SUES RAILROADS FOR FIFTY THOUSAND DOLLARS DAMAGES

Mrs. Helen Kirsch, of this city, administrator of the estate of Nelson E. Kirsch, by her attorney, Wm. E. Shuman, filed suit in the district court of this county against the Union Pacific and Oregon Short Line railroads for $50,000 damages resulting from the death of her husband, Nelson E. Kirsch. The deceased was killed at Purdy, Wyo., May 9th, 1914, while in the joint employ of the two companies as brakeman. It was in the early morning, and Kirsch, while flagging the rear end of the freight train on which he was a brakeman, was struck by a passenger train coming from the opposite direction.

Mrs. Kirsch, who was formerly Nellie Ackerman of this city, following the death of her husband, came to this city to make her home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. August Ackerman, and as a resident of the city the suit is brought in the district court of this county. The suit is brought under the federal compensation act.

Prior to going to Wyoming six or eight years ago, Mr. Kirsch had been employed as switchman in the local yards.

Pleased with the Local Schools

The October number of the Nebraska Teacher devotes a page and a half to the North Platte schools. The article is written by Deputy High School Inspector Gregory, who recently inspected the schools. He commends the several buildings and compliments the policy of the schools as inaugurated by Supt. Tont and so successfully carried out by him. Mr. Gregory concludes his article with this paragraph:

"Superintendent Tont has been supported in his efforts by a board composed of substantial business men who believe in practical things. They have stood for quality and efficiency in every department, and have held to that policy long enough to prove that it is the only right way. They have shown their fitness by securing good teachers and all the essential equipment, then expecting the superintendent and teachers to 'make good.' They work in harmony with the teachers without interfering but rather supporting their efforts.

"Get together and boost for the schools" seems to be the motto of instructors, board, patrons and pupils and with the result that North Platte is justly proud of her educational system."

Colonel Predicts Mild Winter

Colonel Jim White bases his prediction for a mild winter somewhat on the fact that there are numerous downy ducklings about the lakes this late in the season. Ducks are ducks, says the Colonel, and they are so closely allied with nature that they ought to know what they are doing when they come into the more or less civilized world when summer wanes and the honkers are due. Down through the years the Colonel has observed the prognostications of the weather ahead by the corn husks, the pump'n rinds, Hissas, and the call of the coyotes in the hills, but from now on for awhile he expects to let the birds of the air help him prophesy.—Sutherland Free Lance.

Judge Lovett, chairman of the executive committee of the Harriman lines, is in Omaha on a trip of inspection and will probably be in North Platte tomorrow. He will be accompanied by President Mohler. We trust President Mohler will show Judge Lovett our depot, explaining to him fully, its wonderful accommodations it possesses, its architectural beauty, and its all-around sanitary conditions. We are confident the Judge will agree with us that the North Platte depot is a bit—and a big one—on the otherwise perfect condition of the greatest railroad in the west.

Ira Wilson, of Brady, is in town today transacting business and made The Tribune a call.

Boston Takes Lead

In the world's series ball games between the Philadelphia Nationals and the Boston Americans, the latter has won two of the three games played. In the two games played at Philadelphia Friday and Saturday, the Phillies won the first game by a score of three to one, the Bostonians the second by a two to one score. In the game at Boston yesterday, Boston again won by a score of two to one. Alexander, the Phillies star pitcher, won the first game, but lost yesterday. It is generally conceded that the Boston team is out-playing the Quaker City team. About 20,000 attended each game in Philadelphia, and at Boston yesterday the attendance was 42,300.

Much interest is taken in the games in North Platte and bulletins by findings are received at Green's pool hall. Quite a number of bets ranging from one to ten dollars are made on each game.

Apples

A car of apples from the Glenburnie Fruit Farm on the track, including the Grimes Golden, Wine Sap, Ben Davis, Missouri Pippin. These are choice apples and free from worms. You will make no mistake in buying these apples.
76-2 DAVID HUNTER, Sutherland.

If the weather is as fine tomorrow as today, it will no doubt induce many to join the booster trip to Maywood.

Sweet clover seed is selling at $7.50 per bushel. Last year the lowest price offered was $10. The present price would indicate that the demand is not so great as last year or else the crop is much heavier.
