Owing to Wheelock's absence from town, the warrant issued had not up to last evening been served.

Bondsmen Want Parmlee.

Seven well known farmers and stockmen living north of the river are anxious to know the whereabouts of Robert Parmlee. They are interested in him to the extent of having signed an appearance bond for $2,000 which they must make good if Parmlee fails to put in appearance, and this the bondsmen are fearful he will not do.

At a late term of district court Parmlee was convicted of rape, Minnie Thede being the complaining witness. Parmlee took an appeal to the supreme court, but to do this he was required to furnish a bond of $2,000.

Having worked on the Henry Hansen ranch, Parmlee was well acquainted with residents of the north side, and through this acquaintance succeeded in getting seven of them to go on the bond. For some time past Parmlee had been working for Derryberry & Forbes, but two weeks ago, after receiving on a Saturday night his week's pay, he vamoosed without intimating to his employers that he would not be on hand the following Monday morning. Where Parmlee went or where he is now located is not known, and to ascertain his whereabouts circulars will be distributed offering a reward for his return.

Roche, of Davenport, Ia., C. G. Hall, of Santa Ana, Calif., and E. J. Huntington, of Burkett, Neb.

A program including responses from members has been arranged, and following the exercises a supper will be served.

Hunters Have Success.

Wild fowl hunters have been having fairly good success this week on the North Platte river. Messrs. Woods and Ackerman brought in twenty geese and a number of ducks, and Charles Thornburg and the Shultz boys sent down nine geese from their camp near Keystone which they killed Monday. Geese have just commenced to arrive from the north, and a little stormy weather would drive them south in big numbers. Ducks are very plentiful along the North river from Keystone west to Oshkosh.

Municipal Christmas Tree.

At a special meeting of the Twentieth Century club held Tuesday evening plans for a municipal Christmas tree were made and a committee appointed to make the necessary arrangement. It was also decided to donate a Victrola to the ward schools and Mrs. J. L. Roddy, Mrs. M. E. Scott and Misses Annie Kramph and Emma Smith were selected to take charge of the purchasing of the same. ## Beet Harvest About Finished.

Field Manager John Bryan informs us the beets will be cleaned up in his territory by the middle of next week, the weather permitting. The weather for beet harvesting has been unusually favorable so far this season and the growers have taken advantage of every minute. When you take into consideration the returns for beets will amount to nearly $100,000 to the growers in this district this year it must be admitted the beet industry is becoming a crop factor. Next year will see many more hundreds of acres planted to beets.—Hershey Times.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Fuller, of Omaha, who have been visiting the latter's sister, Mrs. Charles McNamara for a couple of weeks, will leave for home tomorrow morning.

Mrs. Joseph Spies returned Tuesday evening from Kearney, where she was called by the illness of her son John last week.

Reduction in Flour

Kindly note the following reductions in prices on flour:

Puritan Flour per sack . . . . . $1.60
Oriole Flour per sack . . . . . $1.50

This reduction in price does not mean a corresponding reduction in quality, because we will continue to keep the quality up as always.

It is our ambition to be first in quality, first in value and first in service.
