

Bryan Coming Here

THE WORLD'S GREATEST ORATOR AT
Our North Platte Chautauquau
SUNDAY, AUGUST 8th, 8 P. M.

Mr. Bryan will make a few Chautauqua speeches under Redpath-Horner management and North Platte will be one of the cities where, with the same matchless eloquence that has moved and inspired millions of people all over the world,

America's Greatest Commoner will come fired with new zeal and enthusiasm proclaiming the Cause of Peace. His Subject is

"America's Position With Regard To The Powers."

Non-Political, Non-Partisan, But American. On this new cause he is making the greatest speech of his life. It is the duty and privilege of every American to hear Mr. Bryan.

Chautauqua Season Ticket Holders Admitted Free. Single Admission fee for Mr. Bryan's address adults 50c. Single Admission fee for Mr. Bryan's address children 25c.

DR. O. H. CRESSLER,

Graduate Dentist

Office over the McDonald State Bank.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Lloyd Powers left Sunday evening for Omaha to spend a week on business.

Mrs. Clint York went to Cozad Sunday morning to spend a month with relatives.

John Reynolds, of the Wilcox Department Store, is taking a two weeks' vacation.

Will Friend left Saturday afternoon for a short visit in the eastern part of the state.

The Catholic Girls club will be entertained by Mrs. J. J. Horrigan tomorrow evening.

Don't forget to get in to see those waists on sale Tuesday a. m., at Block's.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Yost and daughter Lydia left Saturday afternoon for Omaha to visit friends.

Best Cane Granulated Sugar $5.50 a sack at Wilcox Department Store.

Miss Irene McGee returned to Brady Saturday after spending several days with friends in town.

Harry Pizer left Saturday afternoon for Grand Island to visit his uncle for a week or longer.

Clarence Blickensderfer, of Albuquerque, N. M., is expected this week to visit the Hinman home.

W. L. Park and family in their private car went through Saturday morning enroute home from Alaska.

Mr. and Mrs. William Burkland, of Sutherland, came down Saturday morning to visit local relatives.

Miss Lela Scott will leave this week for Wood River and other eastern Nebraska towns to visit friends.

Do you need a white dress skirt? Just received a large assortment, all sizes at Block's, 25c, on sale Tuesday a. m.

David Sheedy and son Leo went to Cozad Saturday evening to spend a week or ten days with friends.

Mrs. Maggie Smith, of Bertrand, who spent a week with Mrs. A. E. Mooney, returned home Sunday morning.

Theodore Roosevelt was a passenger on train No. 20 Saturday afternoon enroute east from California.

Miss Mabel Hayes, formerly of this city, spent the week end in town and returned to Cozad Sunday evening.

Clyde McGire, of Stapleton, entered the Nurse Brown Memorial hospital last week to take medical treatment.

Mrs. Alden, of Grand Island, who spent last week with relatives in this city, left for home at noon Saturday.

After visiting Mr. and Mrs. Harry Boyle for a week, Miss Ethel Gray returned to Kearney Saturday evening.

For Farm Loans see or write Gene Crook, room 3, Waltemath building, North Platte.

Attorney W. T. Wilcox and daughter, Florence, will leave shortly for points in Ohio to spend several weeks.

Painters Distel and Sluder are spending a few days in Dickens, putting interior decorations on the bank there.

Pat Crowe is expected to return today from Des Moines, where he has been visiting his parents for two weeks.

Mrs. Beatrice Curran and daughter Adelaide left Sunday morning for the eastern part of this state to spend a month.

Mrs. J. Q. Wilcox and daughters Ruth and Cynthia went to Cozad Sunday morning to spend a week or more with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kahler, of Seward, arrived here Saturday to visit the former's brother, Henry Kahler for a few days.

Mrs. A. E. Mooney and mother, Mrs. M. A. Holtzlander, departed Sunday morning for Gothenburg to visit relatives for a week.

Oren Coherly, James Flynn, Harry Hartley and Frank Weaver went to Denver the latter part of last week to spend several days.

Miss Marie McCabe will entertain a number of young people at a dancing party tomorrow evening at her home on west Fifth street.

A party of young folks chaperoned by Mrs. D. E. Morrell and Mrs. Mose McFarland held a picnic at Sioux Lookout Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Max VonGoetz, who had been spending their honeymoon in Wyoming and Colorado, returned home Saturday morning.

