Death of Mrs. Harold Wright

Mrs. Harold Wright died at eleven o'clock Tuesday morning at her home on east Ninth street.

For a number of years she had been affected with leakage of the heart and was subject to frequent spells of intense pain and suffering, all of which she bore with wonderful patience. The services of a number of physicians and the care of trained nurses were added to the ministrations of loving relatives and a devoted husband.

Several times during the past year her condition became alarming and on Thursday of last week when the attack came, her weakened condition could not withstand the strain that the system was called upon to bear, and surrounded by those who were near and dear to her she passed away.

Mrs. Wright was formerly Miss Bessie Bundy, the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Greeley Bundy, and was born in this city on October 11th, 1892.

Previous to her marriage to Harold Wright on December 26th, 1913, she was a faithful employe of this office, a conscientious worker and amiable companion. Her sunny disposition and thoughtfulness of others endeared her to a large circle of friends who are grieved to learn of her early death. She was a member of the Episcopal choir, former Girls' Friendly Society and Ladies Auxiliary of the B. of R. T.

To mourn her are left her husband, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Greeley Bundy, three sisters, Mrs. Dee Raney, of Wallace, Mrs. Allen Waugh and Elaine of this city, two half brothers George Hayes, who resides here and Lewis Hayes of Green River, Wyo.,

The funeral services were held at the Church of Our Saviour yesterday afternoon at half past three and the seating capacity was taxed by the number of sorrowing friends who attended the service. The assembly club and B. of L. F. & E. occupied places which were reserved for them. Mrs. Harry Cramer sang "Face to Face" and Dean Bowler gave a consoling sermon. Hymns were sung by the choir. Many beautiful flowers covered the casket. Pall bearers were Mesdames P. A. Norris, E. M. Smith, Harry Williams, Misses Maul Owens, Minnie Lowe and Margaret Craigie.

Antonides Expands Business. D. J. Antonides, the North Locust street hardware and implement dealer, finds his business growing to such an extent that more room is a necessity. He has therefore leased the new building which Mr. Hansen is completing on the lot south of the Antonides store, and will use both rooms. This gives him 44x80 feet floor space, and provides an opportunity to increase as well as better display his stock. The new room will be ready for occupancy in about thirty days.

There are seventeen firms or individuals engaged in business on the north side and their volume of trade is constantly increasing.

To My Customers The burning of my barn places me in a condition where I badly need all money due me, and I trust that those indebted to me will fully realize my unfortunate position and promptly pay the amount due. In the past I have favored you by giving you credit; will you not now favor me by paying me promptly the money you owe me. JULIUS MOGENSEN.

After figuring out all expenses one of our influential farmers says he made $32 per acre on his beets, and he had in over a hundred acres. What other crop will produce this amount of money, when you have an occasional hail storm and late spring, such as we had this year, in this territory?—Hershey Times.

Harry Cramer, who has been stationed at Grover, Wyo., for several weeks, came home yesterday to visit his family.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Plummer and daughter Alice, of Maxwell, were the guests of Arthur Plummer and mother this week.
