Returns from the East.
Harry Block returned Tuesday night from a three weeks' business trip in the east, the greater part of the time having been spent in New York buying stock for the Block store. Mr. Block says business in the east is far from satisfactory, especially among the retail merchants, and that many of them lack credit with the manufacturers. The latter, however, gladly welcome the western retail merchants, for the financial standing of the western merchants is much better than those of the east. Mr. Block enroute home visited relatives at Montreal, Canada, and Syracuse, N. Y. In anticipation of good business this fall and winter Mr. Block bought a much larger stock than usual and goods are being received daily, though it will be a week or so yet before the final shipments are received.

"Alias Jimmie Valentine."
"Alias Jimmie Valentine" will be the feature attraction at the Keith theatre Saturday, August 21st. This picture in five parts, is taken from the well known play by Paul Armstrong. The quality of its story is the big thing in any picture and the quality of "Jimmie Valentine" is known. The picture is one of the kind of which there is no question of doubt. The spectator who wants the "high brow stuff" and the one who wants "low brow stuff" can generally get together on simple human stuff, and that this picture in both plot and detail furnishes richly. Robert Warwick plays the leading role "Jimmie", Ruth Shepley the girl, and John Hines and Alec Francis, the crooks. The settings of the play are such as to make it very real.

Admission 10 and 15 cents.

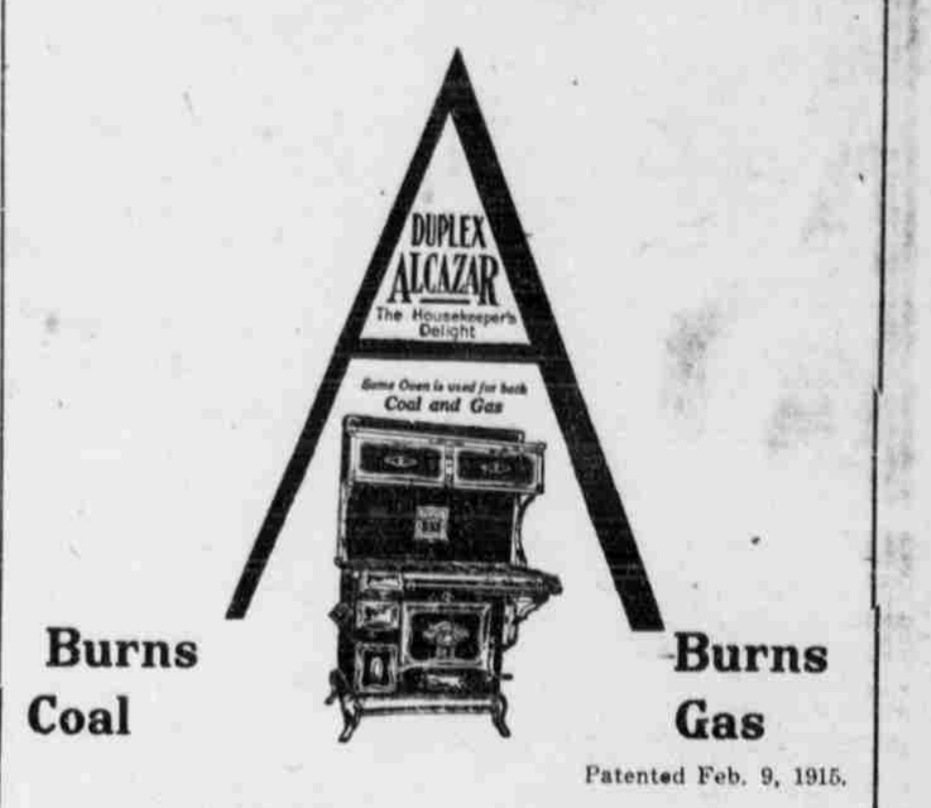

Jim Clinton who left several weeks ago for Los Angeles to attend the Elk convention and has since visited in a number of California cities is expected home next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McEvoy are the proud parents of a daughter who arrived Sunday to gladden their home.

J. W. Abbott, who was down from Hershey yesterday, says the crop of wheat south of the river is now being threshed and that the yield is excellent. Due to the wet weather, however, some of the wheat has been damaged in the shock, and this has resulted in a variance in price, some selling in Hershey at seventy cents, while the better quality has sold for ninety cents.

Union Pacific men tell of a new theft discovered in Kansas. Near Manhattan a stranger was found marketing hogs. Investigation was made and it was finally learned that the hogs offered for sale had been shipped from a point west of Manhattan to a point east. The railroad was short six hogs. Further reports showed that in the past it had frequently found cars of hogs short of the number loaded. In each instance the seal of the car would be reported as broken.

C. E. Rogers, of Central City, arrived here yesterday afternoon to take a place as catcher on the Booster ball team.