Clyde Cook left Saturday evening for Evanston, Wyo., to visit friends for a week or so. Mrs. Cook has been visiting there for two weeks past.

The Yeoman lodge will hold a social at the Lloyd opera house tonight for their members. A program of readings and music will be given.

Mrs. Harry Johnston entertained the Entre Nous club the latter part of last week at cards. First prize was awarded to Mrs. H. A. Lawhead.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Opp, who had been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Frank Flint for some time, left for Wood River the latter part of last week.

O. B. Atkins returned to this city Friday evening after a year's absence in Birmingham, Alabama, and resumed work as locomotive fireman.

Miss Christina Glow, of Denmark, who was a guest at the Frederickson home last week, left Saturday morning for California to spend several weeks.

Mrs. Lading, who had been a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Brown for some time, returned to her home in Fairbury Sunday morning.

Mrs. Grace and daughter, Miss Smith, of Grand Island, have gone home after a two weeks' visit in this city with Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Thompson.

Miss Elsie Johnson, who had been attending an art school in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, came home Friday evening to spend the summer with her parents.

Contractor Winslow and his workmen returned Saturday morning from the E. B. Compe ranch, where they are building a new, modern six room house.

Miss Ruth Mylander, who has been a missionary in China for several years, came Saturday to visit her father Claus Mylander for several weeks.

Mrs. H. E. Pounds and son Teddy left for their home in Pender Sunday morning, after spending two weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Mooney.

Miss Sara Kellogg, of New York, arrived Saturday afternoon to visit her aunt Mrs. Sanford Hartman while enroute home from the San Francisco exposition.

Miss Josephine Murphy, of Lincoln, is the guest of Miss Ruth Streitz, having arrived Sunday evening to spend a couple of weeks while enroute to Estes Park.

Mrs. Stella Goodwin, of Kansas City, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. C. R. Meyers for several weeks, went to Denver Friday afternoon to spend a week.

John Korte, of Curtis, was a business visitor in the city Monday.

The Ladies' Aid of the Presbyterian church will meet in the church parlors tomorrow afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Day and daughter Elva left Saturday evening for Portland, Ore., where they will visit for a month with Mrs. Guy Robinson and Miss Mabel Day.

Yesterday morning Victor Halligan began work as reporter for the Daily Telegraph, and will gather news for four or five weeks during the absence of Everett Kendall.

Mrs. Harry Blickensderfer and daughter, of Albuquerque, who were guests at the York Hinman home last week, left Saturday afternoon for Illinois to make their home.

Luke Hart, of Omaha, a former resident of this city, came Saturday to visit his brother, James Hart, while enroute to Phoenix, Arizona, to spend several months for the benefit of his health.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hendy, Jr., and son, of Denver, arrived here Saturday evening. Mr. Hendy will leave for Detroit to spend some time on business and Mrs. Hendy will visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Bratt.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Creel, of Lewiston, Idaho, arrived here Sunday afternoon to visit the latter's aunt Mrs. George Austin, for a week while enroute home from Nova Scotia.

Mrs. D. T. Quigley and son Bart, left, of Omaha, came Saturday evening to visit her mother, Mrs. Anna Seyferth, for a week. Dr. Quigley will come up Sunday to accompany them home.

Friends in town received announcements last week of the wedding of Miss Tillie Nebolt, formerly of this city to Charles Kelly of San Francisco. Miss Nebolt went to California a year ago.

Miss Thoma Nelson left Saturday morning for her home in Ord, after a six weeks' visit here. While here she divided her time between the Hayes and Mogenson families.

G. C. Coyer and T. Cahalane, east end conductors, and their families spent Saturday in town while enroute to Denver, Colorado Springs and Boulder to spend several weeks.

E. C. Bentley left Sunday morning for Denver and Colorado Springs to spend a couple of weeks and later go to Kansas City to visit relatives, expecting to be absent a month.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Louden visited Mr. and Mrs. Newkirk in Gandy last week. They were among the earliest of pioneers on the tableland and this was their first visit there in ten years.

Perry Sutton, of Omaha, spent the latter part of last week here and left Saturday for Laramie to manage the Union Pacific hotel while the present manager is taking his summer vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Keith, who recently came here from Grand Island, have moved into the Smith house on east Fourth street. Mr. Keith has taken the position of wire chief at the telephone office.

