Come and boost for a grand, successful year following this convention, July 16. By COMMITTEE.

Gore's Remarkable Memory.

Senator Gore, whom the people of North Platte will have the pleasure of hearing during the Chautauqua, often starts the senate by quoting page after page of statistics and column after column of figures. His mind is literally an encyclopedia of data.

This wasn't acquired in a day, either. While attending college he had a classmate read his lessons to him. One reading was usually enough.

The main points seemed to jump to the proper places as readily as needles to a magnet. At class lectures he took no notes but relied solely upon his memory and it seldom failed him.

After his marriage while he was struggling to keep the wolf from the door by practicing law in Texas and Oklahoma, Mrs. Gore read to him often until the small hours of the morning, while she sat by the lamp reading the little cabin storing his mind with just the information that makes all marvel at his wonderful memory.

The Right Point of View.

Did you ever stop to think how much time an entertainer has at his disposal? A thousand people listen to him for an hour and a quarter; that is equivalent to one person's time for one hundred days.

If you were choosing a tutor for your boy for that length of time you would want to be certain that the man was sincere and that he was capable of his task, wouldn't you? Of course you would. This is exactly the way Mr. Landon, one of the attractions on our Chautauqua program, has figured it out.

He feels that he has a great responsibility. Hundreds of people are willing to come and listen for an hour. He says they are extending him a real courtesy by their presence. The question uppermost in his mind is: "What can I offer this splendid audience in return?" or "What can I give them that is worth while?"

That he does give them something worth while has been answered by hundreds of Chautauqua and lyceum audiences to the entire satisfaction of all save Mr. Landon himself. He is always conscious of the opportunity that is his to direct the thoughts of his audiences in the right way, and should he fail to do that no matter how well he may have entertained them he would feel that the evening was not the success that it should have been.

The American Girls Please.

"The American Girls," a company on our Chautauqua program next month, was the leading attraction last winter on many of the best lyceum courses in the west.

The "Western Spirit" of Paola, Kan. has the following to say of their appearance there: "The concert given by the American Girls at the Mallory opera house last Friday night under the auspices of the Geddes class of the Presbyterian Sunday school, was one of the finest musical entertainments of its kind that Paola people have ever been privileged to attend in this city. * * * The closing scenes in which were represented the evolution of the American girl from the aborigines and Puritan down to the present day damsel, brought a storm of applause from the audience. The attendance was one of the largest in many years, every seat being sold."

Gus Nanos, of Harlan, Ia., formerly a partner in the North Platte candy kitchen, is visiting this week with John Poulos while enroute to Wyoming. Since leaving this city he has been operating a moving picture show at Harlan.

Mrs. M. K. Neville and children who had been visiting Mrs. Neville's parents at Charles Town, Va., arrived home yesterday morning. They spent a month at Charles Town after leaving Florida, where they spent the winter.

Prevent Hog Cholera

The B. A. Thomas Hog Powder has a record of 95 per cent cures of Hog Cholera. If you feed your hogs as directed, you never fear hog disease. And the directions are very simple, just about what you are doing plus a few cents worth of B. A. Thomas Hog Powder in the feed twice a week.

Usually, though, Cholera gets in before we know it. Then it requires close attention to each hog—each hog must be dosed—and if you will dose them as directed, you will save better than 90 per cent. If you don't, the B. A. Thomas medicine costs you nothing. We—not some distant manufacturer—pay your money back. Sold by A. F. Fink.
