Favors State-Wide Prohibition.

While The Tribune editor will vote for licensing saloons in North Platte he will advocate state-wide prohibition when that issue comes before the people. He has never been in favor of local option, because it is, to a great extent, a farce so far as attaining the desired result. This opinion is held because he has never been in a "dry" town where he could not buy a drink of liquor if he so desired, and he believes that if liquor is to be sold it should be dispensed by those who pay a license.

This editor has always favored national prohibition, as much from an economic standpoint as from the moral view. This nation-wide prohibition is attainable only by the states first adopting state-wide prohibition. This early The Tribune goes on record as favoring state prohibition and it will devote considerable energy to that end.

Re-Elect Strelitz and Baskins.

The retiring members of the board of education are A. F. Strelitz and Leslie Baskins, and The Tribune trusts that the voters will by common consent deem them worthy of re-election and not place opposing candidates in the field. Messrs. Strelitz and Baskins have made valuable members of the board, taking a lively interest in the work and using their best judgment in the conduct of school affairs. The construction of the new Junior high school is the one big improvement of this year; the retiring members have given their assistance in developing a building commensurate with needs of the district, they are acquainted with all the details of the work as it has progressed, and it would now be mighty poor policy to "swap horses in the middle of the stream."

Bryan Will Visit Town.

Announcement is made that W. J. Bryan will visit North Platte some time prior to April 4th—the day of the municipal election—and give a talk on prohibition. While we do not question Mr. Bryan's sincerity in making this visit, we find there are some who do, there are those who believe that so bitter is Mr. Bryan against Senator Hitchcock that the espousal of Keith Neville's candidacy by the World-Herald, together with Mr. Neville's statement that he will vote against prohibition, is largely responsible for Mr. Bryan's coming, and they naturally resent having Neville made a factor in the Bryan-Hitchcock fight. We understand the local anti-saloon element is not responsible for Mr. Bryan's coming, but that they will welcome his appearance.

City Politics Warming Up.

For the next three weeks we may expect considerable life in municipal politics, into which little if any partisanship will be injected. It is not likely that nominating conventions will be held and that candidates will be placed on the ticket by petitions. The officials to be elected are a councilman from each ward, a city clerk to fill the unexpired term of C. F. Temple—which runs for another year—and two members of the board of education.

In the First ward petitions are out for M. C. Bohagen, the present member of the council, and for D. W. Besnek. In the Second ward E. W. Mann retires, but whether he will be a candidate for re-election is not known. A petition for John Knox has been circulated in that ward. H. N. Porter and D. A. Russell will oppose each other in the Third ward, petitions for both being circulated. In the big Fourth, W. H. Ingles seems to have the field alone.

Street paving has had its inception under Mayor Evans and the present council and that measure has now reached the point where the contract is soon to be let and construction work begin. The retiring members are conversant with the work that has so far been done on this all-important matter, and for one we feel that if any of all of those whose terms expire seek a re-election that they should receive the support of the voters. What is said of paving applies to the water plant. The present council has been working on plans whereby the plant might become self-supporting and at the same time not advance the rates so as to become burdensome. This plan is now nearing completion, and the continued help of the members conversant with the work so far done is needed.

The Tribune will therefore favor the return of Councilman Bohagen and Porter, believing that they can better serve the people in the above important matters than could two new members.

Easter Comes on April 23.

Easter this year falls on April 23, the latest date but one on which it falls during the rest of the twentieth century. In 1943 it will be celebrated on April 25. In some year 2000 it will come on April 23, again. Every other year in the century Easter will come earlier than April 23.

Easter is fixed by ecclesiastical custom as the first Sunday following the first moon after the spring equinox March 21. If the moon falls on Sunday then Easter is the Sunday following.

In 1905 Easter came on April 23, the same date as this year. In 1886 it came on April 25, which is the latest date Easter can possibly fall.

The next late Easter will be April 20, 1919, and on this same date in 1924 and 1930. In 1935 Easter will be on April 31. In 1889 Easter was celebrated on April 21, and on the same date in 1878 and 1867.

Mrs. Jack Carroll and children who were visiting in Fremont have returned home.

WHO'S WHO.

G. T. Stegmann.

There is probably no man better able and qualified to handle the office of sheriff than G. T. Stegmann, republican candidate for nomination for that office. Mr. Stegmann came to North Platte about eight years ago and for three years was employed as an engineer at the North Platte Water Co., and five years ago entered the service of the U. P. R. Co. as an air inspector, which position he holds at the present time.

Mr. Stegmann has been a very efficient employe at what ever duties were entrusted to him. He is a man who attends strictly to his own affairs and everyone that knows him speaks well of him. Mr. Stegmann, is the father of Dick Stegmann, who has been with the Rusch Mercantile Co. for eight years, and is a German-American, being born in eastern Iowa. He is an honest, sober and law abiding citizen and always has a good word for his fellow men. He speaks three languages very fluently. There is no doubt but that Mr. Stegmann will give his opponents a merry chase if not win the race. We are confident that if Mr. Stegmann is nominated and elected to office he will make a very efficient officer.

C. H. Walter.

One of the best known men in Lincoln county is C. H. Walter, who is a candidate for the republican nomination for county clerk. Mr. Walter first came to Lincoln county sixteen years ago, and located at Wallace as a stock buyer and shipper. He remained there until four years ago, when he came to North Platte to engage in the same business, and in which he has been successful. As a stock buyer for sixteen years, the very nature of the business has thrown him in contact with farmers from all sections of the county, and his acquaintance is therefore very large. In his business dealings he has always been on the "level," and it is not uncommon to hear a farmer, who has sold cattle or hogs to Mr. Walter, say that "Walter always treats a man white." This treatment has made him popular wherever he is known. Mr. Walter is a good business man, has excellent clerical ability and possesses good judgment. He is energetic, always busy and believes in keeping things moving all the time. With his wide acquaintances for clerk will find him a formidable contestant for the honors.

D. E. Martin.

One of the candidates for the republican nomination for county commissioner for the Third district is D. E. Martin, who lives six miles northwest of Hershey. He becomes a candidate largely through the insistence of residents north of the river, who claim they are entitled to representation on the board from the fact that the Third district member for many years past has either resided south of the south river or between the rivers, and that it is only fair that that part of the district north of the river now be given a candidate. Mr. Martin has lived in Nebraska for eighteen years, ten years of which has been spent in Lincoln county. He owns a farm-ranch of 800 acres in Birdwood precinct, and is a man who does things, among his crops last year being 350 acres of corn. He is a progressive man in all particulars. He was one of those who assisted in the construction of the Birdwood telephone line, and he has been instrumental in having roadways in his section of the county improved, in fact he is a great booster for good roads. He has always been a staunch republican, and his father was a union soldier in the civil war. Mr. Martin is highly endorsed by his acquaintances as a man of the highest type of citizenship; an honest, energetic and capable man, and one who would make an efficient county official.
