

CITY AND COUNTY NEWS.

The best work shoes for men, the Red Wing Shoe, at The Leader.

F. Ousterhout left the first of this week for Omaha to take treatment for his eyes.

For Rent—Eight room house and bath at 510 west Fifth street. Inquire of Mrs. M. E. Watts, 316 west Fifth.

Miss Mae Winters has returned to Oshkosh after a short visit with her sister, Mrs. Earl Lambert.

New Fall Suits still arriving daily and we are offering them at greatly reduced prices. BLOCK'S.

S. L. Irvine and family, of Gering, spent a few days here while enroute home from eastern towns.

Mrs. Ralph Smith returned Tuesday evening from Kearney where she visited relatives the first of the week.

Fur Trimmings by the yard at The Leader.

Mrs. G. Sessler, of Chicago, arrived the first of the week to visit her sister Mrs. Van Zimmerman for two or three weeks.

Louis Lierk, of Omaha, came here the first of the week to attend the funeral of his brother, the late Chas. Lierk, Sr.

Harry and Luther Amen, formerly of the Gettman cigar factory, left a few days ago for Hastings where they will locate.

Dr. O. H. Cressler and family have returned from Kearney, where the former attended the Northwestern Nebraska Dental meeting.

Miss Ila Martin, formerly of this city, now living at Bayard, spent a few days here this week before visiting her sister in Wallace.

Mrs. C. P. Alden, of Lincoln, who visited Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Alden for a week, left Wednesday afternoon for Grand Island to visit relatives.

Men's Union Suits at 65 cents and up at The Leader.

The Royal Neighbor social club will meet with Mrs. Stegeman, 1293 north Locust, next Tuesday afternoon. All Royal Neighbors and their friends are invited.

We can show you the best Suit or Coat from $12.50 to $25.00 in western Nebraska. Don't take our word for it, but come in and be convinced. BLOCK'S.

For Sale—Pure bred Duroc Jersey spring boars and gilts, all eligible to registry. Prices right. Inquire or address, Blankenburg Bros., 1805 North Locust street, North Platte, Neb. 79-4.

Edward N. Roth, of Crook, and Grace Vogler, of Chicago, were married Wednesday by County Judge French in the presence of H. E. Zehr and Mrs. N. E. Zehr, of Chappell.

Visitors from Dickens Wednesday were Messrs. Jess Fitch, George Griffith, Joseph Pielsticker, Charles Thomas, Maurice Buckley and Jack Ballard.

The senior class of the Sterling high school sent an invitation to the local high school foot ball team for an entertainment in their honor at Sterling this evening.

The Elite Kensington club met with Mrs. Will Baskins Tuesday afternoon and the hostess was presented with a hand painted cup and saucer. Nice refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon. The club will be entertained in two weeks by Mrs. A. H. McMullen.

Men's Suits from $8.50 up at The Leader.

A. F. Streitz left Wednesday morning for Omaha to spend a few days.

Scott Reynolds left the first of this week for Omaha with a car of cattle.

Miss Irma Bradley has resigned her position at the Dickey confectionery store.

F. E. Bullard left yesterday for Omaha to spend a few days on business.

New Wool Scarfs, the craze of the season, in all shades, now shown at BLOCK'S.

Mrs. George Shaffer went to Keystone Wednesday morning to spend several days with friends.

Harry Block returned Tuesday evening from a short business visit in Grand Island and Hastings.

Manley Garwood returned to Sidney Wednesday evening after visiting with the Luther Owens family for a week.

Miss Anna Lyons, of Corning, Ia., arrived here Wednesday evening to make her home with Mrs. M. E. Watts.

Ladies', Misses and Children's Dresses, greatest variety in town at absolutely the lowest prices, at The Leader.

Short Rubber Boots, long hip boots, boys' rubber boots at The Leader.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Lute and children of Paxton, are spending a few days here this week, while enroute to Omaha.

Miss Focia Jesson returned Wednesday evening from Grand Island where she visited the home folks for several days.

Frank Olcott and A. A. Hotchkiss left Wednesday morning for Whalen, Wyo., to spend the remainder of the week on business.

The celebrated Collins health underwear, all-wool, the finest made, and guaranteed to give satisfaction. For sale by The Leader.

Mrs. H. A. Moore and two children of Los Angeles, who visited Mrs. Thomas Moore for several weeks, returned home yesterday morning.

Mrs. Charles Ell and niece Miss Edith Howland left yesterday morning for Topeka, Kan., and other eastern points to spend several weeks.

