COME IN AND LET US EXPLAIN.
DIXON, The Jeweler.

DR. O. H. CRESSLER,
Graduate Dentist
Office over the McDonald
State Bank.

Walter Clinton, of Denver, is spending this week as the guest of his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Martin.

Largest Assortment of Parasols ever shown in North Platte at Wilcox Department Store.

C. R. Morey will go to Hastings tonight to spend Saturday and Sunday with Mrs. Morey, who has been visiting relatives there for several weeks.

Mrs. George T. Field is now in San Francisco visiting the exposition and will remain there until July 1st when she will go to La Jolla, Calif., and reside in the Colonial apartments.

Weather forecast for North Platte and vicinity: Partly cloudy tonight, probably showers Saturday, not much change in temperature. Highest temperature yesterday 75, a year ago 84; lowest last night 53, a year ago 54.

There were two important arrivals in the city yesterday, Miss Hendy and Miss Holman. The former will make her home with Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hendy, and the latter with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Holman. The infants and their mothers are reported to be getting along nicely.

At a meeting of the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce Wednesday afternoon C. F. Temple was unanimously elected secretary at a salary of $100 per month. Mr. Temple will give practically all of his time to the secretaryship and boosting of North Platte in whatever way possible. No one questions his hustling ability nor his tireless energy.

The Ad Club of Los Angeles occupied a car on train No. 2 yesterday enroute to the national convention in Chicago. There were about thirty in the party and they were about as strong boosters for southern California as ever breathed. They were supplied with all classes of advertising and had improvised several yells and songs to be used at the Chicago convention.

For Rent—Good five room house, close in. Inquire at Mart's Meat Market.

A good five room cottage with bath, situated in the south part of the city, will have to be disposed of at a sacrifice in the next few days to settle some claims I have against the property. This place is worth about $2200, but I can sell it now for about $1650. This will be a good opportunity for some one to obtain a good place at a bargain. Terms can be arranged for a good part of the purchase price. Any one interested see Attorney Wm. E. Shuman. 43-3

Ladies' Suits $4.98 and $12.98 at Wilcox Department Store.

Cards bearing the following inscription were received in town yesterday: "Mr. Emil Veselka and Miss Floy Wortman announce their marriage on Sunday, June the thirteenth, nineteen hundred and fifteen, Pasadena, Cal. At home, 1937 Byram St., Los Angeles, Cal." And thus it is that young men in North Platte look lovingly at the young ladies for a few years, then like to some other state and after a year or so are lassoed by Cupid. But, shake, Emil, and accept the best wishes of The Tribune for a cloudless sky and a never ending honeymoon for you and the fair one you have won.

AUTO POLO GAMES

Most Dangerous Sport in the World Coming to North Platte, June 22nd and 23rd.

North Platte is to share in the 1915 international series of auto polo matches between the original teams representing America and England. Fresh from a recent series in the new stadium at White City Park, Chicago, these famous teams are on a western tour, and will come to North Platte for two games Tuesday and Wednesday of next week.

Auto polo is really something new. Some wit has termed it "motor insanity," but whether or no, during its short existence, it has added friend and enthusiast wherever presented. Coming into its own following a three week series in the Madison Square Garden New York, society went into ecstasies—at last something had been found with an abundance of human risk, something with action every rational second, and it has since been featured at the very largest state fairs throughout the country as their crowning attraction.

And now it comes to North Platte for the first time. Ralph A. Hankinson, originator and founder of auto polo brings his original American and British teams for two games only. This is the third year of international matches between America, represented by Hankinson's world champions—the American team, and Great Britain's all champion team, under Mr. Hankinson's management for this year's series.

Auto polo had its conception, it is said as the result of a wager between two motor car salesmen as to their respective ability in pushing a tin can along a road with the front wheel of their car. Ralph A. Hankinson, of Kansas City, was a fortunate spectator at this unique contest, and with that rare foresight so uncommon among men, grasped the opportunity they saw awaiting a man once in his lifetime. Not stopping to sum up its possibilities, he launched auto polo with a whizz and a whirl into the front ranks of sport, an enthusiastic masses and classes from the very outset.

