SPLENDID PROGRAM RENDERED

AT ELKS' MEMORIAL

There was a large attendance at the Elks' memorial service Sunday afternoon and the program rendered was splendid, in fact it was generally pronounced to have been the best of recent years. Dean Bowker delivered a most earnest address on "Immortality;" an appeal for a noble, Godly life, so that death might be considered but an incident and without fear—the gateway to the life eternal.

The music was a feature of the meeting, including three selections by the Stamp orchestra, three selections by the Elks' quartette, an exceptionally well rendered solo by Miss Trovillo and a solo by E. H. Kendall. Miss O'Hare was accompanist for Miss Trovillo and Miss McKay for Mr. Kendall. Many of the Elks attending were accompanied by their ladies.

Diamonds worth many thousands of dollars were on display in a window of the Dixon store Saturday and attracted the attention of all passers-by. Bracelets, neck pieces and pins worth up to $1500 each were prominent, there were rings valued at from $300 to $1,000, and unmounted stones that were worth a wagon load of one dollar bills. It was certainly a handsome display of precious stones. Mr. Dixon reports the sales for the day very large. The stock was exhibited and offered for sale through the courtesy of a New York firm.

The Senior class held a pre-nuptial miscellaneous shower at the home of Harold Burke Saturday evening. The guest of honor was Miss Hulda Welborn who will be married after graduation to a ranchman of Durango, Colo. The evening was pleasantly spent in playing games. A nicely prepared lunch was served.

Eyes make or mar a face; the other features may be ever so comely, yet a pair of weak, red inflamed or twitching eyes will spoil its beauty. Properly adjusted glasses will relieve most of these troubles by removing the cause. HARRY DIXON, Jeweler and Optometrist, west side of Dewey street, North Platte, Neb.

Miss Ruth Loan entertained the members of her Sunday school class at a juvenile party last evening. A number of contests and games made up a pleasant evening. Nicely prepared refreshments were served.

Miss Gertrude Hurd, who has been in charge of the McVicker millinery, will leave this week for Kansas City.

BRICK LIVERY BARN BURNS SUNDAY NIGHT.

North Platte had another disastrous fire—the third within three weeks—Sunday night when the brick barn on east Front street was practically destroyed. Thirteen horses perished, and harness, hay grain and other equipment were consumed. The building was owned by Mrs. John Bratt and the business was conducted by Noble & Pyzer.

Twelve of the thirteen horses burned were the property of the firm, the other belonged to Martin Magnuson, who lives south of the river. The building was valued at $4,000 on which there was an insurance of $2,500. The Noble & Pyzer loss will be not less than $2,000, partly covered by insurance.

The fire originated in the hay loft about 11:15, and three men connected with the barn had closed the doors, had gone to bed and were asleep. A traveling man who had come in on a night train and was going to the Timmerman hotel was the first to observe smoke issuing from the windows. He gave the alarm, which attracted others and the sleeping men were awakened. An attempt was made to get out the horses, but the flames had gained such headway that this was impossible. When the firemen arrived the upper portion of the building was a mass of fire, and their efforts were confined largely to saving a rear building covered with corrugated iron and the buildings adjacent. Only the brick walls of the main building remain standing.

This is the second time a livery barn on this site has been destroyed, a frame building having burned in 1886. At one time the leading hotel in the city—the Cedarhouse—occupied the site. The property was deeded to Mrs. Bratt by her father when she was but a child, and she had continued in possession all these years.

Bond Election Today.

North Platte is having a school bond election today, the proposition being to issue fifty thousand for a junior high school. No campaign for the bonds has been made, and up to eleven o'clock the vote cast was very light. It is expected that quite a number of women will cast their ballots this afternoon, this being an election at which women who have children of school age or who have property assessed in their own name can vote.

It is anticipated that the vote cast will be light compared with the total voting strength, but that the bonds will carry by a good majority. It is the duty, however, of all interested in the welfare of the schools to go to the polls and vote for the bonds.

A Correction.

In Friday's issue it was stated that the second floor of the new Morsch building on Locust street has been leased by the City Hospital. It should have read the North Platte General Hospital at present located in the Fourth ward. The officers of this institution signed a three-year lease Saturday evening, and will take possession as soon as the building is completed.

The Indian Card Club will be entertained tomorrow afternoon by Mrs. J. F. Clabaugh.