Miss Lillian Bechan has resumed her duties at the Dickey confectionery store after a vacation of one month which she spent with the home folks at Hershey.

Mrs. Charles Adams has returned from Omaha where she recently submitted to an operation for appendicitis, from which she is recovering satisfactorily.

Miss Anna Welsh entertained a number of young people at a birthday party Wednesday evening. A series of games were played and very enjoyable refreshments served.

Don't forget The Leader is selling Ladies' Plush Coats, sizes 16 to 46, with a guaranteed satin lining, for $15 which cannot be duplicated at wholesale. THE LEADER.

Mrs. Wm. Landgraf, Sr., returned home Wednesday from Wilber, Neb., where she was called recently by the death of her brother-in-law the late Henry Wacker who had frequently visited here.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Boyden, of Stanton, who visited the Misses Dulcie and Thelma Frater this week while enroute home from Denver, left Wednesday evening.

Corbin Jones will leave the first of next week for Omaha to spend a week or longer.

Mrs. Harry Moore resigned her position in the Plock alteration department a few days ago and is succeeded by Miss Able of Hastings who arrived here Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Elsie Schram who has been visiting relatives in Columbus for a month is expected to return today. She will be accompanied home by her cousin Miss Evelyn Schram who will make an extended visit here.

Honest watch repairing and the repair of delicate jewelry is our specialty. Our workmen are highly skilled in their profession. You will be satisfied if you entrust your repair work to our department. DIXON, the Jeweler.

John E. Evans received a telegram Wednesday evening stating that his brother-in-law W. S. Morlan, the prominent lawyer of McCook, was very low in Chicago. Mr. Morlan is suffering with stomach trouble and went to Chicago ten days ago for treatment.

Mrs. A. J. Frazier entertained the J. F. F. club Tuesday afternoon. In the card games Mrs. Glen Mann was awarded first prize. Guests of the club were Mesdames Tim O'Keefe, Ray Snyder, John McDonald and Robert Weir. A delicious lunch was served in two courses.

Louis Lierk, of Omaha, who was called here by the death of his brother Chas. Lierk, is spending a few days visiting old-time friends in Medicine precinct. Mr. Lierk homesteaded in 1884 and lived there until five years ago when he went to Omaha to live a retired life, having amassed sufficient wealth while farming in Lincoln county to make this possible.

The initial meeting for this season of the 500 Club was held Tuesday evening at the Ray C. Langford home, with Mrs. Langford and Mrs. Harry Dixon as the hostesses. Sickness and absence kept several members from attending and only six tables were placed for the games. Room decorations were yellow chrysanthemums and baskets of verbenas. At the close of the games a very enjoyable two-course lunch was served.

The funeral services of the late Charles Lierk, Sr., were held at the Lutheran church Tuesday afternoon. Many friends and the I. O. O. F. and M. W. A., of which the deceased was a member, attended. Rev. Harman delivered an impressive sermon and the choir rendered appropriate music. The floral offerings were very beautiful and showed the high esteem in which the deceased was held. Interment was made in the North Platte cemetery and the remains accompanied to their last resting place by a large concourse of sorrowing friends. The pallbearers were Messrs. Fred Wendeborn, Claude Weingand, E. T. Tramp, Fred Frederickson, Albert Schlitz and T. M. Cohagen.

THE LOTUS "ROOMS"

Steam Heat, Running Hot and Cold Water in all the rooms. Prices Reasonable.

Corner 6th and Locust St. MRS. C. F. JOHNSTON, Prop.

WILCOX Department Store.

Below is a style announcement from the November Ladies' Home Journal and the current issue of Vogue.

In this city, ours is

The Store That Sells Wooltex

Don't Hesitate About That Coat

Walk into The Store That Sells Wooltex.

Have a comfortable chair.

Ask for a Pompadour Coat.

Feel the fabric.

Note its softness—character—color.

It is exclusive—made only for the Wooltex Tailors and not to be found in other coats.

Even before you put it on, you will be attracted by the lining, the excellence of the workmanship, the exquisitely genteel design, the refinements in the new style features of collar, pockets, belt and skirt—all correct.

Here's a coat that is made for comfortable wearing—for permanency of style—for long and increasing satisfaction and for thorough dependability.

It is one of a collection of six Pompadour models.

It is one of many Wooltex tailored coats.

Wooltex Coats are priced at $16.50 to $55; Suits at $25 to $75; Skirts at $5 to $15, at

The Store That Sells Wooltex

Berating an employee who was slow, a local business man wound up rather scathingly, "go over to the cemetery and watch the snails whiz by."