The rules of auto polo are very similar to the regular polo game, with a natural revision to care for the difference between horse-flesh, iron steel and rubber. Five periods of ten minutes each constitute a full game with a one-minute intermission between each period to administer to the wants of these untamed "gasoline ponies" but not a moment of action is lost between each period. Although the rules of the game call for two cars in constant service, in some games, due to the grueling they receive, as many as eight to ten cars are brought into play at the different stages. Press reports from cities where these teams have previously appeared tell us that not a moment of action is lost throughout each of the five periods constituting a full game. Turnovers, spills, head-on collisions, sprained ankles, etc., are of frequent occurrence, but the game goes on uninterrupted, some new player, some new car ready on the dot to fill the gap.

It would really take a circus press agent to describe the attraction that auto polo has. Chief of these is the ever present danger of the players taking a header into a hospital. When a sport holds that possibility, and in auto polo it is more than a possibility—its success is guaranteed. The new sport is a cross betw en a Vanderbilt Cup Race, and an international polo match, with none of the sensations of either missing, and several of its' own added. The autos are built especially for auto polo—they need to be to withstand the terrific strain. The machines are stripped bare to the chassis, with steel hops over engines, radiator and driving seat, thus forming a semblance of protection to car and player. They weigh about 1400 pounds each.

What's next on the sporting horizon. That's going to be the burning question. Just now its auto polo, with all its throbs and thrills. It is not a show, nor a circus. It is real American sport—a game for every man, woman or child with blue blood coursing through their veins.

Obituary—T. J. Baldock.

Thomas Jefferson Baldock was born at Phil, Casey county, Kentucky on the 27th day of November, 1861. His boyhood and early manhood days were spent in and around Phil. It was here when fourteen years of age that he became a Christian. It was here that ideals of right and justice were driven deep into the soul of the boy where they have remained ever since. It was here that he met Miss Elizabeth Roberts, who shortly after his twentieth birthday he led to the bridal altar.

It was here where the first sixteen years of their married life were spent and where their five children were born. It was in old Kentucky where the sturdy, vigorous moral manhood which so gloriously revealed itself in his life, even to the end, was developed.

With his family Mr. Baldock moved to Stansberry, Mo., in 1897 where they made their home for several years.

For the past six years the family have made North Platte their home and during their sojourn here, they have won the esteem and confidence of all who know them.

Since coming to North Platte, one child, a daughter in splendid young womanhood answered the summons of death, and has gone on before her father. For seven weeks Mr. Baldock fought against great odds to overcome the ravages of disease. About two o'clock in the morning of the 16th of June death knocked loudly at his door, and calling for his companion, he gave words of hope and love and then quietly stole away to the land where sickness and sorrow—anguish and separation do not come.

He had fought a good fight. He had finished his course. He has gone for his crown. At his death he had reached the age of 53 years, 6 months and 19 days.

His wife, his sons Virgil and Will, his daughters Mrs. M. L. Morrill and Miss Pauline, remain to mourn his departure. Scores upon scores of friends are saddened because of his death and the bereavement of the family.

We are glad to honor such a man who has gone through life without loss in real manliness—one who has increased in moral vigor and purity—one who has grown better as he has grown older.

Let us who remain believe more firmly in the God of Truth that when our call shall come we will be ready as this one was to answer it. XX

BRATT & GOODMAN.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ritter, of Fairbury, formerly of this city, are expected this week to visit relatives.

A farmer living northwest of town has planted forty acres of potatoes and the plants are said to look fine. If the season is favorable his crop ought to reach between 8,000 and 10,000 bushels. His big task will be hauling the crop to market.

United States District Attorney Howell returned to Omaha Wednesday, having conducted a land office case Tuesday. He made the trip in his car and expressed himself as having enjoyed the run from Omaha to North Platte.
