

$500 Dollars for 500 Persons

Our New Savings Department is Now Open. We are going to give away $500. Will you get yours? You'll have to act at once. Our offer is good for 10 days, Feb. 29 to March 9, 1916.

READ THIS LETTER THAT TELLS THE DOLLAR STORY

To the Board of Directors,
The Platte Valley State Bank,
North Platte, Nebraska.

Gentlemen:

Thrift of its people is the basis of the success of every community; and it is strictly within the province of the community's banks to encourage thrift, and the thought occurs to me that the following proposition might meet with your approval and I trust it will. My plan is this:

That for ten days for every one of the first 500 NEW SAVINGS ACCOUNTS with a deposit of $1.00 or more to be left in the bank for a period of not less than one year, said deposit to be made on or before March 9th, The Platte Valley State Bank contribute to the depositor $1.00, the number of depositors from any one family to be unlimited, and no restrictions to be placed upon age.

In fact, my principal object is to encourage deposits from the young.

I have in mind an officer of a bank in Chicago who made a practice of paying out of his own pocket the sum of $2.00 for a savings bank book each time he felt like making a gift to the child of a friend or relative. As a result of this practical encouragement, a large number, many of them in swaddling clothes, took their first steps in thrift.

If you care to consider this proposition, which I wish strongly to recommend, I have no doubt it will do so in our community, and the result will be beneficial both to the younger generation who are soon to succeed us, and to the community generally.

Yours truly,
F. C. PIELSTICKER,
President.

Dated Feb. 25, 1916.

Directors Say "Yes"

The Directors of the Bank have accepted the proposition suggested by President Pielsticker. They desire to make the Platte Valley State Bank of real value and assistance to every person in North Platte and vicinity.

No String Tied to Offer

There is nothing mysterious about this offer. It means just what it says—an earnest effort to induce the young and

We are anxious and desirous of contributing that sum, if it will induce any considerable number of persons to acquire the saving habit.

How to Get Your Dollar

Come to the Platte Valley State Bank between February 29 and March 9, 1916, the sooner the better—hand a dollar or more to the cashier and tell him you want one of our dollars to place with yours. He will then hand you a little book—a Savings Bank Book. In that book you will be credited with a deposit of $2. Leave it there and add a little to it every week or every month. Every six months the interest it has earned will be added to it. It is all yours—the dollar we contribute, your dollar, and everything else you may have added.

Mr. Wage Earner

If you have 10 children in your family, you are at liberty to start 10 Savings Accounts and you will receive $10 from the 500 dollars to be given away by us. No matter how many or how few children you have or how young or how old, each one of them who has not a savings account in this bank will be given $1 to start a Savings Account if you will merely take the time to call at the bank and tell the Cashier that you desire to accept our savings offer.

It Is Up To You

Start now and do your part—the Bank will do its part by paying you interest on your money.

the old to save weekly or monthly some small sum—whether it be 25c, 50c or $1 or more. Our great desire is to co-operate with the young people, and assist them in starting Little Savings Accounts at the earliest possible moments in their lives. We have no other motive in view in making this generous offer. From personal experiences, we know the value of a dollar saved early in life.

A Generous Proposition

This offer is a generous one and the $500 we will give to 500 persons is to show our true desire to assist.

Open a Savings Account Now. Make up your mind to save one dollar or more each week or month. FORM THE SAVING HABIT.

Will Banquet Royal Neighbors.
The Modern Woodmen have made arrangements to tender a banquet to the members of the Royal Neighbors, the ladies' society of that organization. The banquet will be held at the K. P. hall Thursday evening of this week at 8:30 o'clock. Covers will be laid for about two hundred and a very enjoyable evening is anticipated. The object is to awaken greater interest in the Woodmen which though it holds its membership, does not meet with the frequency desired and those meetings which are held are rather meagrely attended.

Not as Bad as Reported.
"Damaged Goods" was presented at The Pat Saturday afternoon and evening and attracted a large audience. The play was much discussed prior to its production and some went so far as to favor action preventing it being shown. However, from those who attended we learn the film is not particularly shocking in morals and that its production is not likely to lower the standard of morality in North Platte or elsewhere. It some times happens that over-sensitive people become unduly exercised over the announced showing of certain films or the production of society plays.

