LOOK WITH DISFAVOR ON STREET FAIRS.

The directors of the Chamber of Commerce held a special meeting Tuesday evening to discuss several matters that demanded immediate attention. The first considered was the application to the city council for a license by a company that proposes to come here with a street fair next week, opening Monday and closing Saturday night. Not only were the directors opposed to having the carnival come here, but a dozen citizens who were present at the meeting were almost unanimous in their opposition. Their opposition was taken on the ground that a street fair is a breeder of loose morals; and that it takes money out of town, and that the class of amusement provided is neither elevating or even a medium class—that as a rule the "shows" are of the "snide" variety and not worth even the small admission asked. While there is probably nothing in the ordinance to prevent the company from showing on some vacant ground, it was the sense of the meeting that the streets should not be given over for such purpose and that the council should, if possible, levy a license tax so high as to prohibit the company from coming.

Another matter discussed was the Fourth of July Celebration. While the time to make the preparations is short, it was decided to proceed with the celebration on Monday, July 5th, and to assist the committee an appropriation of $700 was made. This amount will be augmented by funds from other sources. An executive committee composed of Harry Porter, W. J. Tilley, W. R. Maloney, W. J. Landgraf, C. M. Newton and O. E. Elder was selected to have charge of the celebration.

The ball situation was discussed at some length and it was generally conceded that the team should be supported. An appropriation of five hundred dollars was made, with the proviso that more should be donated should the condition of the publicity fund permit.

The condition of the Lincoln Highway was discussed, as was also the roads leading into the city. The importance of the Lincoln Highway to North Platte was cited by Secretary Temple, who stated that on Monday he had counted thirty tourist cars in town. Every tourist spends money in town for lodging, meals and garage supplies, and in many instances patronize the general lines of business. On another occasion there were so many tourists in town that the hotels and rooming houses were overtaxed and several were unable to get rooms. On account of the roads, some of the tourists have been cutting over North Platte and going west over the road south of the river and crossing at Ogallala.

"Army" Expedition Arrives.

The expedition of the Northwestern Academy, of Lake Geneva, Wis., reference to which has been made in these columns, arrived in town Wednesday, after a strenuous trip from Omaha over almost bottomless roads. This military outfit is composed of twenty-six cadets from the academy traveling to San Francisco in seven autos, in charge of Col. Davidson, commandant of the school. Dr. Rice, the school physician and Lieutenant Arneemann, the United States military attaché at the school. One of the cars is fitted up as an ambulance, very completely equipped, and also a steel armored car, in which the occupants are snugly caged, the only opening being a small look-out aperture for the driver. This armored car weighs over 6,000 pounds, and the hospital car is of the same weight. During the trip the strictest military discipline is observed. The cars are owned and equipped by the school, and the expenses are paid by the institution. After reaching and spending some time at San Francisco, the return trip will be made by train. Colonel Davidson said the armored car was of the type used by the army and that the steel covering would withstand a steel bullet unless fired at less than one hundred yards; at a less distance the bullet would pierce the covering, but its force would be spent.

Train Limit Bill Defeated.

Railway Age Gazette: The measure which has been pending in the Illinois legislature to limit the length of freight trains finally has been killed. It originally prohibited the railroads from running trains of more than fifty cars. The roads conducted a vigorous campaign against this provision, both at Springfield and in the newspapers of the state. When the labor lobby saw the fifty-car bill could not be passed it substituted a measure limiting the length of trains to seventy-five cars. This at one time received seventy-eight votes in the house, and it looked as if it might be passed; but when it came up for third reading it was defeated, 61 to 7. The labor lobby has introduced train-limit bills in nineteen states this year; and up to date it has been defeated in every state. The hardest fight for legislation of this kind was made in Illinois, and the complete defeat of it there is a strong indication that it will never be possible to get it passed in another state.

Miss Bertha Votaw, of Curtis, spent this week in town visiting local friends.

Mrs. E. N. Johnson left a few days ago for Omaha where she will spend a week or longer.

Miss Gertrude Baker who has been visiting in Goshen for a week is expected home today.

Miss Josephine Sadie left Tuesday for Oshkosh where she will visit friends and attend the wedding of her brother Will Sadie.

SELLS-FLOTO SHOW WILL ARRIVE SUNDAY

The Sells-Flooto show, which exhibits in North Platte Monday afternoon and evening, will arrive Sunday from Cheyenne, and will enroute during the forenoon and the tents will be erected. This feature of the show will no doubt be witnessed by a large crowd, as the work is of an interesting nature and gives evidence of the thorough organization of a big show.

There should be a warm welcome to this show, not only because of its real merit, but because connected with it is our former townsman, Col. W. F. Cody, who has charge of the Wild West features of the show.

The Sells-Flooto show is not only one of entertainment, but of instruction as well. There are the trained animals in which the lion, the tiger and the leopard join in wonderfully taught acts; the big elephants which respond to the trainers' command as readily as does the affectionate dog; the graceful dancing horses which keep perfect step to the music of the band; the riders of all nations, including the Indian, the Arab, the cowboy, the cowgirl and the U. S. cavalry man; the wonderful cleverness of the aerialists; and for the humorous part an aggregation of clowns representing all the comic characters of the day.

The performances will be given at 2 and 8 p. m., and the admission prices are fifty cents for adults and twenty-five cents for children.

R. H. Fowles Married.

One of the surprises to North Platte people this week was the announcement of the marriage of R. H. Fowles, which occurred at Long Beach, Calif., yesterday. It was generally considered that Mr. Fowles was invulnerable to the assaults of Cupid's darts, at least he was in this section of the country, but it seems that the California climate softened his "hardness of heart" and a dart struck a vital spot. The lady who became Mrs. Fowles was Miss Madeline Gray Anderson, and the ceremony occurred at the residence of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Fowles will be "at home" at Long Beach after September 1st.

The Tribune extends congratulations to Mr. Fowles, best wishes to his bride and to both may the sun of happiness and contentment never set.

A Visit From Col. Burke.

Col. John M. Burke, for years press agent for the Cody Wild West show and now holding a similar position with the Sells-Flooto show, spent Tuesday forenoon in town and made a pleasant visit at The Tribune office. Though descending the western slope of life, the Major is the same suave, jovial, polished man of twenty-five years ago; the merry twinkle is still in his eye, and though his long tresses are silvered and getting sparse his indomitable energy seems undiminished. The major was three days behind his schedule, and could not, as he desired, spend the full day in town meeting all his old friends; some of whom he knew in the days when the red man and the buffalo were habits of the section surrounding North Platte.

North Platte Girls Gay at Hershey.

The Tribune regrets to say that citizens of Hershey have filed at this office complaints regarding the conduct of four North Platte girls who attended a dance at that place last Friday night, and following the dance became so gay as to disturb the peace of that village. Should such conduct again occur the marshal of Hershey will certainly take action, in which event The Tribune will publish the names of the parties together with such information as the incident warrants.

Miss Hall to go to Philippines.

Miss Gladys Hall of this city expects to leave July 4th for San Francisco, where she will meet a cousin, who is a lieutenant in the army, and his wife and on August 5th they will sail for the Philippines where Miss Hall will accept a position as teacher in the public schools. She will be stationed on an island about ten miles from the city of Manila. These schools are conducted by the United States government, and Miss Hall for the first year will receive a salary of ninety dollars per month.

Read Hershey's advertisement: a closing out sale in this issue. Hershey the hardware man.

Thousands of loads, recently hatched, were visible on the streets early yesterday morning. The peculiar feature of their appearance was that they were only to be seen on the streets running east and west and all were hopping westward. For an hour or two east Fifth street was fairly alive with them.
