upper North Platte valley, in other words he likes that town.

The burial service of Mrs. Mary Schultz was held Monday at Cozad. The home was thronged with a concourse of people, friends of a lifetime. Owing to the inability of the pastor to be present, the funeral oration was delivered by John Worth Hartman of Indianapolis, Indiana, who paid a touching tribute to the life and deeds of the deceased.

Manager Posey, of the Pacific Hotel, has resigned and will leave the early part of next week for Omaha. He will re-enter the service of the company as dining car conductor, a position he held before taking the management of the local hotel. Mr. and Mrs. Posey, during the three years they have resided in town, have been very popular, and their departure will cause general regret.