Miss Alice Gilchrist, of Omaha, who has been the guest of Dr. and Mrs. V. Lucas, while enroute home from western points, will leave the first of next week.

Jerry Bowen, who has been conducting a drug store at Arthur for several months, came down the first of the week to visit relatives and left this morning.

North Platte now possesses very few men who take their physical exercise by watching other men work; in other words the number of unemployed men in town is smaller than usual.

I have a splendid assortment of dress hats all trimmed in the latest novelties. Also a fine line of trimmed hats for $4.00 and $5.00. Miss Whitaker at the Wilcox Dept. Store. 79-2

Mesdames Roy Scoonover and Whitney Dean, of New York, who were the guests of the Pennington and Goldsmith families, left Tuesday evening.

For Sale—Five room cottage at 509 west Fifth street. Good out-buildings, nice lawn and trees, sewer connection, electric lights, sidewalk and curbing. For price and terms apply to Louis Peterson. 79-2*

For Sale Fine Lawn Manure. Inquire of Joe Spies, Phone Black 161. 73-8*

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Clarence Vroman and son visited in Sutherland Wednesday.

Miss Maud Loudon, of Paxton, came down yesterday morning to visit her brother Earl Wilson.

Wanted—Two unfurnished rooms for light housekeeping in private home. Call Red 841. 79-1*

Wm. Connelly, of Omaha, formerly of this city, is spending a few days in town this week on business.

Don't fail to see our new line of Silk Petticoats, in all the wanted shades and combinations. BLOCK'S.

Mrs. A. E. Hamilton, of Omaha, who visited Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hamilton this week, returned home yesterday afternoon.

Frank Coker and Clarence Toller, two prominent residents of Sutherland, are transacting business in town this week.

O. K. Smith, cashier of the Brainard bank, is spending a few days here on business connected with the Henry Shultz estate.

Charles Schaffer and Miss Elma Little, of Willard, were married Wednesday afternoon in this city by County Judge French.

Lost.

Seven jewel, Elgin works, twenty-year gold hunting case watch, broken crystal. Finder please return to Tribune office and receive reward. 78-2*

Infants' long and short white coats just arrived. A large assortment. Prices from one dollar up. THE LEADER.

P. H. McEvoy has returned from Omaha where he was called this week by the condition of his daughter Laura who is ill in a hospital there.

For Rent—On east Tenth street, one four room and one six room house, both with basement. Phone Red 540. 78-4*

The county commissioners were in session Tuesday, the greater part of the time being devoted to the consideration of road matters.

Mrs. James Stafford and mother Mrs. Frank McFadden, of Paxton, came a few days ago to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Omar Huff for several days.

Missionary Scott, who has been ill for some time was taken to Tamora yesterday for treatment. He was accompanied by his sister, Mrs. Bayles.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moran, of Lead, S. D., who have been visiting the former's sister Mrs. Joseph Filion, Sr., for two weeks, will leave today.

The dwelling in the south part of town known as the Bangs house was sold this week to John Raynor, who is moving it to a lot in his addition in the northwest part of town.

For Sale Cheap. The two-story building back of the McDonald clothing store. See Ottenstein, or phone 258. 71H*

THE BANK OF GUARANTEED DEPOSITS

THE DANGER POINT

In every man's business affairs there comes times when care and good judgment are essential to his continued success.

Ready money in the bank smooths out many a business wrinkle.

You can largely protect your own success and be prepared to meet the danger points by having your own bank account and "ready money in this Bank."

Platte Valley State Bank,

4 per cent Interest On Time Deposit. North Platte, Nebraska.

There's No Place Like Home

Especially if it's your own home built after your own ideas and just to suit you.

Every Man Should Build Something During His Lifetime

You take more pride and satisfaction in something of your own creation.

BUILD SOMETHING AND SEE US FOR Lumber and Building Material

Coates Lumber and Coal Co.

The Home of Good Coal. Phone 7.

Money to Loan ON FARMS AND RANCHES

Lowest Rates and Best Terms. Plenty of Money on hand to Close Loans Promptly.

Buchanan & Patterson

THE COLD WEATHER GASOLINE

POWER IN EVERY DROP

YOUR car won't mind the weather if Red Crown—the gasoline of quality—is in the tank. Red Crown makes quick starting in cold weather.

Red Crown GASOLINE

Red Crown keeps your carburetor "put."

At Garages Everywhere

STANDARD OIL COMPANY (NEBRASKA)