

SOME USE FOR OLD JOGGS

Don't Fit in Well With the Rest, But Boss Had Good Reason for Keeping Him Around.

The visitor was being shown about by the head of the up-to-date business house.

"Who is that dapper youth at the glass-topped desk?" he asked.

"That is the superintendent of the card-index system. He keeps an index showing where the index cases are."

"Who is the young man with the gray gaiters and the efficient ears?"

"He keeps an index showing the length of time it takes to index the indexes."

"Who is the girl with the golden hair?"

"She decides under what index an index to the index of the filing cabinet shall be placed."

"And who is that gray-haired man at the disordered desk in the corner?"

"Oh, that's Old Jiggs. He doesn't fit in very well with the rest of the office, but I have to keep him around. He's the only employee who can find important papers when I want them in a hurry."—New York Mail.

As Johnnie Heard It.

Little Johnnie had been accustomed to go to sleep during every sermon, despite the scoldings of his mother.

One Sunday morning she sent him off to church and intimated to him that if he went to sleep they would go into executive session in the woodshed on his arrival from church.

As a test of his being away she required that he tell her the preacher's text when he went home.

Johnnie's natural propensity to sleep was offset by his fear as to what might happen in the woodshed, so he stayed awake.

He came back conscious of the fact that he was on the safe side, and when his mother asked him what the text was he unblushingly accused the preacher of the following text: "Moses was an oyster man and made ointment for the shins of his people."

The real text was: "Moses was an austere man and made atonement for the sins of his people."

HAD ALL DAY TO DO THEM

Busy Man's Explanation of How He Was Able to Hold Down His Three Jobs.

Alderman Curran of New York city worked his way through Yale college. During his course he was kept very busy by the various jobs he did to help with his expenses. On graduation he went to New York and was even busier than he had been in New Haven.

After some months of life in New York, a friend met him and said, "Henry, what are you doing?"

"I have three jobs," replied Mr. Curran. "I'm studying law, I am a newspaper reporter, and I am selling life insurance."

"How do you manage to get it all in?" said the friend.

"Oh," replied Mr. Curran, "that's easy enough. They're only eight-hour jobs."—Youth's Companion.

Donizetti and the Czar.

There are some persons who talk on all occasions when others are speaking, singing or whatever they may be doing. The Evangelical companion tells of the hint given by Donizetti, the great musical composer, to Czar Nicholas of Russia.

During Donizetti's long stay at St. Petersburg, he played by command before Czar Nicholas, who, in the course of the piece, entered into conversation with a bystander. Donizetti at once stopped the performance.

"Why have you stopped?" asked the autocrat.

"Sire," was the reply, "when the czar is speaking, everyone else should be silent."

Discreet.

"Didn't the ground hog prophesy good weather?" inquired the forgetful man.

"Yes. But like other discreet prophets he refused to be interviewed any further."

The KITCHEN CABINET

SANDWICHES FOR GUESTS.

Good wholesome bread is the great food in our homes and is often-times the most illly prepared. For the busy woman who has little time to prepare the light bread in the longer process this will appeal to her:

Quick Bread.

Boil and mash seven potatoes, add a pint of water in which the potatoes have been boiled, and three pints of cold water, then stir in two and a half cakes of yeast dissolved in a little warm water, two tablespoonfuls of salt, two of sugar and three of flour, mix and add a pint of boiling water; when cool add to the first mixture and cover with a cloth and keep warm ten hours. Then place in a moderately cool place until needed. For each loaf of bread put four cups of flour, warm and sifted into a bread pan with a pint of the yeast, a cupful of scalded milk, cooled, and a tablespoonful of lard. Mix with a spoon, then knead briskly for ten minutes, mold into loaves and let rise in a warm place. When light bake forty-five minutes in a moderate oven.

Tea Rolls.—Scald two cupfuls of milk and pour it over a cupful of sugar, three tablespoonfuls of butter and a teaspoonful of salt. When it is cool to luke-warm beat into it three cupfuls of flour, sifted three times, then add a cake of yeast, dissolved in a fourth of a cupful of luke-warm water. Cover and let rise until it is light, then add two well-beaten eggs, three more cupfuls of flour and a teaspoonful of cinnamon. Place in a buttered bowl and let rise until double its bulk. Form into small rolls and place in a buttered pan, let them rise until very light. Brush the tops with melted butter and bake in a hot oven for fifteen minutes by adding to the above one-half a cupful of cocoa.

Poppers.—Take two cupfuls of flour, two cupfuls of milk, three eggs and a teaspoonful of salt. Beat the eggs until light, add the milk and salt and pour gradually into the flour, beating all the time. Strain the batter and pour into hot greased gem pans. Bake in a hot oven twenty-five minutes.

Let us examine secretly whether there is any wrong intrusted to us to set right.—Dickens.

