Barnett Raises 6,000 Bushels of Wheat.
Mr. Barnett, living on the Buchanan & Patterson land, formerly the Beer ranch, southwest of town, finished threshing his wheat Saturday. The yield was found to be 6,000 bushels. The wheat was threshed out of the stack and is of excellent quality.

Corn Show and Institute.
A corn show and farmers' institute will be held at Sutherland Tuesday and Wednesday of next week. Liberal premiums are offered for the best exhibits of stock, agricultural produce and domestic science articles.

It is probable that quite a number of North Platte people will attend if the weather is good.

Alexander Will Be Here
Grover Cleveland Alexander, pitcher for the Philadelphia National ball team, has written W. A. Rourke, of Omaha, that he will accompany the All-Star professional teams that will play in North Platte October 28th. Alexander is a Nebraska boy, his home prior to entering the big league being at St. Paul, this state. An effort will be made to have Alexander pitch in the game here so that the 2,000 fans who will attend may see him in action.

Pays Out $10,000 for Wheat.
Manager Coates, of the Coates Lumber & Coal Co., says he paid out about ten thousand dollars last week for wheat delivered at the local elevator. If the weather is fair this week, Mr. Coates expects that the amount marketed will be as large as last week.

Part of the wheat—that which had been stacked—is fine quality, while that which was threshed from the shock, or threshed before going through a sweat and not properly taken care of is poor in quality. Some of the latter is sour and musty and brings a low price.

W. B. Conklin Dies in Chicago
A telegram received in town yesterday announced the death in Chicago of Wm. B. Conklin, a former resident of North Platte who will be remembered by our older residents. Mr. Conklin came to North Platte in 1878 and accepted a position as bookkeeper in the store of T. J. Foley. He remained in this position until the First National Bank was organized, when he was given the cashiership of the institution. This he filled until 1892 when he removed to Chicago and engaged in the real estate business. His career as an agent was, however, short and he accepted a position in a bank at Austin, a suburb of Chicago. Later he became vice-president of the Prairie State Bank of Chicago, which some time after was merged with another bank. He was then elected vice president of the Northwestern State Bank, of Chicago, a position he was holding at the time the final summons came.

For several years Mr. Conklin has been in poor health, and a year or so ago came to North Platte and spent a week or two to rest up. He leaves a wife and four daughters.

Royal Neighbors Convention
The twelfth session of the Royal Neighbors of the Fifth and Sixth districts will be held in this city tomorrow. It is expected that not less than 125 visitors will be present. Three sessions will be held, the first at ten in the forenoon, the second at two in the afternoon, and in the evening at 8:30 the session will be of a social nature.

At the forenoon session the exercises will open with an invocation by H. G. Knowles, a welcome address on behalf of the city by Mayor Evans, an address of welcome on behalf of the local camp by Dr. Marie Ames, and then the transaction of business.

In the afternoon there will be an address by Mrs. Stevenson, an election of officers, initiatory work, and the installation of district officers.

For the social session in the evening the following program has been arranged: Piano solo Miss McKay, vocal solo Mrs. Edwin Burke, address Mrs. Stevenson, violin solo Wylie Walker, fancy drill by the Oshkosh camp, address by Judge French, piano solo by Miss Buchanan and a duet by young ladies.

A Woman's Regret.
Editor of The Tribune:

I feel that it is my duty to say something to the people of North Platte in regard to the wrong done Mr. Votaw and the injustice to my children. I was suffering with a nervous trouble and imagined so many things that were not true. There were a great many things said and did against Mr. Votaw, which of course was an injustice to my children. He was a good man, and loved his children and home. He perhaps made mistakes as we all do, but I had no cause for doing what I did, and have certainly longed for my home as I once had. I was advised to take my children and leave my home and cannot help feeling that all was the means of my little girl being taken from me. May God and angel girl forgive me in my prayer, and may He also forgive those who urged me on and against what they knew was right. MRS. BERTHA VOTAW.

PIANO TUNER WILL VISIT NORTH PLATTE.

Chas. C. Perry, who has been located in Grand Island for a number of years as a piano tuner, will visit North Platte regularly in the future. His first visit here will be the week beginning October 18th. Orders for his services may be left at the Rincker store.

The subjoined letter is submitted: Grand Island, Sept. 14, 1915.

To Whom It May Concern: This letter will introduce to you Mr. Chas. C. Perry, who is competent to give you the best of service in piano tuning as well as work in general. Trust him on my recommendation, as I know he has the ability and will be honest in all the departments of piano work.

Very truly to the Public,
W. E. LEONHARDT,
Tuner and Builder, Retired,
Gibson, Nebr. (Advertisement.)

Exclusive Pompadour coats

"Exclusive" is a frequently misused word. Not so here. When we say Wooltex Pompadour Coats are Absolutely Exclusive, we can show you why.

Only one woolen mill makes Pompadour cloth. Every yard of that cloth goes to the Wooltex tailors. Unless the Wooltex label is in the coat, it cannot be a Pompadour cloth coat Pompadour cloth is woven by a special process from the finest wools. It is comfortable in weight and very warm. Tailored as only Wooltex coats are tailored, these Pompadour coats are remarkably stylish and beautiful.

The six coats illustrated here are Pompadour coats—the style leaders

You will see every correct style tendency of the season in these coats—natural-figure lines that are so graceful and pleasing, the modish flare, high collars of cloth or fur, belted effects.

You will be delighted with the range of plain colors and the color combinations, as well as the variety of models.

There are subdued browns, blues and black; there are brighter colors, all so refined as to meet the approval of your good taste.

Every Pompadour coat—like every other coat that bears the Wooltex label—is tailored on Wooltex honor. See them all. The assortment is complete. There is a Wooltex coat that will just suit you.

The Permanent Hog House

No Other Building on the Farm Pays For Itself So Quickly

A Government expert says that "Good hog men average about seven pigs raised to the litter. Many do better. But the general average raised on the farm does not exceed four pigs to the litter."

This big difference is largely in the housing. The question is not so much a matter of cost as the proper design of a hog house. Many hog houses cost enough to be good, but are entirely unfit because the sun cannot shine into the pens. Sunshine and ventilation are absolutely necessary.

On the other hand, inexpensive houses often give better results than more costly ones—because of the better design.

The design is what counts. Here's where we can help you.