Elizabeth Kaar-Langston, teacher of singing in the North Platte School of Music, will spend the month of August in study with F. A. Delano, of New York City, and Wheatly of the London Grand Opera Co., both of whom are in Lincoln during the summer. Mrs. Langston has closed another year of successful teaching in North Platte and will return to her work early in September.

The Mutual Building & Loan Association is prepared to issue a limited amount of its Full Paid Stock. First come first served. This stock is issued in any amount from $100.00 to $5,000.00 and pays semi-annual dividends at rate of six per cent.

A pretty social affair of Friday afternoon was the Kensington given by Mrs. York Hinman in honor of her guest, Mrs. Harry Blickensderfer, of Albuquerque. The guests composed sixty ladies who were friends of the guest of honor during her residence here. Garden flowers were used in decorating the rooms and a dainty lunch was served on small tables. During the afternoon Misses Esther Antonides and Dorothy Hinman and Mrs. Orva DeFord favored the guests with musical selections.

Mrs. Nichols Klein was the guest of honor at a surprise party at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Mary Elder yesterday afternoon. The guests were composed of the old friends and neighbors of former years and it being Mrs. Klein's seventy-eighth birthday, she received many appropriate remembrances. The afternoon was spent in sewing and social conversation. Dainty refreshments were served.

A beautiful 6 room bungalow, large pantry and cellar. 2 full lots, all fenced; nice garden and lawn; wash house; three poultry houses; large barn. These buildings are practically all new; private water plant; good location on south Maple street; small payment down, balance like rent. If you want a nice home see this. Phone 308.

For Sale

On complaint of D. E. Bruce, manager of the Nebraska House, J. D. Fellows was arrested last week for the alleged theft of twenty-five pounds of bacon. The case came up in the county court yesterday and was continued until Thursday.

Mrs. Laura Shaffer, who has been employed as saleslady at the Wilcox store for several months, will leave next week for Dickens to spend several months on her homestead.

For Sale

For Sale

For Sale

For Sale

For Sale

For Sale

For Sale

For Sale

For Sale

For Sale

For Sale

For Sale

For Sale

For Sale

For Sale

For Sale

For Sale

For Sale

For Sale

For Sale

For Sale

For Sale

Mrs. Patrick Norris and daughter Mildred, who have been visiting relatives in Logan, Iowa, for several weeks, are expected to return home Thursday evening.

Claude Delaney, C. C. Ramsdell, J. W. Adams and P. H. McEvoy went west this morning to spend a week inspecting cars which will be used for shipping small grain this season.

Mrs. Laura Shaffer, who has been employed as saleslady at the Wilcox store for several months, will leave next week for Dickens to spend several months on her homestead.

On complaint of D. E. Bruce, manager of the Nebraska House, J. D. Fellows was arrested last week for the alleged theft of twenty-five pounds of bacon. The case came up in the county court yesterday and was continued until Thursday.

Mrs. Laura Shaffer, who has been employed as saleslady at the Wilcox store for several months, will leave next week for Dickens to spend several months on her homestead.

On complaint of D. E. Bruce, manager of the Nebraska House, J. D. Fellows was arrested last week for the alleged theft of twenty-five pounds of bacon. The case came up in the county court yesterday and was continued until Thursday.

Mrs. Laura Shaffer, who has been employed as saleslady at the Wilcox store for several months, will leave next week for Dickens to spend several months on her homestead.

On complaint of D. E. Bruce, manager of the Nebraska House, J. D. Fellows was arrested last week for the alleged theft of twenty-five pounds of bacon. The case came up in the county court yesterday and was continued until Thursday.

Mrs. Laura Shaffer, who has been employed as saleslady at the Wilcox store for several months, will leave next week for Dickens to spend several months on her homestead.

On complaint of D. E. Bruce, manager of the Nebraska House, J. D. Fellows was arrested last week for the alleged theft of twenty-five pounds of bacon. The case came up in the county court yesterday and was continued until Thursday.

Mrs. Laura Shaffer, who has been employed as saleslady at the Wilcox store for several months, will leave next week for Dickens to spend several months on her homestead.

On complaint of D. E. Bruce, manager of the Nebraska House, J. D. Fellows was arrested last week for the alleged theft of twenty-five pounds of bacon. The case came up in the county court yesterday and was continued until Thursday.