Greatness is nothing if it is not lasting.—Napoleon.

Prate loudly; blame softly.

Yesterday is gone. Tomorrow never comes. Today is here. If you don't know what to do, sit still and listen. You may hear something. Nobody knows.—Charles Sandberg.

DAINTY CAKES FOR DESSERTS.

With a sheet of sponge cake one may vary the desserts, having something different each day for a week if so desired.

Cut thin sponge cake in rounds, heap on sliced bananas and add a little lemon juice, then heap on sweetened and flavored whipped cream, dot with a cherry or bits of jelly.

Cut plain sponge cake in slices, using three slices for each serving, put these together with sweetened rhubarb or rhubarb and orange marmalade, decorate the top with cream and a bit of jelly.

Oranges sliced and placed as a filling in chocolate cake, served with a boiled custard is delicious.

Cake crumbs of various kinds with any stewed or canned fruit, make a most delicious dessert, served either steamed hot or baked.

Strawberry Dessert.—Cut plain cake in squares, and dip in canned strawberry juice to soften, put on a layer of sliced bananas and decorate with a few choice preserved strawberries. Serve with whipped cream colored with the juice and slightly sweetened.

Fig Betty.—Take two cupfuls of cake crumbs, melt a tablespoonful of butter and stir in the crumbs until well mixed. Place a layer of the crumbs in a baking dish, add a thin layer of apple and figs, finish with the buttered crumbs. Add enough lemon juice and water to keep the mixture moist enough to bake. Cook until the apple is tender.

Small Staying Power.

The world is full of unfortunates that have but one ailment—indecision.—Sam Johnson.

STAFF OF LIFE.

Sandwiches are used particularly for cold repasts, especially for outdoor excursions and picnics. They are easily made and depend for perfection on their daintiness.

For chicken salad sandwiches chop the chicken and celery much finer than for the salad. Cut the bread in narrow oblongs, butter, lay on a lettuce leaf and a filling of the salad.

Fig Sandwiches.—Prepare a half pound of figs by chopping them, and a third of a cupful of sugar, a half cupful of boiling water, two tablespoonfuls of lemon juice, mix and cook these ingredients in a double boiler until thick enough to spread. Cut the bread in fancy shapes, spread with softened butter and place the fig filling between.

Lettuce Sandwiches.—Spread white bread, cut in oblongs, with butter, lay on a lettuce leaf dipped in salad dressing and sprinkle with Roquefort cheese.

Kindergarten Sandwiches.—Cut brown bread with a doughnut cutter, also cut slices of white bread and use the same cutter. Spread out the small circles and the hollow ones, put a dark center into a white ring and a white center into a dark one, spread with butter and cottage cheese, put together in pairs or serve singly.

A most appetizing filling for any sandwich is a common boiled dressing which has been thinned with a little of the seasoned oil and vinegar from oil pickles, with a bit of the pickles chopped and added with a tablespoonful or two of finely chopped boiled ham.

A green pepper finely chopped added to boiled dressing is a flavor which is well liked for sandwiches. Olives stuffed or plain, pickles of various kinds and salt of celery or other seasonings also make a good filling.

BACKACHE, RHEUMATISM
Dear Mr. Editor:
For a long time I suffered from backache, pain in left side, frequent urination (bothering me at all times during the day and night), and the uric acid in my blood caused me to suffer from rheumatism along with a constant tired, worn-out feeling. I heard of the new discovery of Dr. Pierce, of the Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., called "Anuric." After giving "Anuric" a good trial I believe it to be the best kidney remedy on the market today. I have tried other kidney medicines but these "Anuric Tablets" of Dr. Pierce's are the only ones that will cure kidney and bladder troubles. (Signed) HENRY A. LOVE.

NOTE:—Experiments at Dr. Pierce's Hospital for several years proved that "Anuric" is 37 times more active than lithia. Send Dr. Pierce 10c for trial package.

A Leading Food Expert

stood before the big battery of milling machines in the Grape-Nuts factories at Battle Creek, Mich., and after inspecting both the wheat and flour said to the miller:

"That's selected wheat, and no 'patent flour' stunt, either. That wheat comes out of the rolls as honest and unrefined as it went in. Where did you ever make flour before that retained the true mineral content of the grain?"

And the wise miller replied: "I have worked in a good many mills, and I am no youngster, but let me tell you, I never made whole wheat flour like that until I came with this company."

The truth is, white flour is woefully lacking in certain essential mineral elements which are thrown out in the milling to make flour white and pretty, and its use frequently results in impaired health and activity.

The famous pure food,

Grape-Nuts

is made of honest whole wheat and malted barley; and supplies in splendid proportion all the brain- and nerve-making, bone- and muscle-building elements of the field grains, including their mineral elements.

Rich, nut-like flavour, ease of serving, and quick digestibility have made Grape-Nuts a household word the country over.
