THE HUB.

Shaffer Displaced.

Captain C. W. Shaffer, chief of the aviation corps of the Nebraska National Guard, has been deposed and is succeeded by Captain Ralph McMillan. Shaffer is the fellow who came here to make flights during the county fair, but for various reasons could not get his machine in shape. He promised to make a flight later, but could not make good his promise. Two weeks ago Shaffer was to have made flights at the Gage county fair, but he failed to carry out his contract, and this with his other failures caused General Hall to retire him as chief aviator of the Guards.

Kennedy Visits North Platte.

John L. Kennedy, of Omaha, was a visitor in town Wednesday and left yesterday morning for Maywood where he made an address at the fair. Mr. Kennedy is a candidate for the republican nomination for United States senator at the 1916 primary election. He has been a resident of Omaha since 1882 and is one of that city's most prominent attorneys and business men. A number of years ago he served one term in congress and made an excellent record. Mr. Kennedy has spent the past ten days in western Nebraska making addresses at fairs and other public gatherings.

Boston Wins Series.

The Boston American ball team won the world series from the Philadelphia Nationals Wednesday when it defeated its opponents by five to four score and won its fourth straight game. In the concluding game which was played at Philadelphia the Phillies made two errors in the first inning and hopes among their supporters ran high. Boston scored one in the second and one in the third, tying the score, but the Phillies came back with two in the fourth. The score was again tied by Boston in the eighth and the latter made the winning run in the ninth when Hooper made a home run.

PIANO TUNER WILL

VISIT NORTH PLATTE.

Chas. C. Perry, who has been located in Grand Island for a number of years as a piano tuner, will visit North Platte regularly in the future. His first visit here will be the week beginning October 18th. Orders for his services may be left at the Rincker store.

The subjoined letter is submitted:

Grand Island, Sept. 14, 1915.

To Whom It May Concern:

This letter will introduce to you Mr. Chas. C. Perry, who is competent to give you the best of service in piano tuning as well as work in general. Trust him on my recommendation, as I know he has the ability and will be honest in all the departments of piano work.

Very truly to the Public,

W. F. LEONHARDT,
Tuner and Builder, Retired,
Gibbon, Nebr. (Advertisement.)

The Game of the All-Stars.

October 28th will bring a big crowd of people to North Platte to see the game of ball between teams of the National League and the American Association. In surrounding towns much interest is being manifested in the coming game, as all fans are anxious to see the big leaguers in action. In these teams are to be found the stars of the big leagues, and we are assured that in the game to be played at North Platte will be represented men who have national reputations as ball players—in other words the teams that will play will be composed of as strong players as those who appear in the Omaha, Lincoln or Grand Island games.

Hog Sale

On Wednesday, November 10th, we will sell 70 head of improved hogs, about half Polands and half Durocs, 30 head are boars and weighing from 125 to 300 pounds, 40 head are open gilts of about the same weight. These pigs are purely bred with the best mating possible, a uniform lot of long stretchy fellows, with well arched backs, good feet, neat heads and as much bone as an alfalfa range pig can possibly develop.

After the hog sale, we will sell 6 Holstein and 2 Guernsey heifers, those not fresh, soon will be. We will also sell 10 pure bred Red Polled bulls. Those wishing cows fresh in the fall will need them at this time.

The sale will be held on the farm 4 miles west of Lexington. Take the local to Market which is on the farm, and sale will be out in time to take the local back. If interested send for circular.