Mrs. Laura Shaffer, who has been employed as saleslady at the Wilcox store for several months, will leave next week for Dickens to spend several months on her homestead.

On complaint of D. E. Bruce, manager of the Nebraska House, J. D. Fellows was arrested last week for the alleged theft of twenty-five pounds of bacon. The case came up in the county court yesterday and was continued until Thursday.

Mrs. Laura Shaffer, who has been employed as saleslady at the Wilcox store for several months, will leave next week for Dickens to spend several months on her homestead.

On complaint of D. E. Bruce, manager of the Nebraska House, J. D. Fellows was arrested last week for the alleged theft of twenty-five pounds of bacon. The case came up in the county court yesterday and was continued until Thursday.

Mrs. Laura Shaffer, who has been employed as saleslady at the Wilcox store for several months, will leave next week for Dickens to spend several months on her homestead.

On complaint of D. E. Bruce, manager of the Nebraska House, J. D. Fellows was arrested last week for the alleged theft of twenty-five pounds of bacon. The case came up in the county court yesterday and was continued until Thursday.

Mrs. Laura Shaffer, who has been employed as saleslady at the Wilcox store for several months, will leave next week for Dickens to spend several months on her homestead.

On complaint of D. E. Bruce, manager of the Nebraska House, J. D. Fellows was arrested last week for the alleged theft of twenty-five pounds of bacon. The case came up in the county court yesterday and was continued until Thursday.

Mrs. Laura Shaffer, who has been employed as saleslady at the Wilcox store for several months, will leave next week for Dickens to spend several months on her homestead.

On complaint of D. E. Bruce, manager of the Nebraska House, J. D. Fellows was arrested last week for the alleged theft of twenty-five pounds of bacon. The case came up in the county court yesterday and was continued until Thursday.

Mrs. Laura Shaffer, who has been employed as saleslady at the Wilcox store for several months, will leave next week for Dickens to spend several months on her homestead.

On complaint of D. E. Bruce, manager of the Nebraska House, J. D. Fellows was arrested last week for the alleged theft of twenty-five pounds of bacon. The case came up in the county court yesterday and was continued until Thursday.

Mrs. Laura Shaffer, who has been employed as saleslady at the Wilcox store for several months, will leave next week for Dickens to spend several months on her homestead.

On complaint of D. E. Bruce, manager of the Nebraska House, J. D. Fellows was arrested last week for the alleged theft of twenty-five pounds of bacon. The case came up in the county court yesterday and was continued until Thursday.

Mrs. Laura Shaffer, who has been employed as saleslady at the Wilcox store for several months, will leave next week for Dickens to spend several months on her homestead.

OPEN AN ACCOUNT WITH The First National Bank

NORTH PLATTE, NEBRASKA.
Member Federal Reserve Bank System.

CAPITAL AND SURPLUS:
One Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars.

STABILITY, EFFICIENCY AND SERVICE
HAVE BEEN THE FACTORS IN THE GROWTH OF THIS BANK, AND THE SAME CAREFUL ATTENTION IS GIVEN TO SMALL ACCOUNTS AS IS GIVEN TO LARGE BALANCES.

INTEREST PAID ON TIME DEPOSITS.

ESTIMATE OF EXPENSE FOR FISCAL YEAR 1915.
Committee on Finance makes the following estimate: To conduct the business of the City of North Platte, Nebraska, for the ensuing fiscal year:

BOND AND INTEREST ON BONDS.
For payment of interest on $100,000.00 Water Bonds	$ 5,000.00
For payment of interest on $25,000.00 Sewer Bonds	1,040.00
For payment of principal of one Sewer Bond, $1,000.00	1,000.00
For payment of interest on $12,000.00 Bridge Bonds	500.00
FOR GENERAL AND MISCELLANEOUS FUNDS
Streets, Sidewalks, Crossings, Etc.	$ 5,000.00
Sewer Maintenance and Flushing	3,000.00
Lighting Streets and Alleys	4,000.00
Incidental Expenses	2,000.00
To pay Salaries of Officers, Etc.	5,000.00
Library Fund	1,500.00
Park Fund	1,000.00
Municipal Highway Fund	1,000.00
Water Fund	2,000.00
Fire Fund, including Hydrant Rental	20,000.00
	5,000.00

J. H. VAN CLEAVE,
J. H. STONE,
E. W. MANN.

Committee on Finance.