NEARLY 400 MEMBERS SECURED IN CAMPAIGN.

The three-day campaign inaugurated to secure members to the Chamber of Commerce, which began Tuesday morning and terminated last evening, resulted in an enrollment of 382, with prospects for enough more to swell the number to at least 400. In this campaign about forty men took part, and a thorough canvass of the business district was made. However, the membership secured is not limited to business and professional men; many property owners, including railroad men, enrolled their names, and the clerks in the various business houses helped swell the number. Very few of the business and professional and property owners who were approached declined to take out a membership, and a number of those who refused will, we believe, sooner or later, discover "the error of their way."

The large membership secured—which is three times greater than ever before—can be taken as evidence that the people of North Platte are willing to help boost the town; that they want to make North Platte, already a good town, a better and bigger town. Backed by a membership of 400 all working for the best interests of the town, the Chamber of Commerce is certain to be a wonderful factor in the upbuilding of North Platte.

For a number of years a commercial organization has been maintained in North Platte, and while much good has been accomplished, it has been handicapped by the fact that of the 1000 or more men in North Platte, the average membership of the organization has been less than one hundred, and the other 900 instead of helping and backing the 100 who were working for the best interests of the whole town, stood back with folded hands and asked "what is the Chamber of Commerce doing," and at the same time many of them ridiculed the organization and even went so far as to thwart the efforts of the organizations. Under these conditions the most effective work could not be done. But now with a membership of 400, and each a willing worker, there is scarcely any bound to the scope of the work that can be accomplished.

As one who has worked as best he could for the best interests of North Platte for over thirty years, the editor of The Tribune is wonderfully well pleased with the result of the membership campaign, and he is confident that the work of the Chamber of Commerce during the next year will be such as to make everyone interested in the welfare of the city "sit up and notice."

The Death of Mabel Pester.

An account of the death of Miss Mabel Pester, formerly of this city, is learned by a clipping from a Vacaville, Cal., paper left at this office. In company with a man and two other girls, Miss Pester was enroute in an automobile to a fruit farm where they were engaged in picking fruit. In passing over the crossing of an electric road the automobile was struck by a car, and the occupants thrown in front of the electric car. Miss Pester, the man, and one of the other two girls were instantly killed, and the third girl badly injured. The approaching electric car could not be seen on account of a grove of trees. Miss Pester's funeral was held from the Christian church, the faculty and students of the high school attending, she having been a student there and had just quit temporarily to go to work.

Swedish Lutheran Church.

Swedish Lutheran services will be held in the Advent church on Sunday, June 13th at 4 o'clock.

The ladies' aid society will meet at the Branting farm on June 25th.

PUNCH BOARDS AND DICE BOXES MUST GO.

Chief Baker made the rounds of cigar stores, confectionary stores and other places where punch boards and dice boxes have been in use, and ordered that they must be discontinued. The order on dice boxes became effective at once; the punch boards will be allowed to be maintained until they are exhausted, thus allowing the owners to realize on the money they have thus invested. No new boards will be allowed.

The order of the chief is a sequel to many complaints that have been registered against the dice box and punch board form of gambling. It is a mild form, it is true, but nevertheless it is obnoxious to many of our citizens. In some instances young boys were allowed the use of the boxes and boards, and this hastened the edict of Chief Baker.
