Teddy Lost and Found.
Omaha News:—Teddy Weingand, 5-year-old son of Claude Weingand, prominent business man of North Flatte, Neb., late yeaterday afternoon took possession of the police station and was monarch of all he surveyed. He was found at Sixteenth and Douglas by an officer and taken to the fall while an effort was made to locate his parents. Master Teddy told Patrol Conductor Jim Murphy that he had been left in the Empress theatre while his parents were shopping.

'They told me to wait for them, but I didn't see any use of staying after the show was over," he calmiy said. After munching crackejack" for a while, Teddy informed Desk Captain Andy Patulio that he was not enjoying himself. Patulio produced a stick of chewing gum.

ing himself. Patullo produced a stick of chewing gum.

Then the youngster spied his parents as they entered.

"How do you like the police?" asked his father.

"Fine," Teddy replied. "They are good to good boys like me, but they don't like bad boys."

The editor was out over quite a number of the beet fields of the valley last Saturday afternoon with Field Manager Bryan. The beet yield will be much heavier than was anticipated on account of the unfavorable weather and so much re-planting. Many of the Belds in the valley will go is to 28 tons per acre such this year, and some of the fields that were damaged by hall will run 8 to 14 tons. The halled beets are doing surprisingly well—Hershey Times.

Get Ready for the Corn Crop

This means more than getting your equipment in first class condition for field use. How about your buildings?

Are the corn cribs and granaries in shape to take care of the crop? Make additions and repairs now, so that the work of harvest time will not be interrupted.

And it's a good time to plan your other fall construction work whether you plan any new buildings or just a few odd jobs of repair.

You can count on us for good lumber, shingles, roofing, etc., for all this work.