Teachers are Entertained.
The teachers of the city schools were the guests of the Twentieth Century Club Saturday afternoon at a banquet at the Odd Fellows' hall. With the exception of two, who were unable to attend, the entire corps of teachers were present and spent the afternoon very enjoyably. The main hall was beautifully decorated appropriate to Washington's birthday with flags, potted plants and cut flowers, the shades lowered and the room electrically lighted. A reception and informal conversation preceded the program the latter being in charge of Mrs. Frank Buchanan, chairman of the literature department of the club, and the numbers rendered were as follows: Piano solo, Mrs. E. A. Dowell; vocal solo, Mrs. Edw. Burke; original reading, "Reverie of a Teacher," Mrs. J. L. Barton; vocal solo, Mrs. Frank Hatch.

The guests were later taken to the dining hall, which had been elaborately decorated in the national colors, seated in a circle around the room and served with refreshments in charge of Mrs. Cottrell, of the domestic science department. Mesdames Field, Reynolds, Patterson and White poured tea and coffee. The courses of the lunch were decorated with small American flags, giving a pretty effect.

Marries Cowboy Entertainer.
The Omaha World-Herald of last Saturday contained this item:
George P. Schuster, a half-breed Apache Indian, one of the cowboy entertainers at the Orpheum, was quietly married yesterday to a pretty little school teacher who won his heart down in Texas while she was instructing the kiddies in the three R's and he was a rancher.

The young woman is Miss Iva Dell Williams of Hershey Neb., whom the rancher here and went with him to the court house, where County Judge Crawford married them. Paul Cullen, another of the cowboy entertainers, was best man.

Arduo Temporarily Dampened.
With pleasant weather and good roads for a two-week stretch, local automobile dealers had things coming their way and sales were being made daily. Everybody harbored a suspicion that spring was about to arrive and the fellow without a car had visions of balmy days, speedway roads and a desire to own a car now there is a halt; deep snow means bad roads, the would-be purchaser of a car has his arduo temporarily dampened and sales will lag for a week or two—perhaps longer. But in the meantime the ever-energetic dealer will be looking up new prospective buyers and about April first The Tribune will have many little items mentioning the fellows who are driving new cars.

Mrs. Wm. Mills Passes Away.
Mrs. William Mills, for many years a resident of the county and city, died February 16th at the home of her daughter Mrs. Frank Tullock, in Everett, Wash., death coming suddenly from heart disease. Mr. Mills at the time was in Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Mills came to Lincoln county in 1885 and located on a homestead six or eight miles southwest of town. After living there a number of years they moved to town, and Mr. Mills conducted the Brick livery barn, and later engaged in the rooming house business. They left North Platte about ten years ago for Portland and from there went to Everett. The deceased was known by many who will regret to learn of her death.

Mr. Mills is a cousin of Mrs. Fred Perritt of this city.

Keith Neville has returned from Omaha and other Nebraska points and is devoting this week to his publicity campaign. He is securing an organization in each county in the state. Newspapers reaching this office speak highly of his candidacy and especially those printed in western Nebraska town. There is a strong demand for a western Nebraska candidate, and Mr. Neville is regarded as the man.

Attorney J. G. Beeler spent yesterday in Ogallala on business.

D. B. Gould, of Grand Island, arrived here this morning to take charge of the Barkalow News Stand.

Contractors and Builders.
Let me figure with you on your reinforcing rods, all structural steel, including cast columns, thresholds, joist anchors, etc., before you place your order. I can save you money on these.

11-3 J. H. VAN CLEAVE.

J. H. Hegarty returned Saturday evening from the western part of this state where he transacted business for several days.

John Bratt left yesterday morning for Denver to spend a few days on business and visiting his daughter Mrs. Charles Hendy, Jr.

A note of warning to automobile owners comes from Ogallala. Last week a fellow giving his name as L. E. Patty arrived in that town and offered for sale two pre-to-lite tanks and some tools, claiming that he had been in the garage business in Colorado, had gone broke, but had kept part of his stock. He sold the tanks, and a day or two after Patty had disappeared Ed Searle found himself minus a tank, an extra tire and other accessories. The supposition is that Patty is the thief and that he steals in one town and sells in the next. He is supposed to be operating between Ogallala and Kearney. He travels in a car.

Messrs. F. C. Pielsticker, William Harcourt and Robert Douglas went to Dickens yesterday to attend a sale.
