BRATT & GOODMAN.

An army hospital corps, numbering a hundred or more men and twelve or fifteen ambulances enroute from Ft. Russell to a post in Minnesota, arrived in town yesterday morning after being on the road about two weeks. All the men were mounted, but as the forward movement was only made during the forenoon and the remainder of the day spent in camp, the progress along the muddy roads of western Nebraska was necessarily slow.

The Fashion Shop, in the Goozee building, held its formal opening Friday and was accorded a large patronage. The stock is very attractively displayed and promises to become a very popular trading place for the people of North Platte and vicinity. Mr. Sundheimer extends an invitation to the public to visit the store and inspect the goods and learn the reasonable prices at which women's apparel is being sold.

Saturday Evening Wedding.
As the culmination of school day friendship, Andy McGovern and Miss Carrie Marti were married Saturday evening at 9:20. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Fr. McDaid at his residence in the presence of immediate relatives. One hour later the bride and groom left for the latter's farm north of Brady, where they will make their home. Both Mr. and Mrs. McGovern were born in North Platte and are therefore well and favorably known. Last spring Andy bought a farm in the Brady section, and went there to get the residence in proper shape for the expected bride, as well as to plant a crop, in both of which he well succeeded. Mr. McGovern is a young man of good habits, industrious and will well care for his bride, who has been one of the most popular of the younger set. They have the best wishes of many friends.

Bignell Will Celebrate.

At the morning service at the Presbyterian church Sunday forty-five were taken into membership of the church and the rite of baptism administered to ten young people.

A Person's Age
Doesn't necessarily indicate that glasses should or should NOT be worn. School children often need them badly—while many older people get along nicely without them.
It is solely the condition of the eyes which should decide.
Every person who reads this should make it a point to learn just what shape his or her eyes are in.
It doesn't pay to remain in doubt, especially when finding out costs not even a cent.
We are fully competent to rectify all defects of vision. And we can supply the exactly right glasses in two or three days' time.
Interview our optician.
C. S. CLINTON,
Registered Optometrist.

Base Ball Dope
The Boosters journeyed to Grant Saturday and defeated the team of that place by a score of seven to two. Jones occupied the box for the Boosters and twirled a nice game.

Nert Sunday the Boosters go to Ogalalla for a game and on the following day the Ogalalla Braves will be here for a game. It is said that the Braves will pick up new material for these two games.

Pitcher Artley who has been doing the twirling for Maywood and other teams on the high line has been added to the Booster staff of pitchers. He rates high among the amateur players. Hershey says no more games with the Boosters. "They are entirely too strong for us, and the games are so long-sided as to be devoid of interest. Hereafter our games will be with teams in our class."

The Boosters, with Luby in the box, defeated Willow Island Sunday afternoon by a score of sixteen to one. The Islanders trid out three pitchers, but the Boosters found them all easy to hit, and so far as general playing was concerned, the visitors were outclassed.

It now develops that there is such a thing as having too strong a team; when the teams from the smaller towns are outclassed in a game they naturally decline to further show their weakness and will not schedule games. This is the position North Platte is in today. With the exception of Ogalalla and Bridgeport there are no teams in the west part of the state that can play an interesting game with the Boosters.

Card of Thanks
We thus express our gratefulness to the neighbors and friends who gave us unsolicited assistance following the sudden passing away of the late William Siebold and for the floral tributes. These expressions of kindness will ever be remembered.

Those who have not made the first cutting are notified that unless the work is done at once, it will be done by the city and the expense assessed against the property.
W. B. SALISBURY,
Street Commissioner.

Circus Attracts Big Crowds
North Platte was thronged with people yesterday, in fact not in recent years has the city entertained a larger crowd. The attraction was the Sells-Floto circus which arrived from Cheyenne Sunday forenoon and detrained. Sunday afternoon hundreds visited the show grounds and watched the erection of tents, viewed the horses and elephants and watched the cooks prepare dinner for the employees, of whom there are several hundred.

The parade was given yesterday forenoon and unquestionably was one of the largest and best, if not the best, ever seen in North Platte. Everything connected with the parade was clean, the horses were splendid specimens, the wagons bright and attractive and wild west feature of the parade with its cowboy band on horseback, its Indians and cowboys, appealed to the out-timers.

The crowd that attended the afternoon performance filled the seating capacity of the big tent and for two hours act swiftly followed act in each of the three rings. Among the features of the show which appealed strongly were the acts of the wonderfully well-trained elephants, lions, and tigers, the poses of the beautiful white horses and the dancing horses. The horse back riding, the trapeze performing and acts of contortion were up to the highest standard, and the show as a whole was complimented by everyone. Colonel Cody was given hearty applause as he entered the arena, and in his address he paid a compliment to North Platte and its people and to his old friends.

At the evening performance there was a fairly good attendance.

Marriage licenses issued: June 26th, J. W. Guman of Henly and Anna Hitchcock of Sumner; June 28th, Grover C. White and Hattie B. Hazen, both of Hershey. The latter couple were married by Judge French.

Woman Cures Horse Colic.
The men were away as usual. The horse was bad. A lone woman could not "drench" in the old way. She called up a neighbor and her men were away—but: "We have Farris Colic Remedy that you drop on the horse's tongue and the horse was well when the men came home. Moral: Get Farris Colic Remedy so the women can cure horse colic. We sell it at 50c a bottle on the Money Back Plan.
Sold by A. F. Fink.
