A Duty We Owe the Community.

"I am opposed to issuing more bonds for school houses; I am paying about $20 per year now for the support of the schools, and have no children in school—more bonds and more taxes mean a burden to me." Thus remarked a man to The Tribune editor. This man, we learned, after we had conversed with him, had at one time five children in our schools. Two graduated, two quit school at the close of the ninth grade, the other at the close of the tenth. These five children attended school a total of fifty-two years—two attended twelve years each, two nine years each and one ten years. The cost per pupil of operating the North Platte schools has never been below $20 per year, hence the schooling of this man's children cost the district not less than $1,040—this figure, in fact, is about $100 below the actual cost. The period covered by these children in school was nearly twenty years. If this man paid a school tax of $20 per year, during that period—he did not, however, average $20 per year—he paid as his share of his children's education $90. This left a balance of $640 that other people paid to educate his children. To make up this $640 this man must continue to pay $20 per year for thirty-two years—which is longer than he will live. Certainly this man should be one of the biggest boosters for a new school building, instead of being opposed. Other people having helped educate his children, is it not only fair that he should help to educate the children of others?

Contrast this man's selfishness with those tax-payers who have not had children in school for a dozen years yet are continually boosting for better schools—paying taxes cheerfully that the children of the community may receive a liberal education and thus be better fitted for life's work. They consider that this course is a duty they owe the community; that to do otherwise would be against good citizenship.

We have over 1400 school children in the district, we want every child to receive the best education it is possible to give at our hands and as good citizens we will contribute the necessary funds without complaint.

In the election on December 7th to vote $50,000 for a junior high school building there should not be an opposing vote cast.

Defeat Woman's Suffrage.

Overwhelming defeat of woman suffrage in New York, Massachusetts and Pennsylvania; election of a democratic governor in Maryland to succeed a republican, and a republican governor in Massachusetts to succeed a democrat; a gain of one republican representative (from New York) in congress in the filling of four vacancies; a close contest for the governorship in Kentucky, with the democratic candidate, leading on incomplete returns, and the defeat of prohibition in Ohio, are features of the elections in ten states Tuesday. In New York the proposed new state constitution was rejected by a majority of approximately 400,000.

New York denied woman's plea for the ballot by a majority of approximately 200,000. Massachusetts' vote against suffrage showed a majority of 132,082. Pennsylvania's returns were slow in coming in, but indicated that the majority against suffrage would be less than first figures indicated. Estimates based on incomplete returns forecast defeat of the amendment by from 50,000 to 60,000.

Tammy Hall triumphed in New York City by the election of a district attorney for the first time in fifteen years, the sheriff of New York county and a majority of the board of alderman.

Stearns-Johnson Wedding.

A pretty home wedding took place Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Johnson in the Fourth ward when their daughter Margaret was united in marriage to Albert Stearns of Stapleton. Rev. Crum performed the ceremony in the presence of one hundred guests.

Miss Edith Peters played the wedding march and Miss Violet Steele was maid of honor.

The bride and her attendant both wore gowns of pale blue mossaline with lace overdrap and trimmings of chiffon. The bridal bouquet was of lilies and the maid carried white roses. Rex Stearns, a brother of the groom acted as best man.

A sumptuous wedding supper was served and the numerous gifts displayed in one of the smaller rooms.

Mr. and Mrs. Stearns left yesterday afternoon for their new home in Stapleton and where a dance and supper will be given by the groom's parents tomorrow evening.

The groom is a prosperous young farmer and the bride a very amiable young lady whose many friends extend congratulations.

National Secretary Gives Lecture.

Secretary Gibson, of the National American Pet Stock Association, gave a lecture Tuesday evening to members of the Lincoln County Poultry and Pet Stock Assn. at the M. C. Rodger's store. In his talk Mr. Gibson advocated the breeding of pure bred stock. He was well pleased with the stock he saw in North Platte. He was enroute to the pet stock show at the Panama exposition where he will officiate as judge. Omaha and North Platte were the only stops he made enroute to the coast, showing that the Lincoln county association though only in its second year is known as far east as Detroit, Mich., the home of Mr. Gibson.

M. Sundheimer transacted business in Ogallala Wednesday.
