That old democratic war horse John J. McCarthy, has been appointed postmaster at Ogallala. He was applicant for register of the local United States land office, but learning that the emoluments of that position were less than the salary of the Ogallala postoffice, he became an applicant for the postoffice and was appointed last week.

Speaking of postmasters, the North Platte office still hangs in the clouds. Both applicants, Mr. Streitz and Mr. McEvoy, seem confident of success, but there is a rumor that strong letters have been sent to Washington to the effect that for good of the party both should be dropped. In connection with this rumor is the assertion that Butler Buchanan is in a receptive mood, and is really occupying the position of a compromise candidate. Just how much there is in this rumor will develop later.

The enforcement of the health ordinance has created considerable contention, especially where parties have been hauled into court for failure to obey the instruction of Health Officer Hoagland. Property owners should not hesitate to abate any nuisance that may exist, neither should they delay in connecting with the sewer. North Platte has become somewhat of a city, and with the number of people we have nuisances are proportionately greater than when we were a smaller town. At all times the health of our people should be our first consideration.

Hunting Season Opens

The hunting season opens tomorrow and early—very early—in the morning the roads leading out of North Platte will be lined with cars carrying hunters into the country. For a couple of weeks past the hunters have made excursions into the country for the purpose of locating the birds, hence tomorrow will know just where to find them.

Chickens are said to be rather scarce, due no doubt to the rain and hailstorms which occurred shortly after the hatching season. Ducks seem to be rather plentiful on the lagoons.

Win One Lost Two

The Booster ball team returned Saturday from Eustis where they took part in the tournament. They won one game and lost two, winning a twenty-four inning game from Willow Island by a score of eight to seven, losing to Elwood thirteen to one, and losing to Cambridge five to one. After the first game the Boosters were in a crippled condition, Harold Langford having been hit in the eye by a ball, and Eddie Bright becoming seriously ill.

In the game with Willow Island thirteen innings were played to a tie Thursday afternoon, but on account of darkness the game was postponed until the following morning when it was renewed, each making three runs in the seventeenth inning, and again tying the score. Neither side again scored until the twenty-fourth inning, when the Boosters put two men over the home plate.

Nurse Brown Memorial Hospital

While on his way from Frankfort, Kansas, to Sutherland, C. W. Crandall was taken very ill and taken to the hospital last Friday morning where he is receiving medical aid. Miss Stockler, who recently located in our city, is in charge of the case.

Mrs. A. L. Thompson, of Elsie, Neb., was operated on Thursday morning.

Mrs. C. F. Yandes, who arrived here from Elsie, Neb., Monday was operated on Thursday morning.

A beautiful writing desk and chair were a gift to the hospital this week. We wish at this time to thank the many friends who have been so generous in sending us flowers during the past few weeks. The Eastern Star ladies have been most kind in remembering us each week. The flowers have all been beautiful and appreciated especially by those patients from out of town.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Beeler and Miss Myrtle spent Sunday as the guests of friends in Sutherland.

Suits for All Occasions

FOR travel, for roughing, for matinees or other occasions that require a dressy suit—the style most appropriate for it is here.

New suits that you will enthuse about are just unpacked—so advanced in idea, so splendidly made, that you can buy and wear them now, and through the winter, too, and find that at the end of the season, they will still be in the lead of the mode—still fresh-looking and perfect in shape.

Perhaps you are going away this Fall? Much of the pleasure of your trip will be in the admiring glances your fashionable new suit will bring. And even if you plan to stay at home, you will still be judged by your appearance, as you unconsciously judge others.

Briefly, you need a new suit—such as these just on display.
