PATRICK HENRY MCEVOY AS NOW POSTMASTER.

The commission of P. H. McEvoy as ostmaster of North Platte was reeived Sunday, a formal transfer of he office was made yesterday and today Mr. McEvoy assumes the duties of the office. The only employe of the office which Mr. McEvoy has the power to appoint is the deputy, and Loren Sturges, who has so capably filled that position will be retained. All other employes hold office under the civil ervice and can only be removed fo iolation of rules. Mr. Davis organ zed the postoffice force in an excepionally efficient manner and the serice has been first class.

Mr. Davis retires after nearly five cars of service, retaining the offic en months after his four-year com nission expired. Every patron of the ffice will give him credit for his care 'ul, painstaking work in his desire t give the best possible service to th public. During his administration h took the initiative in having two new rural routes established; he recommended and was authorized to expend several thousand dollars on improve ments to the federal building; he se cured a branch office in the Fourt ward; in fact Mr. Davis was always alert in looking after matters that would tend to increase the efficiency of the service, better accommodate th public and add to the prestige of the North Platte office. He retires with the good-will and best wishes of all. The Tribune congratulates Mr. Mc Evoy upon his accession to the postmastership and feels confident that the efficiency maintained by Mr. Davis will be maintained.

from tubercular or similar disease. In these days of demands for sanitation and pure foods, it is well that dairymen have their herds inspected for tuberculosis, for it is a well known fact that the product of milch cows so infected is dangerous to the consumer. Mr. Haspel desires to give his customers pure milk and cream, free from disease-breeding germs and to this end had his herd inspected and tested at a considerable expense to himself.
