UNIQUE ENTERTAINMENT BY THE N. A. T. CLUB.

One of the most unique and interesting social events of this season was the progressive party held Wednesday by the N. A. T. Club. The festivities of the day began at 10 o'clock in the morning with a bridge party at the home of Miss Mayme Pizer. For this occasion the house was decorated with sweet peas and dahlias and dainty refreshments were served. Miss Hildegard Clinton was awarded the royal prize in the games. At one o'clock the guests were conveyed to the Waltemath home where they were served with a luncheon in five courses by the Misses Helen and Alma Waltemath. The decorations were huge bouquets and hanging baskets of red honeysuckle and ferns. Place cards were cartoons of the guests with appropriate verses attached. At three o'clock the young ladies started for a two hour auto ride and returned at five to the home of Miss Virginia Bullard, where tea was served on prettily decorated tables. Garden flowers were used in abundance in decorating the dining room and hall. A six o'clock dinner was next enjoyed at the Huffman home where the hostesses were Misses Irma Huffman, Margaret Jones, Elizabeth Hinman and Hildegard Clinton. The decorations and place cards were marguerites and the color scheme of green and white carried out in serving the courses. At the home of Miss Marie McCabe at nine o'clock the guests and their gentlemen friends gathered for a dancing party. The white orchestra furnished the music and delicious refreshments were served. Garden flowers were used in profusion and the gowns of the young ladies were especially worthy of mention. After the dance the members of the club were taken to the Idding home for a slumber party and served with a sumptuous breakfast the following morning.

The City Council Meets

The city council met Tuesday evening, with all present except Councilman Porter. The city attorney was ordered to draft an ordinance asking that property owners have their walks cleared of ice and snow during the winter months, otherwise the city will take charge and tax those who refuse. A petition from several residents of the south part of town requested that the wire fence around the Ottenstein grove be removed and walks put in. This was referred to the street committee. An ordinance concerning the disposal of garbage was read for the first time and a garbage can ordered to be placed in every yard. The expense of keeping the cans empty to be met by a general levy.

Mrs. F. J. McGovern entertained a few friends at a Kensington yesterday afternoon in favor of Mrs. F. J. McDonough, of Omaha. The twelve young lady guests were composed of former friends of the guest of honor while she was a resident of this city and greatly enjoyed the renewal of friendship. Very dainty refreshments were served. An out of town guest was Miss Grace McFadden, of Sidney.

Friends in this city received word this week of the death of Robert Vance at Green River, Wyo. For a great number of years Mr. Vance was employed here in the U. P. car department and was a member of the local A. O. U. W. lodge in good standing.

The Catholic hall team played the Christian nine Wednesday evening and won by a score of 13 to 0. Stack and Hagerty were batteries for the former and Mann and Clabaugh for the Christians.
